SOMEWHERE IN GOTHAM CITY, IN A SECRET HIDEAWAY KNOWN ONLY TO THE OVERLORDS OF THE UNDERWORLD -- SITS A LIVING ROGUES' GALLERY OF CRIMEDOM'S CLEVEREST CROOKS...

ALL RIGHT, PENGUIN-- THIS MEETING YOU SUMMONED US TO BETTER BE NO GAG!

YOU INTERRUPTED MY CATNAP..

I WAS TRYING ON A NEW HAT WHEN YOUR BIRDY VOICE ASSURED ME IT WAS A MATTER OF LIFE AND DEATH!

BATMAN'S DEATH!

CLUE US IN! WHOSE LIFE? WHOSE DEATH?

AND OURS AS WELL!

I'VE BEEN TIPPED OFF THAT A WEST COAST SYNDICATE IS ABOUT TO INVADE GOTHAM CITY!

SO WHAT! THERE'S NO CROOK GOING CAN CATCH THE GETAWAY GENIUS IN A DEATH-TRAP!

JOHNNY WITTS WILL ALWAYS BE ONE-STEP AHEAD OF 'EM!

WAIT! HEAR ME OUT, MY FINE-FEATHERED FELONS!

THE SYNDICATE ISN'T AFRAID OF US! BUT THEY KNOW THEY'LL NEVER GET A FOOTHOLD HERE AS LONG AS BATMAN IS AROUND TO STOP THEM...

...SO THEY'VE PLANNED A SERIES OF ROBBERIES AT WHICH DEATH-TRAPS HAVE BEEN SET FOR OUR NEMESIS, BATMAN!

NOW-- ASSUMING THEY DO DISPOSE OF THE CAPED CRUSADER...

THE SYNDICATE WILL HARDLY PERMIT US TO CONTINUE OPERATING HERE-- CUTTING IN ON THEIR PROFITS! SO THEY'LL KNOCK US OFF TOO!

ERGO-- WE MUST JOIN FORCES-- TEAM UP TO SPARE BATMAN'S LIFE!

BY SAVING BATMAN'S LIFE, WE'LL ACTUALLY BE SAVING OUR OWN!

THIS IS NO LAUGHING MATTER!

YOU'VE GIVEN US A PURR-FECT REASON TO STEP IN!

MY HAT'S OFF TO YOU, PENGUIN--FOR SOUNDING THE ALERT!

NOW-- AN IMPORTANT QUESTION--

WHO TIPPED YOU OFF ABOUT ALL THIS?

EYAD, MAD HATTER! I WAS AFRAID OF THAT EMBARRASSING QUESTION! TO BE BLUNT ABOUT IT--

SO THIS IS A GAG AT OUR EXPENSE, YOU BIRD-BRAIN!

NO-- WAIT! I REALIZE IT'S A LOT TO ASK OF YOU-- BUT ON MY HONOR AS A BUMBERSHOOT BANDIT--

I DON'T KNOW!

I'M A STEP AHEAD OF YOU-- YOU MASTER OF FOWL PLAY! I'M WALKING OUT ON THIS MEETING!

A VOICE CAME TO ME OUT OF THIN AIR-- GIVING ME THE DATES AND PLACES TO BE ROBBED BY THE SYNDICATE-- AS WELL AS THE TYPE OF DEATH-TRAPS SET THERE FOR BATMAN!

DO WE DARE TAKE THE RISK OF IGNORING THIS WARNING?

DO ANY OF YOU FAVOR THE SYNDICATE DESTROYING OUR CHANCES OF EVER MATCHING WITS WITH BATMAN AGAIN?

THE CAPE CRUSADER'S SKIN IS MEANT FOR MY SHARPENED CLAWS!

SOME-DAY-- SOMEWHERE-- I'LL HAVE THE LAST LAUGH ON THAT MASKED MANHUNTER!

I'M TOSSING MY HAT INTO THE RING-- COUNT ME IN!

AS THE GETAWAY GENIUS, I INSIST ON THE RIGHT OF HELPING BATMAN GET AWAY FROM ONE OF THOSE DEATH-TRAPS!

PENGUIN

CATWOMAN

MAD HATTER

I'D BE HALF-WITTED NOT TO AGREE!

IT'S AGREED THEN-- THAT WE ALLY OURSELVES WITH BATMAN?

AGREED! BATMAN STAYS ALIVE-- SO WE STAY ALIVE TO MATCH WITS WITH HIM AT A LATER DAY!

AGREED! THOUGH I NEVER THOUGHT I'D LIVE TO SEE THE DAY!

ONE CAUTIONING NOTE! WE MUST NEVER LET BATMAN SEE US!

IT MIGHT DESTROY HIS FAITH IN HUMAN NATURE IF HE SAW ANY OF HIS ARCH-FOES ACTUALLY SAVING HIS LIFE!

