Dear Wonder Woman Fans:

From Mr. Drury Muroz of Joliet, Illinois, 60433, comes one of his head-shrinking letters. And even though it is my head that is being shrunken, Mr. Muroz's letter, as usual, is interesting enough to be worth it. Here it is:

Dear Mr. "K":

This is the only way I want to write to you, to "Mr. R.K."—not "Wonder Woman".

But this letter does have to do with WONDER WOMAN, specifically #174.

There is only one thing I want to ask: "Mr. 'K', what took you so long—to introduce Steve Trevor as THE PATRIOT?"

It was an idea I had had for a long time—to make Steve a super-hero partner of W.W. I even, whether you believe it or not, wrote out a script back when "Wonder Tot" was fighting "Big Bad Mans", and I was, frankly, ill. My name for Steve was DYNAMIC MAN. His powers were not physical—like SUPERMAN. They were mental—mind over matter, telekinesis, a "mental forcefield, the ability to will an object to disintegration, and the power to hurl mental forcebolts from his hands". Ultrasonics was his "Kryptonite"

In WONDER WOMAN #174 a tremendous change occurred. The story seemed a trifle better thought out, the artwork seemed better and the end scene where W.W. said: "I think a super Steve Trevor has been something I've always needed in my life!" Amen, Mr. K., Amen!

Now, if this is to be carried to a logical conclusion (and assuming The Patriot is not to be just a one-shot) Steve should be made—as Kid Flash was made—a full partner! After 174 issues, I think WONDER WOMAN should let Steve know her secret identity. It would be better all around! They could team up more closely; there could be more of an impetus added to their romance; and at least the entire series might grow up this way.

I don't think it's that important. The Diana Prince identity is just a convenience when one considers how she got it—way back in SENSATION #1 which I have in mint condition to prove at least that I'm not her "deadly, uncompromising foe"—in the first place.

In addition, Diana doesn't "live". We know nothing of her character except that she's a nurse, and in current issues, she is spending fewer and fewer panels in this identity. So now would be the time to "put Steve wise". There are fewer and fewer modern day CC's which still cling to this all-important "secret identity", and, in a way, I think comicdom is much better for it all.

I see a scene, Mr. K, I see two scenes which I, as a Wonder Woman fan have waited over twenty years to see. One is the simple, unpretentious series of not more than three panels where Diana would take Steve aside, into some private place, where the entire revelation could be facilitated by her removing her glasses, rearranging her hair, putting on her Amazonium tiara, and showing him her Amazon bracelets. She wouldn't even have to change into her full costume.

The story, whatever, however it is to be, goes right along. Nothing changes except perhaps in the very last panel, where it could be much like the last panel of "Wonder Woman Vs The Air Devils", except it is Steve Trevor and plain Diana Prince who are walking arm in arm.

It has been 400 years since the "Man of La Mancha" set out on the worthy steed Rosinante, to right wrongs and joust with windmills, but even in this day and age, Mr. K., there are still those who "strive—with their last ounce of courage—to dream the impossible dream"! Perhaps I am one of them.

Sincerely,

Drury Muroz.

Well, Wonder Woman fans, what do YOU think of Mr. Muroz's letter of comments. Do you agree in part, or in whole, or do you disagree with his ideas. Let's hear from you via Wonder Woman's letter column. RK. (bloody, but unbowed).

Well, it's time for more news about the newest from the DC front. Coming up . . . the introduction of a new kind of hero—ANTHRO; Neal Adams' first art job on the Superman-Batman team; Steve Ditko's CREEPER in his own mag; and an 80 PAGE GIANT devoted to the Legion of Super-Heroes! P.S. Don't forget two new features on the agenda for the near future: ANGEL AND THE APE and THE HAWK AND THE DOVE!

