SPIDER-MAN A COWARD! FLEES IN TERROR!

By J. Jonah Jameson,
Publisher

FORGET EVERYTHING YOU'VE EVER READ ABOUT SPIDEY BEFORE!! FORGET EVERY SUPER-HERO THRILLER YOU'VE EVER SEEN!! THROW AWAY ALL YOUR PRE-CONCEIVED IDEAS OF WHAT A FULL LENGTH MAGAZINE DRAMA SHOULD BE LIKE!
THIS ONE IS DIFFERENT!
THIS ONE IS A SENSATION!
THIS ONE IS JUST FOR YOU!

NO ONE WILL EVER LAUGH AT J. JONAH JAMESON AGAIN! I TOLD THEM SPIDER-MAN WAS A HEEL... A COWARDLY QUITTER... AND NOW, SINCE HE RAN AWAY FROM THE GREEN GOBLIN*, THE WORLD KNOWS I'M RIGHT!

LETTERER OF..."PATSY WALKER"???

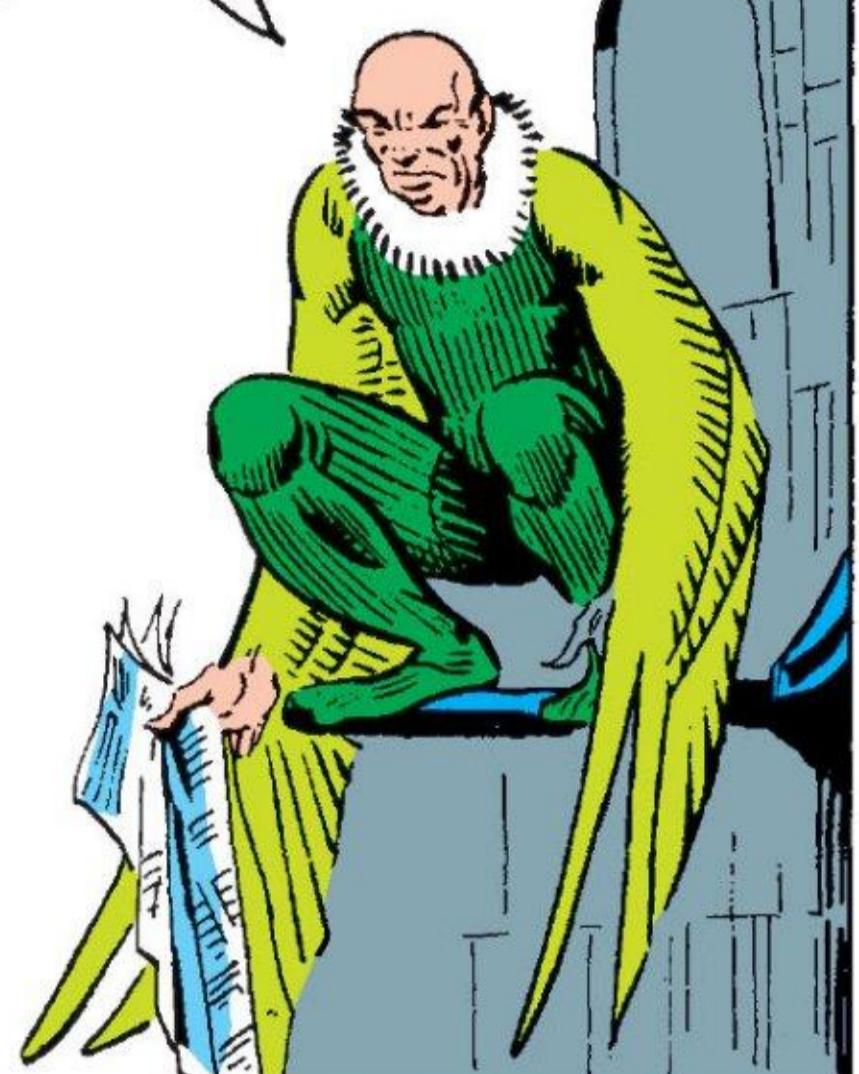

A SHORT TIME AGO, SPIDER-MAN SEEMED TO SUFFER HIS GREATEST DEFEAT AT THE HANDS OF THE MYSTERIOUS GREEN GOBLIN! AND NOW, LET US OBSERVE THE REACTIONS OF VARIOUS FAMILIAR CHARACTERS TO THAT UNEXPECTED OCCURRENCE ...

I'M THE FIRST ONE TO MAKE SPIDER-MAN RUN AWAY LIKE A WHIPPED DOG! NOW, AT LAST, THE GREEN GOBLIN WILL BE WORLD-FAMOUS!

IF ONLY I COULD HAVE BEEN THE ONE TO DEFEAT HIM! THE VICTORY SHOULD HAVE BELONGED TO DOCTOR OCTOPUS!

EVEN THOUGH HE LOST, SPIDER-MAN IS STILL AT LARGE! THAT MEANS KRAVEN THE HUNTER MIGHT STILL BE ABLE TO TRACK HIM DOWN!