I'LL TAKE THE FIRST ROBBERY AND DEATH-TRAP-- TO MAKE SURE IT OCCURS AS I'VE BEEN INFORMED!

THEN, AFTER IT'S BEEN CONFIRMED, I'LL CONTACT THE REST OF YOU AND GIVE YOU YOUR ASSIGNMENTS!

HEAVENLY HATS! THIS IS THE WAY I IMAGINE THE JUSTICE LEAGUE OF AMERICA GOES INTO ACTION!

The FOLLOWING EVENING, AS A GRIMLY GARBED CREATURE OF THE NIGHT PROWLS THE LONELY LABYRINTH THAT IS GOTHAM CITY AFTER DARK...

HELLO! THE BAT-TECTOR IS KICKING UP!

THE HUNCH I HAD TO TAKE THIS ROUTE TONIGHT-- IS ABOUT TO PAY OFF!

INSIDE THE GOTHAM CITY MUSEUM WORKSHOP-- WHERE RARE ART TREASURES ARE CLEANED AND PROCESSED FOR DISPLAY IN THE MUSEUM ...

HERE COMES BATMAN-- JUST AS WE COUNTED ON!

HE DOESN'T KNOW IT-- BUT THAT DOORWAY IS BOOBY-TRAPPED WITH ENOUGH DYNAMITE TO BLAST HIM TO BAT-BITS ALL OVER THE JOINT!

SOON AS HE CROSSES THE DOORWAY, HE'LL BREAK AN ELECTRIC EYE BEAM AND--

Then-- through the dust and debris of a dynamite-disintegrated doorway hurtles the mightily muscled form of the CAPED CRUSADER...

HE AIN'T HUMAN!

