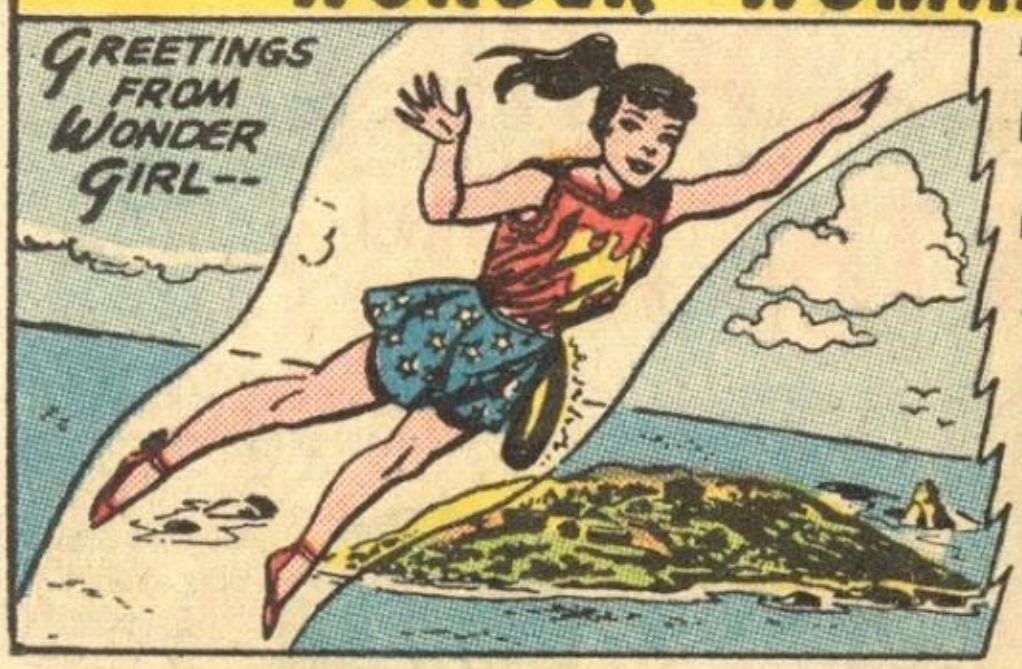
WONDER WOMAN'S CLUBHOUSE



Hola! This is Wonder Woman, coming to you from Paradise Island, secret home of the Amazons! There are many letters to answer today, so let's start right in!

Dear Wonder Woman: I have been a great fan of yours for a long time, and will always continue to be one. To prove it, I have formed a fan club devoted exclusively to you, and my aim is to make it the largest and most active Wonder Woman Fan Club in the country. Since there must be a lot of other readers of yours who would be happy to join if they knew about it. I would appreciate it if you printed the address, so that the others might contact me. Here it is: Wonder Woman Fan Club, c/o Frank McKisie, 3731 N.W. First Street, Miami, Florida. Keep up the good work! —Frank McKisie, Miami, Fla.

Dear Frank: Thanks a million—and I wish you the best of luck in your goal of making your Wonder Woman Fan Club the country's biggest! —Wonder Woman.

* * *

Dear Wonder Woman: My friends and I have had a Wonder Woman Fan Club for three years. The only thing wrong is, although I am the leader, I don't have a proper Wonder Woman costume. I have tried to make one, using up many different kinds of material—and my mother has even tried. But it never comes out right.

I know I am asking a lot, but won't you make one for me? If you would be so kind, I would have the best Wonder Woman Fan Club in the world, and all of our members would be so happy. Please? —Carollynne Pipoli, Sault-Ste-Marie, Ontario.

Dear Carollynne: Nothing would make me happier than to take the time to make you a proper costume. But if I did the same for all my loyal fans who asked for the same thing, I would never have time for adventures. But I'm sure that if you keep trying, sooner or later, you will make a proper costume yourself. And when you do, please write in and tell me so, won't you? —Wonder Woman.

Dear Wonder Woman: I am a collector of your comic books. In fact, I brought one back with me from Frankfurt, Germany, where I had gone on a visit. It was fun, reading your latest adventures on a plane. —Evelyn Rae, Whitby, Ontario.

Dear Evelyn: Who knows—you might have set a record for being the "highest" reader of my adventures, at that time? —Wonder Woman.

* * *

Dear Wonder Woman: When you say such things as "Great Hera," are you sort of making fun of the Greek goddesses? My pal says that you are. My dad says he hopes that you are not, because he says he loves the Greek gods and goddesses. —Paul Shiver, Cambridge, Mass.

Dear Paul: Of course I'm not making fun of the Greek gods and goddesses. After all, I'm distantly "related" to them! —Wonder Woman.

* * *

Dear Wonder Woman: I do not have any friends to play with at present, for I have just moved to this block. I heard that some of the girls who live here have a Wonder Woman Fan Club, but I do not think they would let me join because they do not know me. What should I do? —Toni Medaris, Lemoore, Calif.

Dear Toni: I am sure you are mistaken about the fans who live on your block. They must be the kind of people who would welcome newcomers to their hearts. Show them this letter when it is printed—and I am sure they will make you a member of their Club. Good luck! —Wonder Woman.

And now, dear friends, my omni-receiver is summoning me to new adventures! Send me the news of your fan clubs to . . .