HOW COULD THE GREEN GOBLIN BEAT HIM WHEN I, THE VULTURE, COULDN'T ?? I STILL CAN'T BELIEVE IT!

WHAT'RE YOU LOOKIN' SO GLOOMY ABOUT, HOthead? I THOUGHT THAT WEBHEAD WAS NUMBER ONE ON YOUR HATE PARADE!

SURE, BEN, WE WERE ALWAYS FEUDIN'... BUT I STILL HAD A LOT OF RESPECT FOR SPIDEY! IF I HADN'T SEEN HIM RUN AWAY WITH MY OWN EYES....!

TOO BAD ABOUT SPIDER-MAN! IT SORT OF PUTS ALL COSTUMED CRIME-FIGHTERS IN A BAD LIGHT!

IT APPEARS HIS COURAGE DID NOT MATCH HIS POWER!

WASPS AND SPIDERS ARE NATURAL ENEMIES... SO I CAN'T HONESTLY SAY I'M SORRY FOR HIM!

WHEN LAST I MET SPIDER-MAN, MY INSTINCTS TOLD ME HE WAS A VALIANT FIGHTER! HOW COULD THE SUPER-SHARP SENSES OF DAREDEVIL HAVE BEEN SO WRONG?

EVEN WITH THE AVERAGE MAN IN THE STREET, SPIDER-MAN'S BATTLE AGAINST THE GREEN GOBLIN IS THE NUMBER ONE TOPIC...

I STILL DON'T SEE WHY HE RAN AWAY! IT LOOKED TO ME LIKE SPIDEY WAS WINNING!

J. JONAH JAMESON WAS RIGHT ALL THE TIME! SPIDER-MAN WAS JUST A COWARD... LIKE ALL BULLIES!

APPARENTLY JAMESON WAS SMARTER THAN WE THOUGHT!

AND, THE GLOATING PUBLISHER OF THE DAILY BUGLE MISSES NO TRICKS IN PUBLICIZING HIS TRIUMPH...

NOW THAT THE DECENT PEOPLE OF OUR CITY HAVE GOTTEN WISE TO SPIDER-MAN, HE HASN'T BEEN SEEN FOR WEEKS! AT LAST WE'RE RID OF THAT MASKED MENACE!