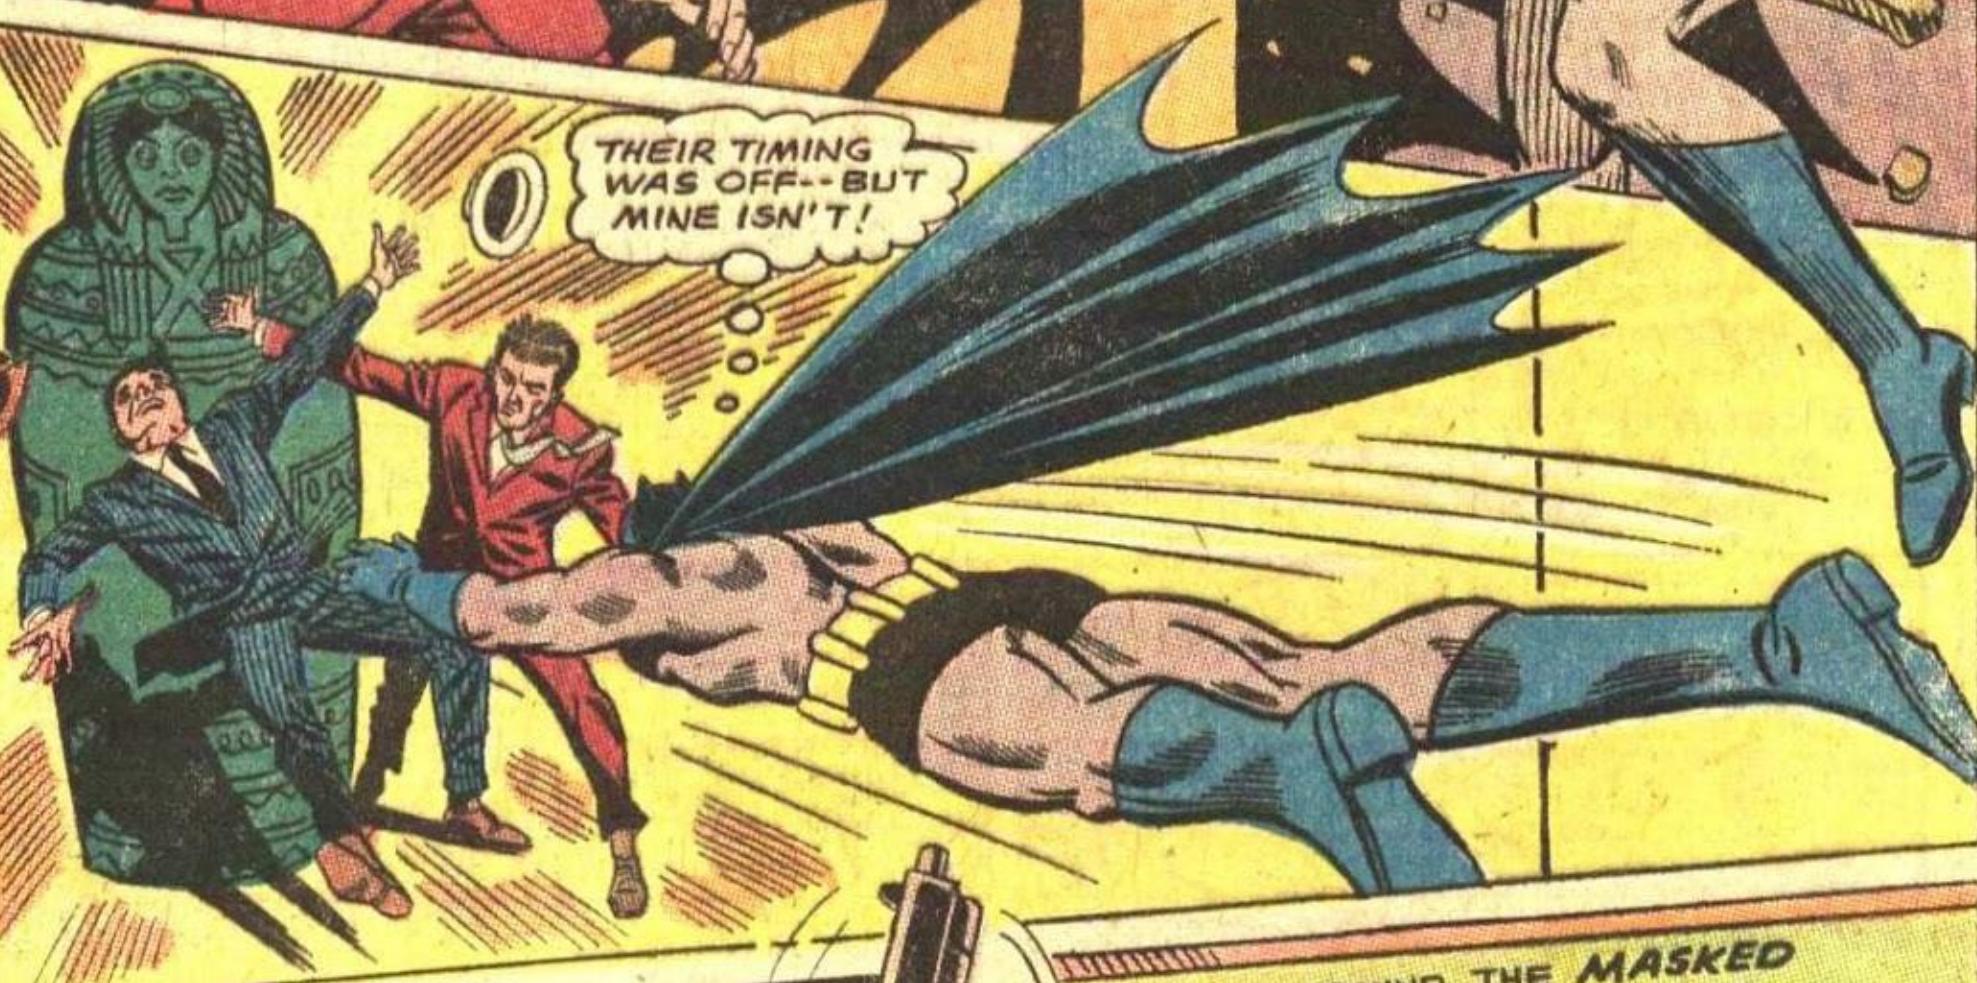

NOBODY-BUT NOBODY-COULD HAVE LIVED THROUGH THAT!

I DON'T KNOW HOW IT HAPPENED-- BUT THE DOORWAY BLEW UP--

-- JUST BEFORE I GOT TO IT!

THEIR TIMING WAS OFF-- BUT MINE ISN'T!

PIVOTING AROUND, THE MASKED MANHUNTER SEES--

THIS PLACE IS LIKE AN ARMORY-- LOADED WITH ALL SORTS OF WEAPONS!

THAT MEDIEVAL BATTLE-MACE--!

WHILE OUTSIDE THE MUSEUM WORK-SHOP, ON A NEARBY ROOFTOP...

HOW DROLL! A DART FROM MY UMBRELLA ACTIVATED THE ELECTRIC EYE BEAM THAT WOULD HAVE BLASTED BATMAN!

THE THUD-AND-CRACK OF FLYING FISTS AND WHIRLING WEAPONS ECHO FROM THE WORKSHOP WALLS AS--

IT PROVES MY MYSTERIOUS STOOL PIGEON SPOKE THE TRUTH!

NOW THAT I'VE GIVEN BATMAN A REPRIEVE, I'M CONFIDENT HE'LL CARRY ON IN HIS CUSTOMARY WINNING WAY!

