READ THE NEXT ISSUE OF THE NEW WONDER WOMAN #192-- ASSAULT ON CASTLE SKULL!

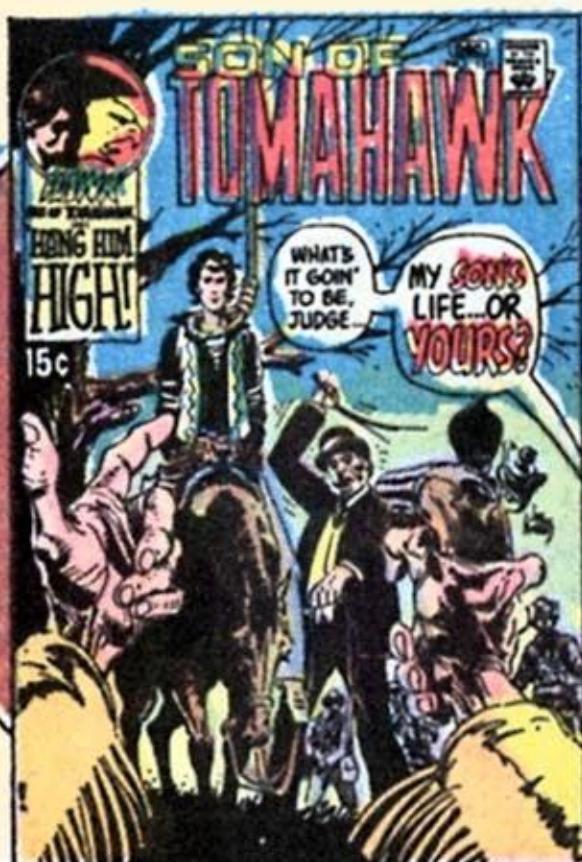

DIRECT CURRENTS

A

All right, readers—you asked for it, so it's back—the feature that tells you what's coming in the DC line—DIRECT CURRENTS! And as before, it's brought to you by E. Nelson Bridwell (the Big E.). So what's new in the world's most exciting comics? So much I'm bursting to tell you the whole thing...for example...

Editor Joe Kubert tells me Russ Heath has turned in another great Easy Company job for OUR ARMY AT WAR. This is the November issue, #225, featuring Sgt. Rock and some new Easy recruits who contrast the battlefield with the home front, and come to the conclusion that it takes both to fight a war. On sale Sept. 1.

SON OF TOMAHAWK—that's DC's great, new Western feature. Set in the early 19th century, it features the famed Revolutionary War hero in his later life, after he marries an Indian girl and they have two sons. One boy is a youth with an attraction for trouble; the other is his 10-year-old kid brother. Don't miss this December issue (#131), on sale Sept. 1.

Are you one of those unfortunates who missed the tale of how WONDER WOMAN lost her powers and began a new life as plain(?) Diana Prince? There must be a lot of you, because you've been deluging Big Mike Sekowsky with pleas to repeat the tale. So he's given in, and you'll see it in the December issue, #191, which hits the stands Sept. 1. (And if you've read that one already, don't miss the NEW material in this number!)

When you fight for justice on the high seas, you're bound to run into a "Crime Wave"—which is exactly what happens to AQUAMAN in his wildest adventure yet. It's a Gothic mystery...a Crime tale...a weird fantasy...and even a Western—all rolled into one! How can all these plots be put together? To find out, you'll have to read this tale in the December issue (#54), on sale Sept. 3.

Ever hear of a "Man with Ten Eyes"? That's who's after the BATMAN in his November issue, #226. Our new "villain" has been blinded—and he puts the blame on the Masked Manhunter! So this war veteran—who, thanks to a fantastic new discovery, now has five times the vision of a normal man—sets out on a trail of vengeance. On sale Sept. 3.

Say, did you know Carmine Infantino's done some new art for DC? Don't take my word for it—see his great cover for THE FLASH #201 (November). Inked by Murphy Anderson, this one illustrates a story of a "Million Dollar Dream" that's shattered by the Fastest Man Alive! Yes, the basketball player with the dream is crippled, and the Flash is to blame! Also—a Golden Age Flash tale, pitting the original Speed King against his old foe, the Fiddler! On sale Sept. 3.