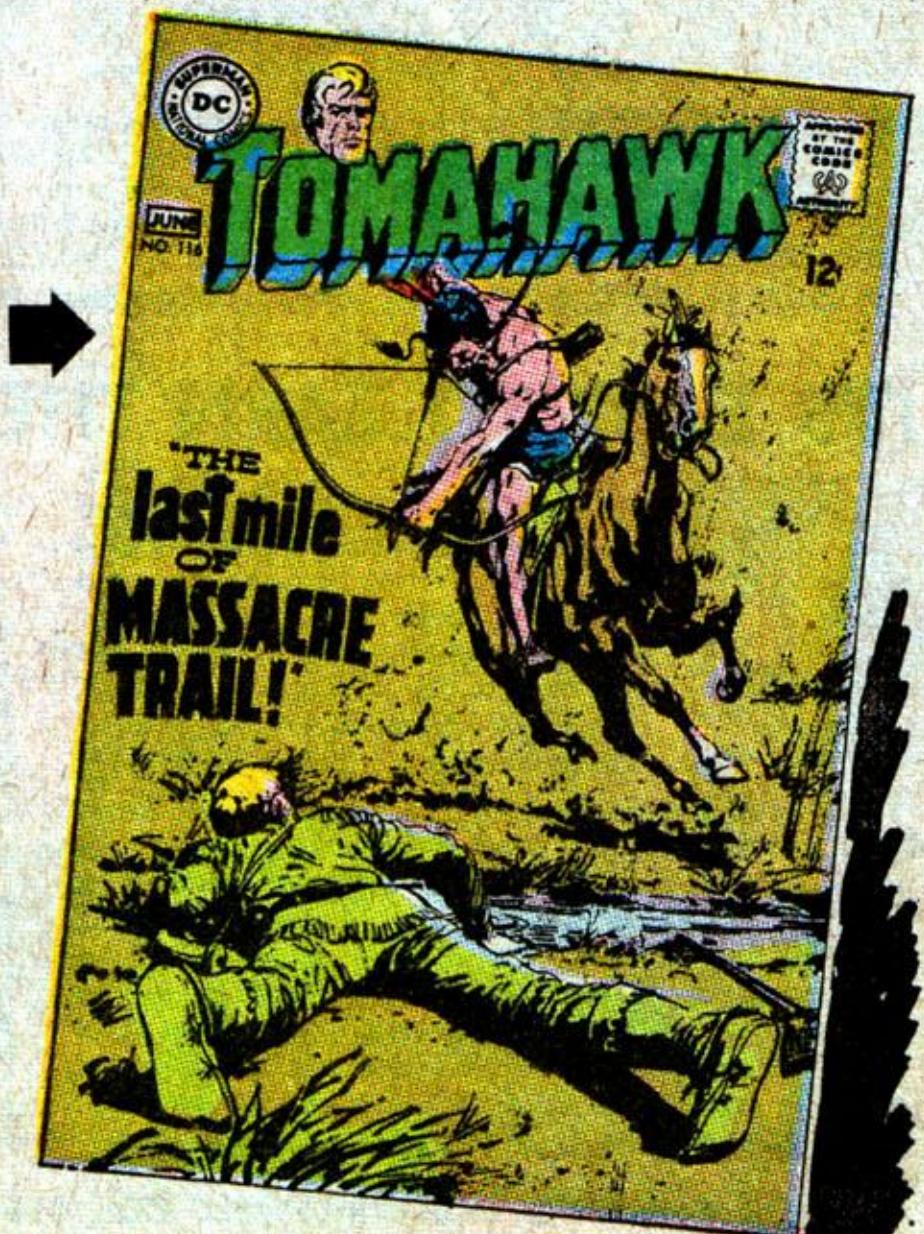

Why would the JOKER, PENGUIN, CATWOMAN, MAD HATTER, CLUEMASTER, GETAWAY GENIUS and JOHNNY WITTS team up to save the life of their arch-foe, BATMAN? The startling reason for their becoming "BATMAN'S GANGLAND GUARDIANS" is revealed in the May issue of the COWLED CRUSADER'S mag, No. 201, which goes on sale March 5!

Is THE FLASH a fictional character dreamed up for THE FLASH magazine, or a real person? Is the concept of human super-speed absurd, or is it feasibly possible? If you think you know the REAL answers, you're in for a jolting surprise in the SCARLET SPEEDSTER'S May issue, No. 179, which hits the newsstands March 5!

Headed for a well-deserved rest, the RANGERS are detoured when a wagon train of settlers is ambushed by a band of rampaging redskins! There's always one good scrap left in the RANGERS, but the savage Indians and a double-crossing wagon master threaten them with death, in the June TOMAHAWK, No. 116, on sale March 7!

The SUPERMAN REVENGE SQUAD joins forces with the new BATMAN REVENGE SQUAD . . . to plot the double murder of the WORLD'S FINEST HEROES! How they scheme to sabotage a DUEL OF WITS between MAN OF STEEL and CAPED CRIMEBUSTER makes for spine-tingling suspense in the May issue, No. 175, which hits the stands on March 12!

A black box fished out of a lake is converted into a BLACKMAIL BOX—thus triggering off a jeopardy-jammed thriller for two men and five JUSTICE LEAGUERS in the all-star epic, "PANIC FROM A BLACKMAIL BOX," which comes your way in the May JUSTICE LEAGUE OF AMERICA, No. 62, on sale everywhere March 12!

WHICH I AM WORKING: _____

BY PURCHASING A BOX OF THESE USEFUL NAME LABELS

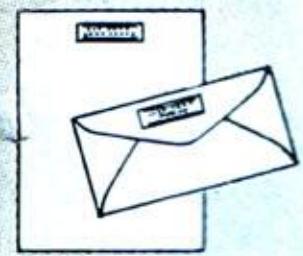

SAVE TIME AND TROUBLE! Use these neatly-printed gummed labels instead of writing out your name and address. On envelopes, postcards, packages, books, bank deposit slips, laundry lists, film, photos, color slides, sports equipment, etc. They're as easy to apply as a postage stamp, and using them will insure the return of many a valued article.

PLEASE YOUR FRIENDS with gift boxes of Writewell Name Labels. They make a wonderfully useful, novel, sure-to-be-welcomed gift.

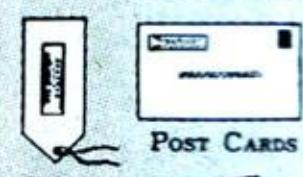

THESE ARE DE LUXE LABELS, far superior to those ordinarily advertised. They're large and legible, as shown here. Made from true printer's type (not photographed typewriter type). Printed in dark blue ink, with 3 or 4 neatly centered lines, on fine-quality glossy white gummed paper. The finest name-&-address labels anywhere available.