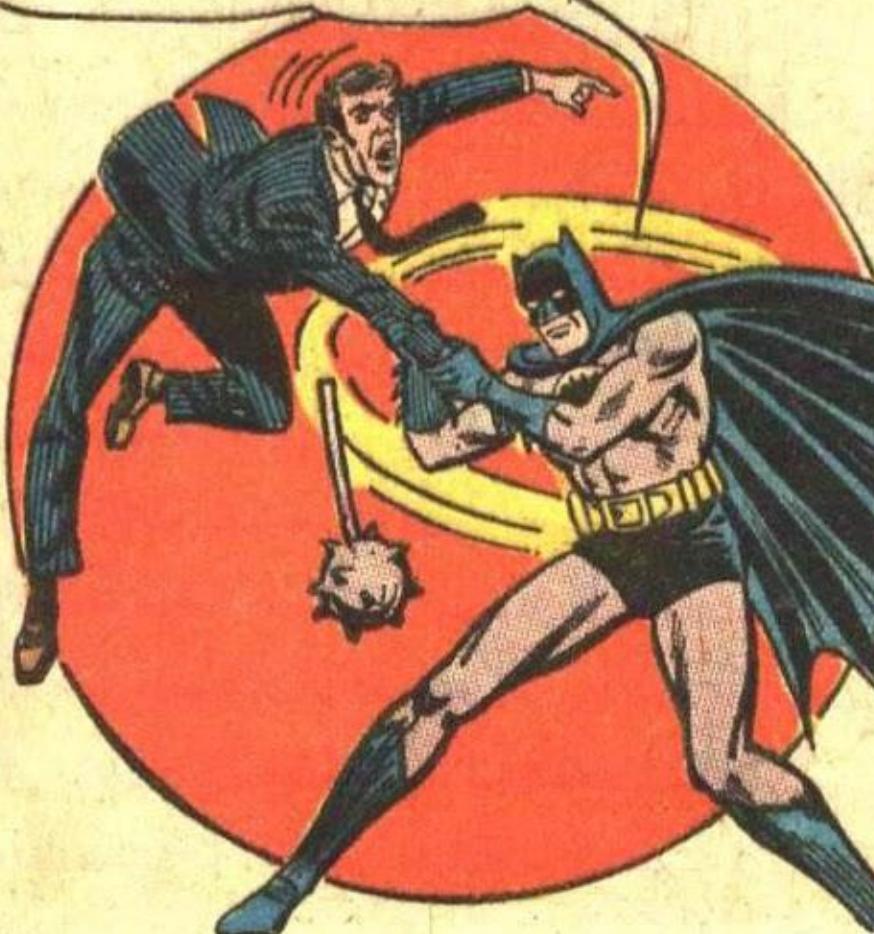

LUCK'S WITH ME TONIGHT ALL RIGHT!

KNOCKED BACK BY THAT FOLLOW-UP MACE-BLOW--JUST ENOUGH TO AVOID THAT SNEAK ATTACK FROM BEHIND!

GRUNNCH!

I DON'T INTEND TO FENCE AROUND WITH YOU--

I'M PARRYING YOUR BATTLE-MACE WITH AN ARMLOCK-AND-SHOULDER FLIP!

MASSIVELY MUSCLED HANDS GRIP
AND TIGHTEN ON THE BAR OF A NEO-SURREALIST STATUE, AS...

THREE MORE OF
'EM -- WITH GUNS!...

I'M A LITTLE CROWDED IN THESE QUARTERS, SO--

I'LL CLEAR A LITTLE FIGHTING ROOM FOR MYSELF!

UNCOILING LIKE A SNAPPING SPRING, THE GOTHAM GANGBUSTER'S FISTS ARE HUMAN HAMMERS OF FLESH AND BONE AS THEY BEAT ON THEIR TARGETS! ...

IN THE GOTHAM THIEVES' DEN, NEXT DAY...

WELL, MY BURGLARIZING BIRDS OF ILL OMEN, NOW THAT YOU'VE SEEN TODAY'S NEWSPAPERS, DO YOU BELIEVE --

WE BELIEVE! THIS MEANS I'M NEXT ON OUR "SAVE BATMAN" OPERATION!

WHY THE DEERSTALKER HAT, MAD HATTER?

SINCE I'M TEMPORARILY ON THE SIDE OF LAW- AND- ORDER-- MY SHERLOCK HOLMES HEADGEAR IS MOST APPROPRIATE TO THE OCCASION!

BUT I'LL BE CHANGING IT FOR THIS MINER'S HEADPIECE WITH ITS SPECIAL HEADLAMP FIXTURE WHEN I "TAKE THE FIELD"!

WHEN AND WHERE IS THE SYNDICATE SCHEDULED TO STRIKE NEXT?

TONIGHT-- AT THE OPEN AIR JEWELRY DISPLAY PUT ON BY THE GOTHAM CITY GEM SALON!

THAT BALMY EVENING, AS THE BATMOBILE STALKS THE STREETS OF GOTHAM CITY...

WHAT A TIME FOR THE HOT-LINE TO SOUND OFF!

JUST WHEN I'VE MADE UP MY MIND TO CHECK OUT THE OPEN AIR JEWELRY DISPLAY...

BATMAN, WE JUST RECEIVED WORD THAT SOME CROOKS ARE GOING TO ROB THE GEM SALON DISPLAY IN GOTHAM SQUARE PARK!