Neal Adams has done it again with his eerie cover for the December HOUSE OF MYSTERY (#189). As if that weren't enough, catch Bob Kanigher's chilling tale, "Eyes of the Cat," with art by Grandenetti and Wood. It's a real weirdie about a killer and a very unusual feline! Also, Jack O'leek's "The Thing in the Chair," graced by Tom Sutton's art. Of course, you won't want to miss the Page 13 feature. This one's on sale Sept. 8.

Johnny Cloud...Captain Storm...Gunner and Sarge! These are the Losers, who, even when they seem to win, wind up with the fuzzy end of the lollipop. In OUR FIGHTING FORCES #128 (December), they star in an epic called "Angel Over Hell's Corner," a tale of love between a British pilot and a nurse, against the explosive background of World War II. If you dig emotion and action, you'll get it the minute it comes out, on Sept. 8.

Take JERRY LEWIS, a gang of bicycle thieves, a group of firemen, and a popcorn factory, and you have the ingredients of one of the most hilarious laugh-getters around. And once the Sultan of Slapstick gets out of the "Schnook and Ladder" adventure, he lands between two feuding families in the hills, as "A Boob in the Woods"! It's all in the December issue (#121), which comes your way Sept. 8.

The big change hits WORLD'S FINEST with the November issue (#198). Instead of the Batman, Superman teams up with the Flash this time...for a race to end all races! Who starts them on this marathon that leads right out of our galaxy? You'll be surprised! And you'll also see Jimmy Olsen in one of the tightest spots he's ever tumbled into. All this and more...so get it on Sept. 10!

Do you have art talent worth developing? Take our free test and see

If you have ever wondered whether you had art talent, here is your chance to find out. The founders of Famous Artists School have put together what many artists and educators consider to be the most revealing test of art ability ever devised. It is offered to you free.

Designed for people uncertain of their ability

The people who take this Art Talent Test are of all ages and occupations. Most of them have little or no previous art training. By professional standards, their drawings may be awkward and amateurish. But the ones who possess the gift of art talent reveal it in many ways. Through simple little exercises, they show the inborn sense of design, the feeling for composition, the ability to observe, and the lively imagination which are such important ingredients of art talent.

The reliability of this method of screening, as well as the effectiveness of the training, has been proven again and again by the impressive record of success of our students and graduates.

They passed the test and went on to become successful artists

When Anthony Fotia took the Art Talent Test, he was a mail clerk, "stuck" in a low-pay routine job. Today, he's an artist for a printing firm, doing exciting creative work. Kathleen Gironda went from a salesgirl in a department store to a fashion illustrator in the same store. Virginia Bartter, a farmer's wife and mother of three, now sells just about everything she paints. These are just a few of the literally hundreds of "success stories" our students report to us.

So if you love to sketch or dabble in paints

—and have often wondered if you "have what it takes" to become a well-paid commercial artist or sparetime professional painter—why not seize this opportunity to find out? All you need is a pencil and a half-hour of your time. With your special interest, it will be one of the most intriguing and enjoyable half-hours you ever spent.

What the Talent Test covers

First, you will be shown ten pairs of simple designs and asked to pick the one in each pair that has "a feeling of rightness" about it. Then you will see twenty pairs of pictures, and check which composition in each pair is more pleasing. You'll be asked to do original sketches to demonstrate your imagination and powers of observation. And in similar ways, your feeling for mood, form, movement, and so on will be tested.

When you complete the test and mail it back, it will be graded free by a member of the School's staff. If you receive a passing grade (and we must warn you that many don't), or can offer sufficient evidence of art talent, you will then be eligible to enroll. You may choose whichever of our courses is best suited to your goals.

Courses offer personal instruction

These courses were especially designed for talented people who can't leave their families or jobs for art training away from home. The 12 famous artists who started the School over 19 years ago contributed all their lifetime secrets of art technique to what they believe to be the finest art lessons ever created. They took time out from their own busy careers and made thousands of special drawings to demonstrate each point. Then they devised a method of constructive criticism that is as personal as tutoring. Your instructor, who is himself required to be a practicing professional artist, spends up to several hours on just one of your assignments. He actually draws or paints his suggestions for improvement, and then "talks" to you by letter, dictating a long, friendly message of specific advice and encouragement.

You will receive an interesting brochure about our School and its revolutionary methods along with your free Art Talent Test. If you have ever dreamed of success in art, and wondered if it were possible, why not mail the coupon at left for both the Talent Test and the brochure right now?