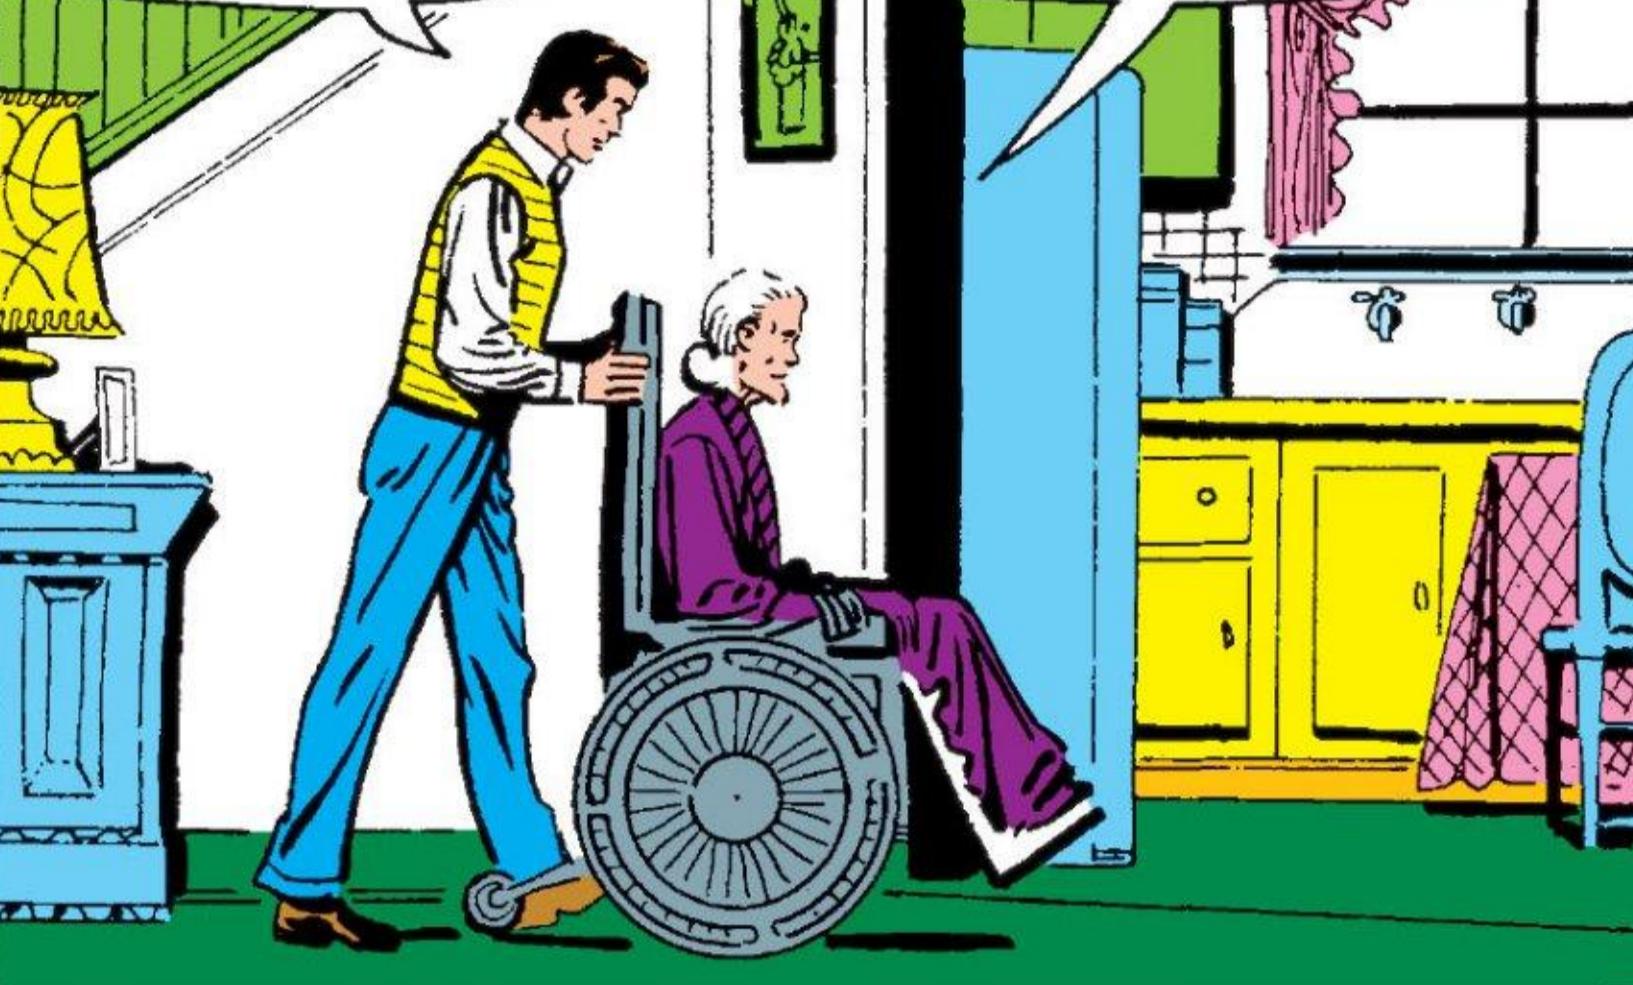

AND REMEMBER, THE DAILY BUGLE WAS THE FIRST TO EXPOSE HIM AS A DANGEROUS FRAUD!

YES, ALMOST THE ENTIRE CIVILIZED WORLD WONDERS, WHAT HAS HAPPENED TO THE AMAZING SPIDER-MAN! BUT, HOW SURPRISED THEY ALL WOULD BE IF THEY COULD SEE HIM AT THIS VERY MOMENT...

YOU SHOULDN'T HAVE GOTTEN OUT OF BED, AUNT MAY! THE DOCTOR SAID YOU NEED LOTS OF REST AFTER YOUR OPERATION!

