A LUNATIC.

A close-up of the younger man's face, focusing on his right eye which is wide and looking intently.

HE WENT TO JINLIN CITY
FOR PRACTICAL TRAINING.

The two men are standing on a rooftop or high vantage point, looking down at a city at night. The city is filled with traditional buildings and some modern structures. The sky is dark with some light streaks.