I'M WAY AHEAD OF YOU, COMMISSIONER! I WAS ON MY WAY THERE WHEN YOU CALLED!

IN GOTHAM SQUARE PARK, SOME MINUTES LATER...

THAT BATMAN SURE IS A TOUGH CUSTOMER! HE NOT ONLY AVOIDED THAT DOORWAY DEATH-TRAP-- BUT ROUNDED UP THE GANG THERE!

THAT'S WHY THOSE FOLLOW-UP BOOBY-TRAPS WERE PREPARED FOR HIM!

HEY-- LOOK AT THAT SHADOW!

BAT-SHADOW MEANS BATMAN...

SPEAK OF THE DEVIL... HE'S HERE!

HERE'S WHERE THOSE GUN-HAPPY CROOKS HAVE A BALL--

--WITH THIS TEAR-GAS BALL!

GETTING BLEARY-EYED!

WELL, DON'T JUST STAND HERE LIKE DUMMIES--

LET'S SET HIM UP FOR THE KILL!

VOOM!

OUT OF THE WISPS SWINGS THE COWLED CRUSADER LIKE AN AVENGING SPIRIT...

FIRE AWAY-- WHEREVER HE IS!

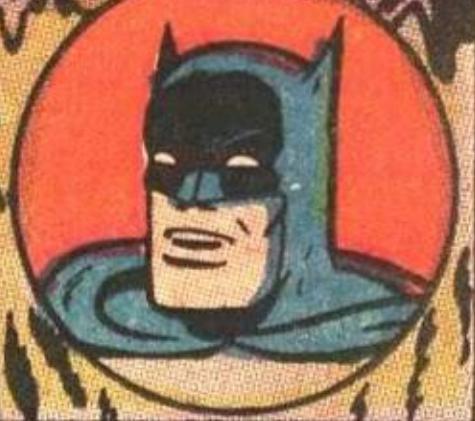

NO! WE MIGHT SHOOT OURSELVES!

I'LL USE THAT BRANCH-- AS AN EXTRA ARM...

Letters to the BATCAVE

Dear Editor:

So many times have I read in letter columns comments to the effect that, "Bob Kane's really outdone himself in this story"; and each time I reread the story and laugh, for after Infantino and Greene, Kane's figures look completely lifeless. Yet after Batman 197 I am forced to forget my prejudices and admit that Bob Kane really did outdo himself in "Catwoman Sets Her Claws for Batman!" I don't know how, but in some way Kane has been able to replace his stiff, lifeless, unemotional figures with a Batman and Robin (and Batgirl and Catwoman) that actually live!

Maybe it was the story, and a good one indeed, that inspired Mr. Kane so. John Broome (or maybe Gardner Fox) has written a story with nary a wasted panel. The major thesis, that Catwoman wants to marry our Batman-type bachelor, was not the best; but the secondary theme of Catwoman wanting to utterly ruin Batgirl was a most successful one. And when the author shows his readers that Catwoman just won't reform, well, since I already suspected that in no small degree, I was quite satisfied.

As for the two females that highlighted the story—I can't really appreciate this version of what used to be the best villainess in comics. I can't believe that Catwoman really loves Batman. If she did, she would give up her larceny with no strings attached. And if she did marry Batman, would she really be content to play the role of housewife? I think not.

Batgirl was played to her potential. Her character has been established firmly enough, so that when she walked away from Batman, having been humiliated by Catwoman, I knew she wouldn't complain or make excuses.

You know, after this story I might actually welcome encounters between the Beautiful Batlady and Poison Ivy.

—David Lewin, Lomita, Cal.

(It was a Fox (Gardner variety) that livened up the Woman (Cat Variety) in the story. Your yearning for a confrontation with Poison Ivy evoked a similar feeling in the next correspondent.—Editor)

Dear Editor:

Batman 197 was the issue that I've long been waiting for! After seeing how the "new look" changed the Riddler, Penguin and Joker, I am glad at the version of Catwoman you gave us. I am happy to say that Catwoman, the Countess of Crime, is still as cunning, sinister and exciting as ever. However, there's just one thing about her that's bothering me—which I will go into later.

When Batgirl first began to get recognition, popularity, and fame in the comics, I could hardly wait till the Dominoed Daredoll clashed forces with the Feline of Felony. Now you've made that dream a reality.

As a loyal Batman fan, I must say that "Catwoman Sets Her Claws for Batman" was an historical and important issue, because it marked the return of Catwoman; and the overall picture of two women fighting for possession of that Fearless Fighter of Fiendish

Felons—Batman!—was quite something!

In the future, I would like to see Catwoman and Batgirl meet that Voracious Villainess, Poison Ivy. Since Poison Ivy is also in love with Batman, it would be interesting to see what the Princess of Plunder would do in an intriguing situation like this.