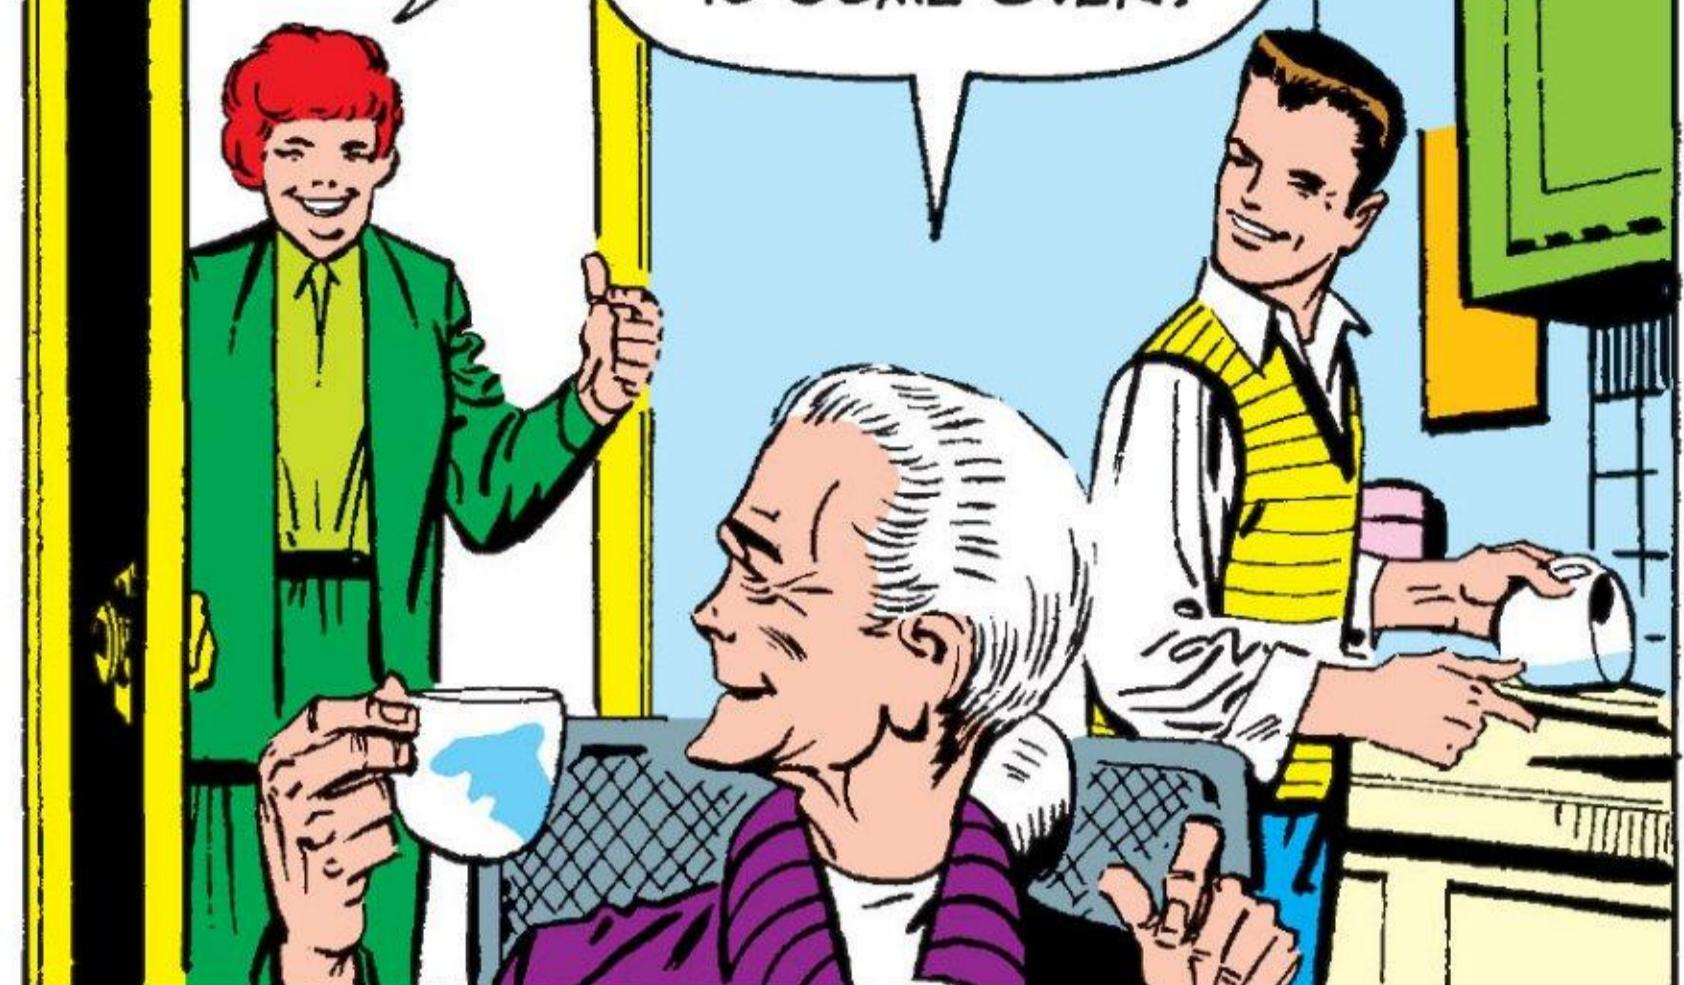

BUT I WANTED TO MAKE SURE YOU EAT A GOOD BREAKFAST BEFORE YOU GO TO SCHOOL, PETER!

GOSH, IF ONLY YOU'D STOP WORRYING ABOUT ME SO! ANYWAY, YOU KNOW MRS. WATKINS WILL BE HERE TO HELP YOU OUT AND... OH! HERE SHE IS NOW!

