FLASH
TUES at 8PM

Until recently, 26-year-old Barry Allen lived a normal life as a perpetually tardy CSI in the Central City Police Department. Then the S.T.A.R. Labs particle accelerator exploded, creating a dark matter lightning storm that struck Barry, bestowing him with super-speed and making him the Fastest Man Alive. But Barry wasn't the only person who was given extraordinary abilities that night. The dark matter also created metahumans, many of whom have wreaked havoc on the city with their powers. With the help of his scientist friends at S.T.A.R. Labs—Caitlin Snow, Cisco Ramon and Dr. Harrison Wells—Barry began a journey as the Flash to protect the people of Central City from these powerful new threats. With this team, Barry was finally able to defeat the Man in Yellow, a.k.a. the Reverse-Flash, but in their epic battle, a singularity was ripped into space and time that threatened to destroy them all.

After successfully keeping the singularity from destroying Central City, Barry thinks he's seen the worst...but the arrival of Jay Garrick reveals that the singularity actually opened portals to an alternate Earth, known as Earth-2, which is being terrorized by a formidable evil speedster named Zoom. Barry's father, Henry Allen, was freed from a wrongful life sentence...but when Zoom kills Henry before Barry's eyes, Barry's newfound stability is shattered. Blinded by anger, Barry unwittingly plays into Zoom's game and uncovers the evil speedster's true goal: to destroy all Earths in the Multiverse. In the race of his life, Barry ultimately gets the upper hand against Zoom and defeats his nemesis. Unable to celebrate victory, Barry makes a world-shaking decision and speeds back in time to the night his mother died to stop Reverse-Flash from killing her, irrevocably changing his past and re-determining his future.