Now as to what's been bothering me about Catwoman's "new look". Of late, I've noticed that some of your costumed villains wear green. The Joker has green hair, a green shirt, and once wore green gloves. The Riddler wears big, black question marks, a purple mask and gloves, and yet green is the dominant color. Except for her hair, Poison Ivy sported a head-to-toe green costume. If you think that these aren't good enough reasons, then I'll give you the clincher—my high school math teacher's name is—can you guess?—Mr. Green!

Now, to my dismay, Catwoman's new uniform has turned green too! Did you ever see a green cat? No, of course not! But you have seen a black cat, right? And black cats supposedly are bad luck, right? Catwoman is just what she is—rotten, bad luck! So please revise Catwoman's costume to overall black (perhaps with purple gloves, boots, belt, mask, and "ears"). She'll look much better, more sinister and mysterious, and literally be bad luck.

—Michael Lederman, Brooklyn, N.Y.
(Oh, boy, are we lucky! If you had known that the inker of this Catwoman story was Sid Greene—!—Editor)

Dear Editor:

Hot dog! Wow! And all that kind of stuff. Although I realize it's in fashion to present one's comments as reservedly and intelligently as one can, I just can't hold myself back. "Catwoman Sets Her Claws for Batman" was the best story of the year. You really ended up on a good note and there are so many reasons for this I won't even begin the cover them all.

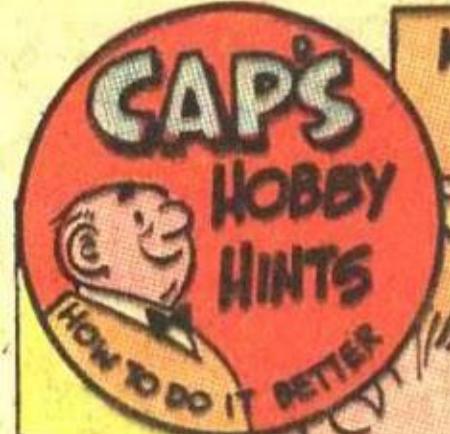

The story itself was very good in plot and action. The return of Catwoman will bring controversy, I'm sure, but not from me. I'm reasonable sure, also, that other readers will tell you what points of the story made it a great one, so I will go to another subject and let them elaborate on that facet of this masterpiece.

The interior artwork was stunning. Please keep Sid Greene as the inker. Bob Kane's pencils really turn to gold with green(e) ink. As for the cover. I'm still trying to figure out who the artists were. At first glance I would venture a guess at it being Infantino and Giella, but seeing how the latter hasn't been inking any covers lately, I would say the inker was George Roussos.

—Dave Truesdale, So. St. Paul, Minn.
(You were right in identifying Infantino as the cover-penciller, but credit goes to Mike Esposito for the inking. It'll take a good eye to spot this issue's cover artist!—Editor)

BATMAN IN ACTION SHOOTS FORWARD IN A LOW DIVE ...

HANDS LIKE STEEL VISES FASTEN ON THE WAREHOUSE FLOOR-- AS HIS MUSCULAR BODY ERUPTS LIKE A STEEL SPRING! ...

IN THE BATCAVE, SOME HOURS LATER, AFTER THE SYNDICATE GANGSTERS HAVE BEEN IMPRISONED...

... AND SO, ALFRED, I FINALLY REALIZED IT HAD TO BE MISTER ESPER WHO USED HIS TRICK MEGAPHONE TO PROJECT SUPER-SONIC WHISPERS INTO THE SUBCONSCIOUS PART OF MY MIND --

SUGGESTING TO ME HOW AND WHERE TO GO ON MY NIGHT-PATROLS...

THOUGH I CAN'T IMAGINE WHY HE DID IT... OR WHO IT WAS THAT SAVED ME FROM THOSE DEATH-TRAPS!

TELL ME, ALFRED... WAS IT YOU WHO PLAYED GUARDIAN ANGEL -- AS YOU DID ON ANOTHER OCCASION?

BEGGING YOUR PARDON, SIR-- BUT I'VE BEEN IN THE HOUSE EVERY EVENING-- PLAYING SCRABBLE WITH AUNT HARRIETT!

WELL, IF YOU DIDN'T SAVE ME -- IT MUST HAVE BEEN ROBIN!

THE BOY WONDER ENTERS THE BATCAVE IN TIME TO CATCH BATMAN'S LAST WORDS ...

I WISH I COULD CLAIM THE CREDIT -- BUT I WAS MILES AWAY WITH THE TEEN TITANS -- AND ONLY GOT BACK THIS MINUTE !

HMMMM ! COULD IT HAVE BEEN A FELLOW MEMBER OF THE JUSTICE LEAGUE-- WHO DIDN'T WANT TO MAKE HIS PRESENCE KNOWN FOR SOME REASON ?

I WONDER IF I'LL EVER KNOW ?

AND IN THE SECRET HIDEAWAY OF BATMAN'S GANGLAND GUARDIANS...