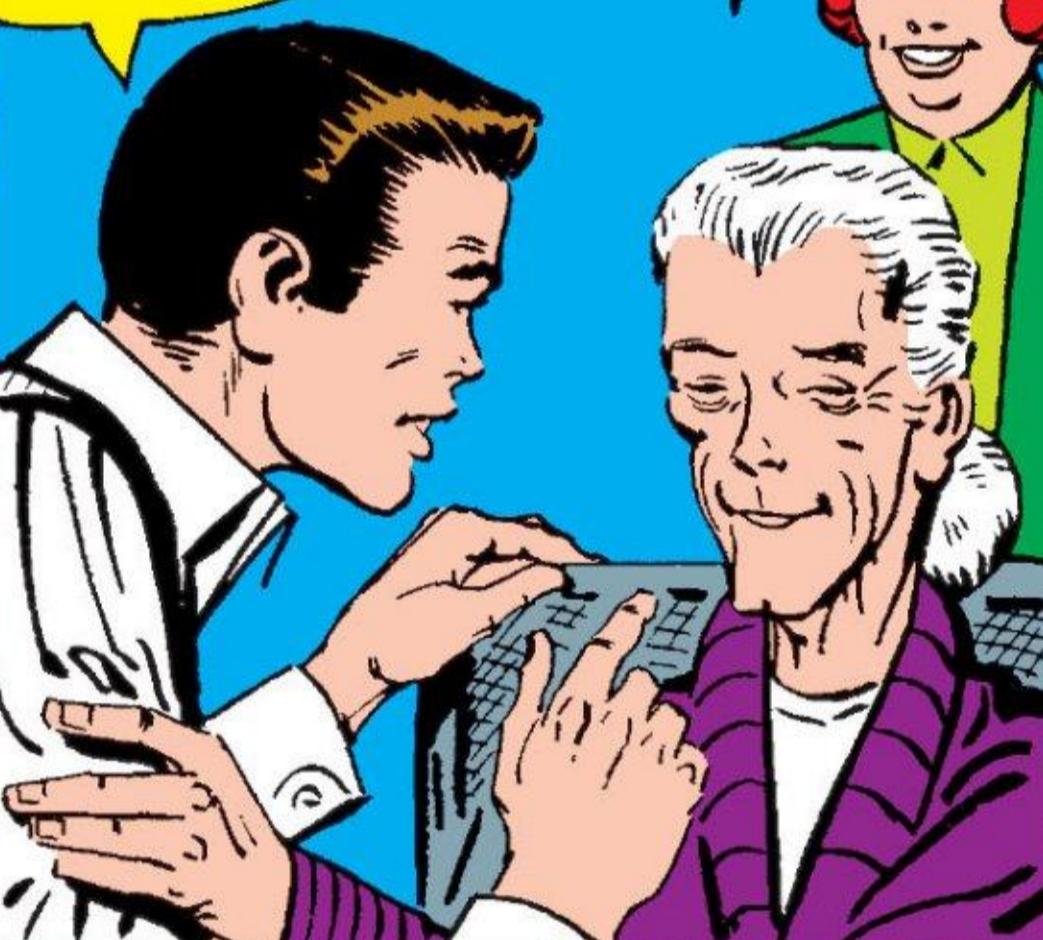

OFF TO SCHOOL WITH YOU NOW, PETER! I'LL DO THE DISHES! WELL, DON'T YOU LOOK IMPROVED, MAY!

THANK YOU, ANNA! IT'S SO NICE OF YOU TO COME OVER!

NOW REMEMBER... TAKE YOUR MEDICINE EVERY FOUR HOURS... HAVE A NAP AT NOON, LIKE THE DOCTOR SAID... AND DON'T TIRE YOURSELF OUT!

I'LL BE ALL RIGHT, DEAR! TAKE CARE OF YOURSELF... REMEMBER, YOU'RE STILL A GROWING BOY!

LATER, AT SCHOOL...

I CAN'T TELL AUNT MAY, BUT WE'RE ALMOST OUT OF MONEY! AND SHE STILL NEEDS SO MUCH MEDICINE... I CAN'T FAIL HER AFTER EVERYTHING SHE'S DONE FOR ME! THE DOCTOR DOESN'T WANT HER TO KNOW HOW ILL SHE REALLY IS!

THEN AT THE END OF THE SCHOOL DAY...

