

THE NEW 52!

6

The image features a massive, three-dimensional title "BATMAN" in a bold, blocky font. The letters are primarily a dark, metallic blue with a textured, almost crystalline or ice-like appearance. The "A" and "M" have a prominent jagged texture, resembling a rocky cliff face. The "B" and "T" are smoother but have a subtle metallic sheen. The letter "A" is particularly large and has a thick, jagged base. Above the "B", there is a small, circular emblem containing a stylized bat logo. In the upper right corner of the "A", there is a small "TM" symbol. The background is a dark, hazy space with a bright, glowing sphere (resembling the sun) visible behind the letters. The overall composition is dramatic and cinematic.

Whole body... every bone...
saying let go.

Let go...and let them take you.

Let it end.

The pain.

The fight.

Become a ghost, a face behind the glass.

A face...

...his face...

Alan Wayne.

His face... so scared. Begging...

... calling out for someone.

Someone to help him...

...to help him stop... them.

Enough.

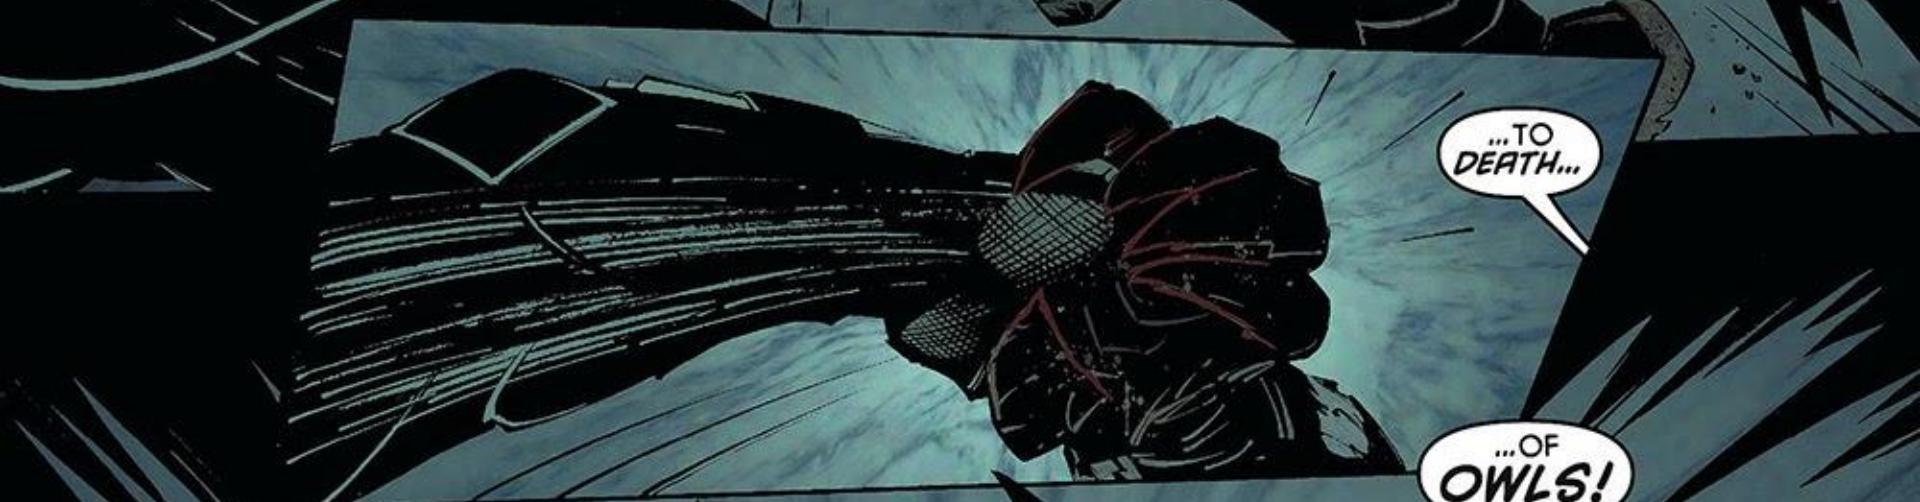

ENOUGH!

...THAT I AM SICK...

...TO DEATH...

...OF OWLS!

WHAM

Get out and go home...

...home to the cave and never...

...never come back here.

GASP!

No...

...can't get away.

Can't break through the glass.

They won't ever
let me go.

The Court...

...I'm already dead, aren't I?

Bones in the dark.

Nothing but a dead face...

...a face.