WORD'S JUST REACHED ME THAT THE SYNDICATE'S PLAN TO TAKE OVER GOTHAM CITY HAS BEEN CANCELED! THEY'RE AFRAID THEY'LL ALL WIND UP BEING CAPTURED BY BATMAN!

HA HA! THE JOKE'S ON THEM! NOW-- WHO GETS FIRST CRACK AT BATMAN?

LADIES FIRST!

I'M ONE STEP AHEAD OF ALL OF YOU!

WHILE THAT ARGUMENT RAGES HOTLY-- THE CRIMINAL KNOWN AS MISTER ESPER SMILES TO HIMSELF...

I WAS COMMISSIONED BY THE SYNDICATE TO LURE BATMAN INTO THOSE DEATH-TRAPS! BUT SINCE I'M EAGER TO TACKLE BATMAN AGAIN IN MY OWN E.S.P. FASHION-- I HAD TO PUT A STOP TO IT!

SO UNKNOWN TO THE SYNDICATE, I SUPER-WHISPERED INTO PENGUIN'S BRAIN ALL THE DETAILS OF THE DEATH-TRAPS-- KNOWING HE'D CALL ON GOTHAM'S TOP CROOKS TO HELP SAVE BATMAN FOR THEMSELVES!

KEEP IT UNDER YOUR HATS-- BUT I'VE SET MY CAP FOR THE CAPE CRUSADER!

NOW THE WAY'S BEEN CLEARED FOR ME TO TAKE ANOTHER CRACK AT BATMAN!

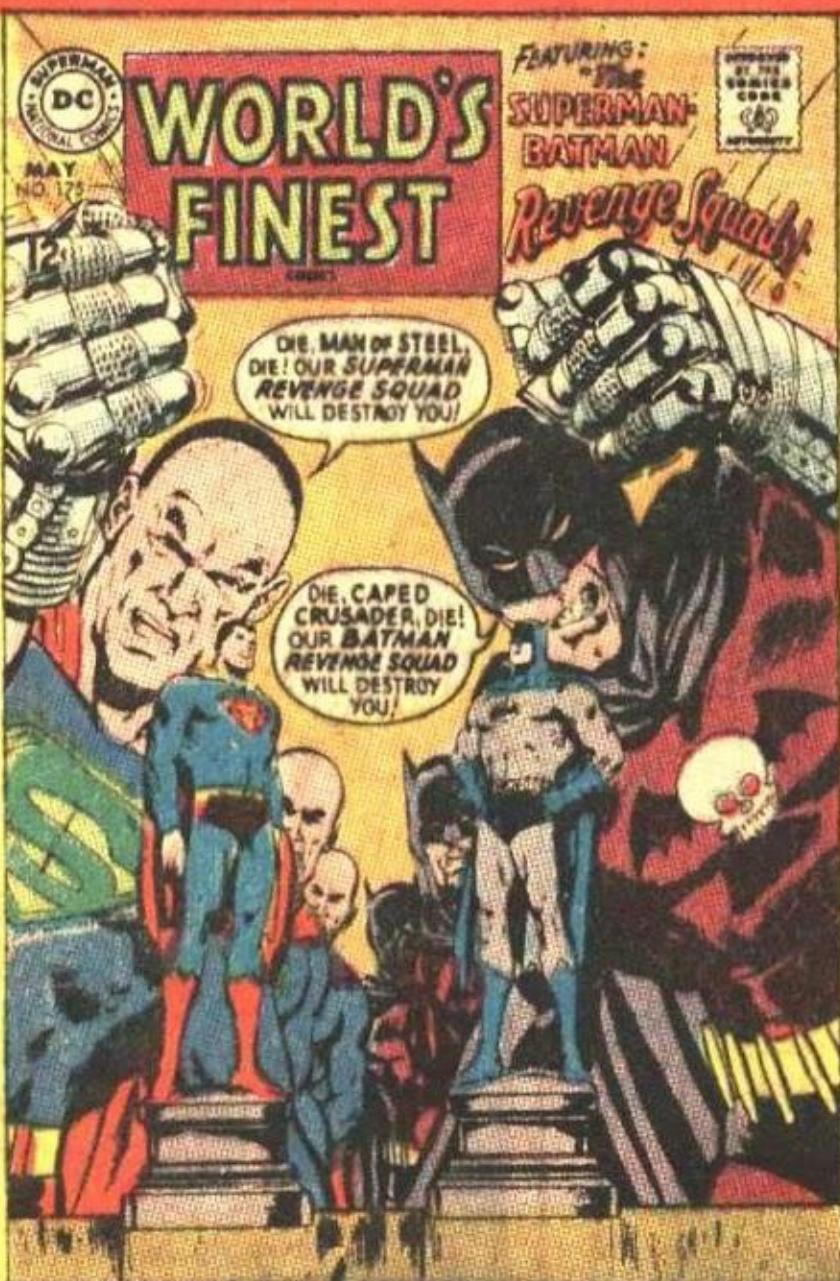

I CAN EXPECT STIFF COMPETITION FROM THOSE OTHER VILLAINS-- BUT I'M BOUND TO WIN!