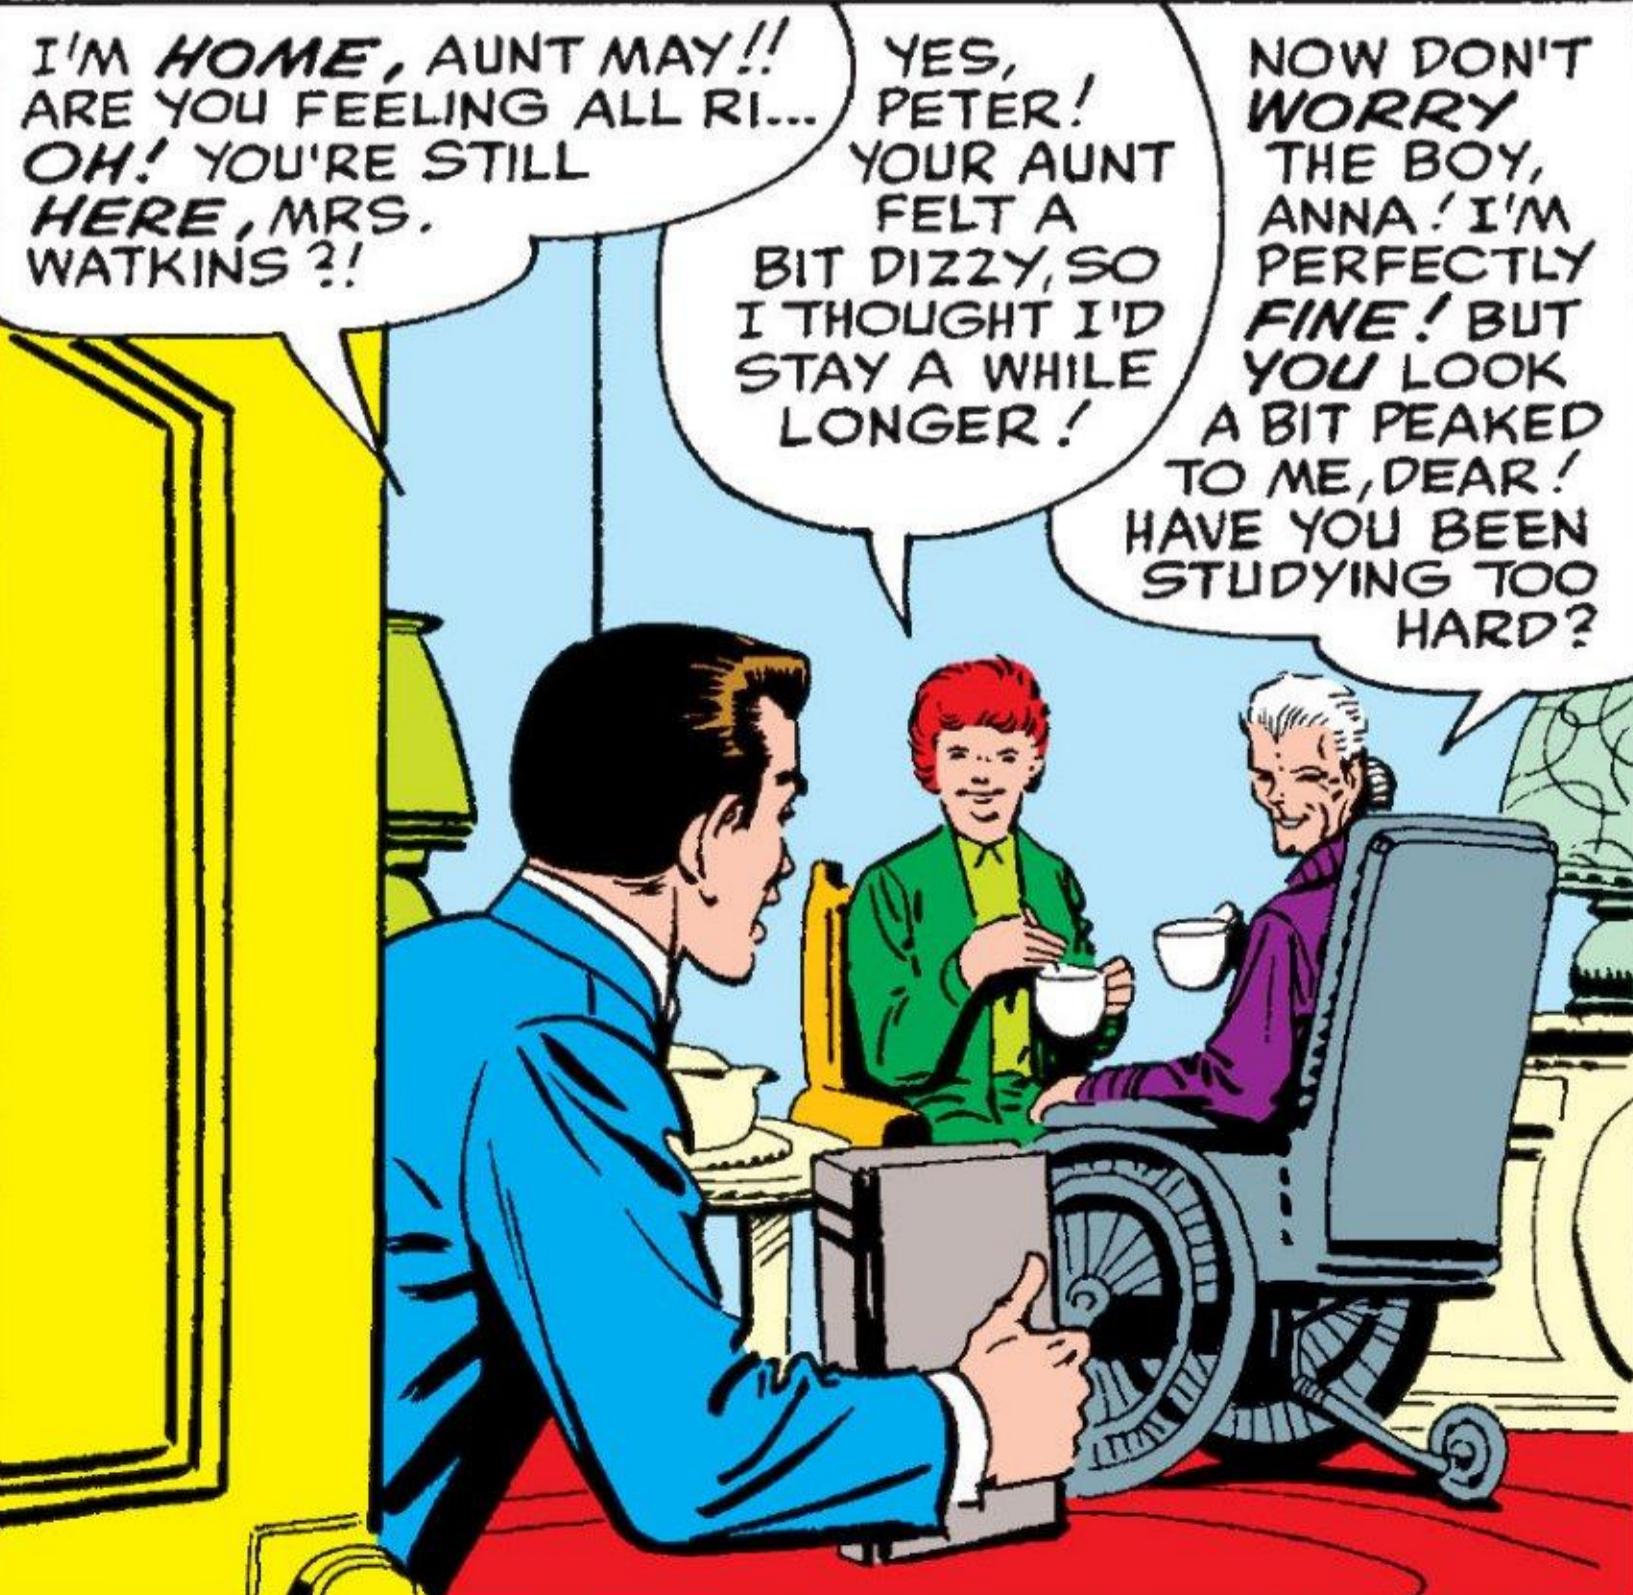

I NEVER SAW PUNY PARKER RUN SO FAST!

I'M HOME, AUNT MAY!! ARE YOU FEELING ALL RI... OH! YOU'RE STILL HERE, MRS. WATKINS?!

YES, PETER! YOUR AUNT FELT A BIT DIZZY, SO I THOUGHT I'D STAY A WHILE LONGER!

NOW DON'T WORRY THE BOY, ANNA! I'M PERFECTLY FINE! BUT YOU LOOK A BIT PEAKED TO ME, DEAR! HAVE YOU BEEN STUDYING TOO HARD?

