WONDER WOMAN'S CLUBHOUSE

GREETINGS FROM WONDER
GIRL--

AND WONDER WOMAN!

Hola! This is Wonder Woman, writing to you from my home on Paradise Island. Here, at the Palace, I read all the wonderful cards and letters from my many loyal fans.

And right now is when I share some of them with you!

Dear Wonder Woman: My friends and I have just formed the Wonder Woman Fan Club of Toledo, Ohio. Meetings will be held in a basement room in the home of one of our members, Sally Joyce. This room was given to us by Mrs. Joyce, who is helping us decorate the walls with pictures of you cut out from your magazines. Next month, we are going to have an open-house party, and since this is your Fan Club, we were wondering if you would attend the party.

Lita Swanson, Toledo, O.

Dear Lita: I would really love to attend your Fan Club party, and the parties other Fan Clubs have invited me to. But if I spent all my time going to parties, there wouldn't be much time left for my adventures, would there? Thanks anyway for your kind invitation—and use your imaginations! Pretend that I am there!—Wonder Woman.

will read our favorite comic book first—Wonder Woman Magazine. As I am older than my sister Betty, don't you think I should have the first chance to read it?

Bobby Bagby, Wewahitchka, Fla.

Dear Bobby: I have a better idea. Why not read it together? It's always more fun doing things together.—Wonder Woman.

* * *

Dear Wonder Woman: I think you have made a big mistake in your stories. According to my Uncle Harry, Queen Hippolyta was killed by Hercules in the story in mythology. But in your stories, she is happy and alive. How do you explain this?

Ann Thomas, Providence, R. I.

Dear Ann: Your uncle is right. But, since both Hercules and Queen Hippolyta are completely fictitious characters—not real people—we prefer to write of her during happier times.—Wonder Woman.

* * *

Dear Wonder Woman: I think there is a big boner in Wonder Woman Magazine. I remember reading these stories many years ago, and you looked quite different. All of a sudden you into a very pretty girl, and v in the old days. In real hange just like that.

Wesley Peters, Chicago, Ill.