THE END.

LETTERS TO THE BATCAVE--EXTRA

Dear Editor:

Look! Rumbling down the road! Is it a motorized cardboard box? Is it a rocket-powered sardine can? NO! It's the Batmobile. Alright, you guys, you've given us the story we've been waiting for. "The Round-Robin Murder" story was a work of art. It was like it came right out of the Golden Age of Comics. So why not stick to the trend, get rid of the cross between an Edsel and Avanti, and bring back the original Batmobile?

Before the "new look" hit Batman, the Batmobile was . . . well, the Batmobile. As I remember, the Batmobile was built with speed in mind. It was used to send Batman and Robin barreling after crooks and it wasn't loaded down with a ton and a half of Bat-garbage. It was also designed with protection in mind. If I also remember correctly, the old Batmobile could stand up to hand grenades, bazooka shells, and mine fields and still keep the crusaders safe and sound.

Then in jumps the "new look" and with it a new model of the Batmobile. Gone now is the job of protection from the Batmobile, as the new model is a convertible. However, it was sleek, speedy, and just as good-looking as the old Batmobile. Also, it had very little Bat-junk on it. Repeat: was and had. This now-extinct, good-looking car is no more.

Suddenly, from out of nowhere, on the streets of Gotham City appears a third Batmobile. It looks like a cross between the first two Batmobiles and a 1910 tin lizzie. It offers no protection. It's as stream-lined as a turtle, it's loaded down with nets, ejector seats, computers, and other Bat-trash the Dynamic Duo doesn't need—and worst of all, it's ugly as sin.

Your recent stories have been superb. So why don't you take the new Batmobile and wrap it around a tree and bring back the original Batmobile? I can't stand that new thing!

— Craig Merrick, South Bend, Ind.

(Gil Kane introduced yet another "new" version of the Batmobile in the January, 1968 Detective Comics—which has been slightly modified in the forthcoming May Detective. But can there—should there—ever be a final, unchangeable model? —Editor)

Dear Editor:

The "new look" is now so firmly entrenched we don't even call it that anymore. There's no doubt about it—Batman and Robin are different. Gone are the mad melange of characters: Bat-Mite, Batwoman, Vicki Vale, etc. I remember the wild controversy that followed the major shake-up. The only people who remained cool and indifferent were Bruce Wayne and Dick Grayson—they kept on slugging the thugs, same as ever.

The death of Alfred was the most dramatic event in Batman's history. Sure, the clamor of the fans' indignation was great. So great, in fact, that you went so far as to revive everyone's favorite butler.

But by now you'd like to know what my point is. This: all the old characters were dropped, including Alfred, and even the style of Batman was changed. Then, the tide of demand became so overwhelming that Alfred was brought back. Well now, the fans do wield a lot of power, don't they? So I'd like to kick off what I hope will become the great Bat-movement.

I want to see the return of long narrow panels, where the huge black shadow of a bat is cast upon the wall by the appearance of a dark figure on a window ledge. I want to see two cloaked figures swing through the air on long ropes as they once used to do. I want to see people in the street look up in shock at the huge symbol of a bat, projected upon the clouds. I want to see really terrific mysteries, where Batman rushes to find someone and discovers his quarry dead or dying. Then his sharp eyes perceive a thread, a hair, or a sample of dirt left by the killer . . . and his keen mind is already working out the identity or location of the murderer.

How about it, Batmaniacs, are you with me?

— Loren Lieberthal, New York, N.Y.

(The current, April, Detective features "Hunt for a Robin-Killer," which contains many of the Bat-elements you plead for. Check it out and then check back with us. —Editor)

Dear Editor:

After hurriedly reading through Batman 197, I came to the conclusion that it was great. Then I reread the story slowly—and came to the same conclusion. But I have formed a different opinion of Batgirl.

When she was first introduced I got the opinion that she would be a subsidiary character who would be used only when her presence was beneficial to the story. Now, it seems that in most of her encounters with Batman, he is the subsidiary.

In most of the five stories she's appeared in Batgirl is shown as strong and healthy, while Batman is temporarily helpless, sick, unconscious, or surpassed in thinking and detective ability by Batgirl.

In three of these stories I get the feeling that Batgirl is falling in the same rut as the now-departed Batwoman. There will be battles between the sexes, snooping out secret identities, and maybe later, a love interest.

Don't judge me as completely anti-Batgirl as I have been one of her staunchest supporters from the start, but please don't give a repetition of story-lines. Also, I suggest you limit Batgirl to four or five yearly appearances in Detective—and maybe one in World's Finest. But leave Batman Comics strictly to Batman and Robin.

— Gene Wallace, Flint, Mich.

(Until Batgirl's sales ratings come in, we can make no decision on the frequency of her appearances. —Editor)
