Notes:

Born in Extalia, in Edolas. He is an Exceed just like Happy. He was born with a big body, and because he was so different from other Exceed, he became very interested in humans. One day, after helping a human child (Mystogan), he was removed from Extalia, and began to live in the human world together with Mystogan. Then, he trained himself and became a captain of the Royal Army. Since coming to Earth Land, his body has shrunk, and can only temporarily revert to his original body, but seems to like his new one.
