PRINCE SO

End.

Once in a while there comes a story that becomes even bigger than anticipated. No huge hype, it just comes out and it's freaking fantastic, and you the readers tell us so.

This is the case with The Sinestro Corps War. Way back in January, I was visiting with Geoff Johns, and on one of the mornings he, Dave Gibbons and then-GREEN LANTERN editor Peter J. Tomasi were going over this story that would cross over between the two books. Hearing just bits, I, a huge GL fan, was intrigued. After the phone conference, Geoff filled me in on what would be happening in GL and GL CORPS. I was thrilled. This was gonna be so cool. Kyle as Parallax... wow! I wanted to tie in with my books—I immediately began plotting Tomasi's demise.

Now, here we are more than half a year later—the War is fully under way, and with each new chapter Geoff and Dave outdo themselves. We've even enlisted Ron Marz and Alan Burnett to give us even more in-depth coverage of the battle, producing some very special tie-ins. As fans, both I and my assistant, Adam Schlagman, are really thrilled to be working on this event, and as editors we're proud to be producing these books (I got to tie in with my other books after all, and I'm glad Peter found work as a writer; it could have gotten messy), and so that you don't miss any part of it, here's a list of the books affected by the events of the Sinestro Corps War... — Eddie Berganza
