THIS WAS ONCE MY HOME
BUT I LEFT IT... AND NOW
SO HAS EVERYONE ELSE.

THEMYSIRA WAS ALWAYS A QUIET AND PEACEFUL PLACE...

BUT NOT LIKE

IT WAS ONCE
FULL OF LIFE...

...A LANDSCAPE
OF UNPARALLELED

CULTURE AND LEARNING...

FOR ME AND ME
ALONE TO SAY HOW

WHY I WAVE MY
"MIGHTY HAND"!

To Be Continued...

This doesn't feel quite right. It ain't natural to me. I usually operate behind the scenes and away from the glare of the spotlight. Y'see, my name is Fletcher Chu-Fong, and I'm DC's official Con Man.

It's not what you think. I wasn't hired to swindle anybody out of any money or property, and I have never spent any time in prison...that you know of. No, I'm DC's CONvention MANager. Get it?

Yup, it ain't easy being me. I'm usually everywhere that DC has a convention presence. With the assistance of my right-hand man, Rex Ogle, I handle all aspects of the DC convention & trade show experience. From initial planning to staging and execution, we do it all. Programming, talent relations, freebies determination, booth design, graphics, signings, shipping, setting up and dismantling—all that and more starts with us.

Many of you will have seen me at various cons such as New York Comic Con, WonderCon, Wizard World shows, usually darting from one section of the booth to another, barking orders, directing traffic, maybe diverting a crisis or two and taking time to address your questions or concerns. Yeah, that's me with the Bluetooth in one ear and sometimes a walkie-talkie headset in the other. It's become normal for me to hear voices in my head over the years!

Here we are, at the height of the convention season with the monster of all conventions bearing down on us, the San Diego Comic-Con. It is my job as DC's Con Man to help you make the most of your DC Convention experience and that's no con, man! (I crack me up!) Now that I am exposed (thanks, Dan), I may as well tell you some of the great panels you can expect while attending the aforementioned San Diego Comic-Con. Please note that this is subject to change!:)