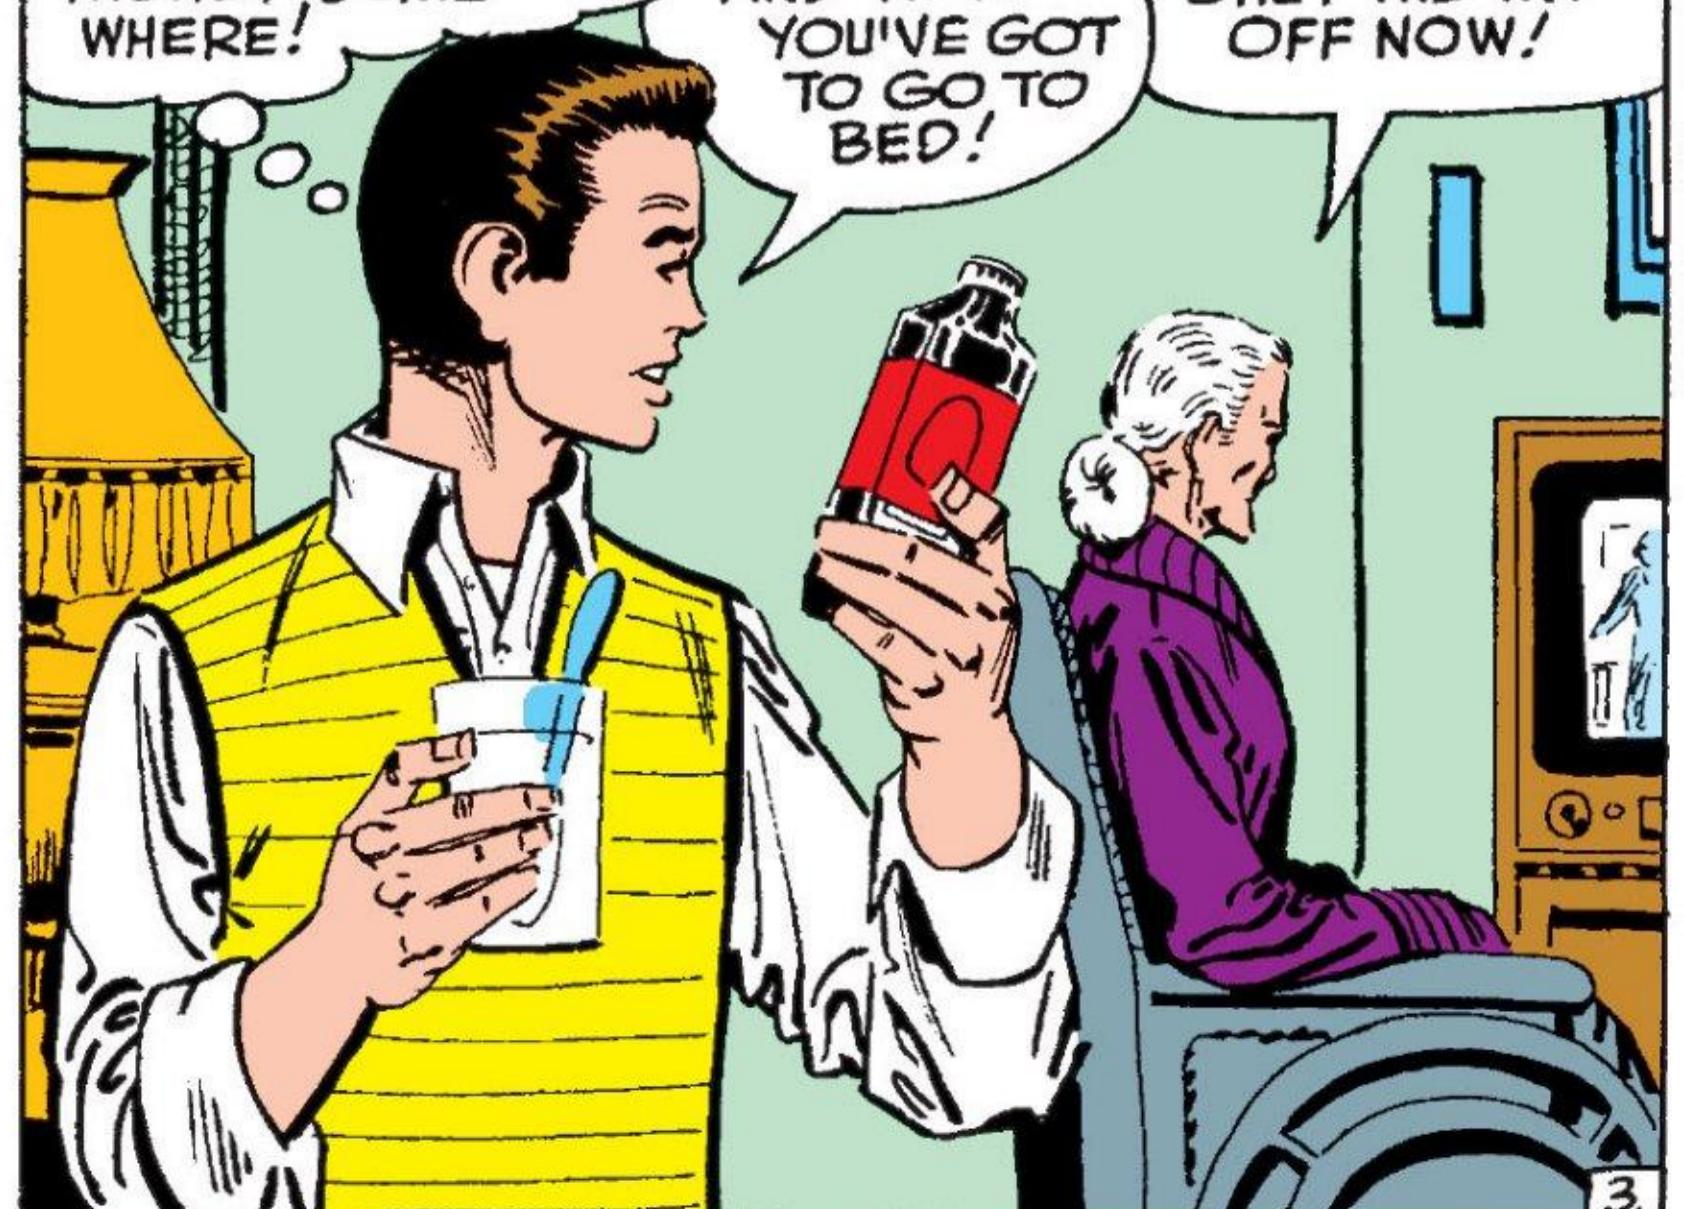

LATER, AFTER MRS. WATKINS HAS GONE HOME...

WE'RE ALMOST OUT OF MEDICINE AGAIN! I'VE JUST GOT TO GET SOME MONEY SOMEWHERE!

OKAY, AUNT MAY, TIME FOR YOUR MEDICINE AND THEN YOU'VE GOT TO GO TO BED!

VERY WELL, PETER! I AM FEELING RATHER TIRED! YOU MAY SHUT THE T.V. OFF NOW!

YES, THAT'S WHY SPIDER-MAN HASN'T BEEN HEARD FROM LATELY! IT'S IMPOSSIBLE TO LOOK AFTER A SICK AUNT WHO IS RECOVERING FROM A SERIOUS OPERATION, AND STILL SPEND TIME SWINGING THROUGH THE CITY IN SEARCH OF ADVENTURE! BUT, THERE ARE STILL SOME WHO HAVEN'T FORGOTTEN SPIDEY...

BUT IT GETS SO LONELY SOMETIMES! IF ONLY BETTY WEREN'T MAD AT ME! I'LL CALL HER AGAIN...

NO ANSWER! CAN SHE BE OUT WITH ANOTHER FELLA ?? OR IS SHE NOT ANSWERING BECAUSE SHE SUSPECTS IT'S ME ??

ALTHOUGH HE CANNOT BE SURE OF IT, PETER'S SECOND GUESS IS THE CORRECT ONE ...

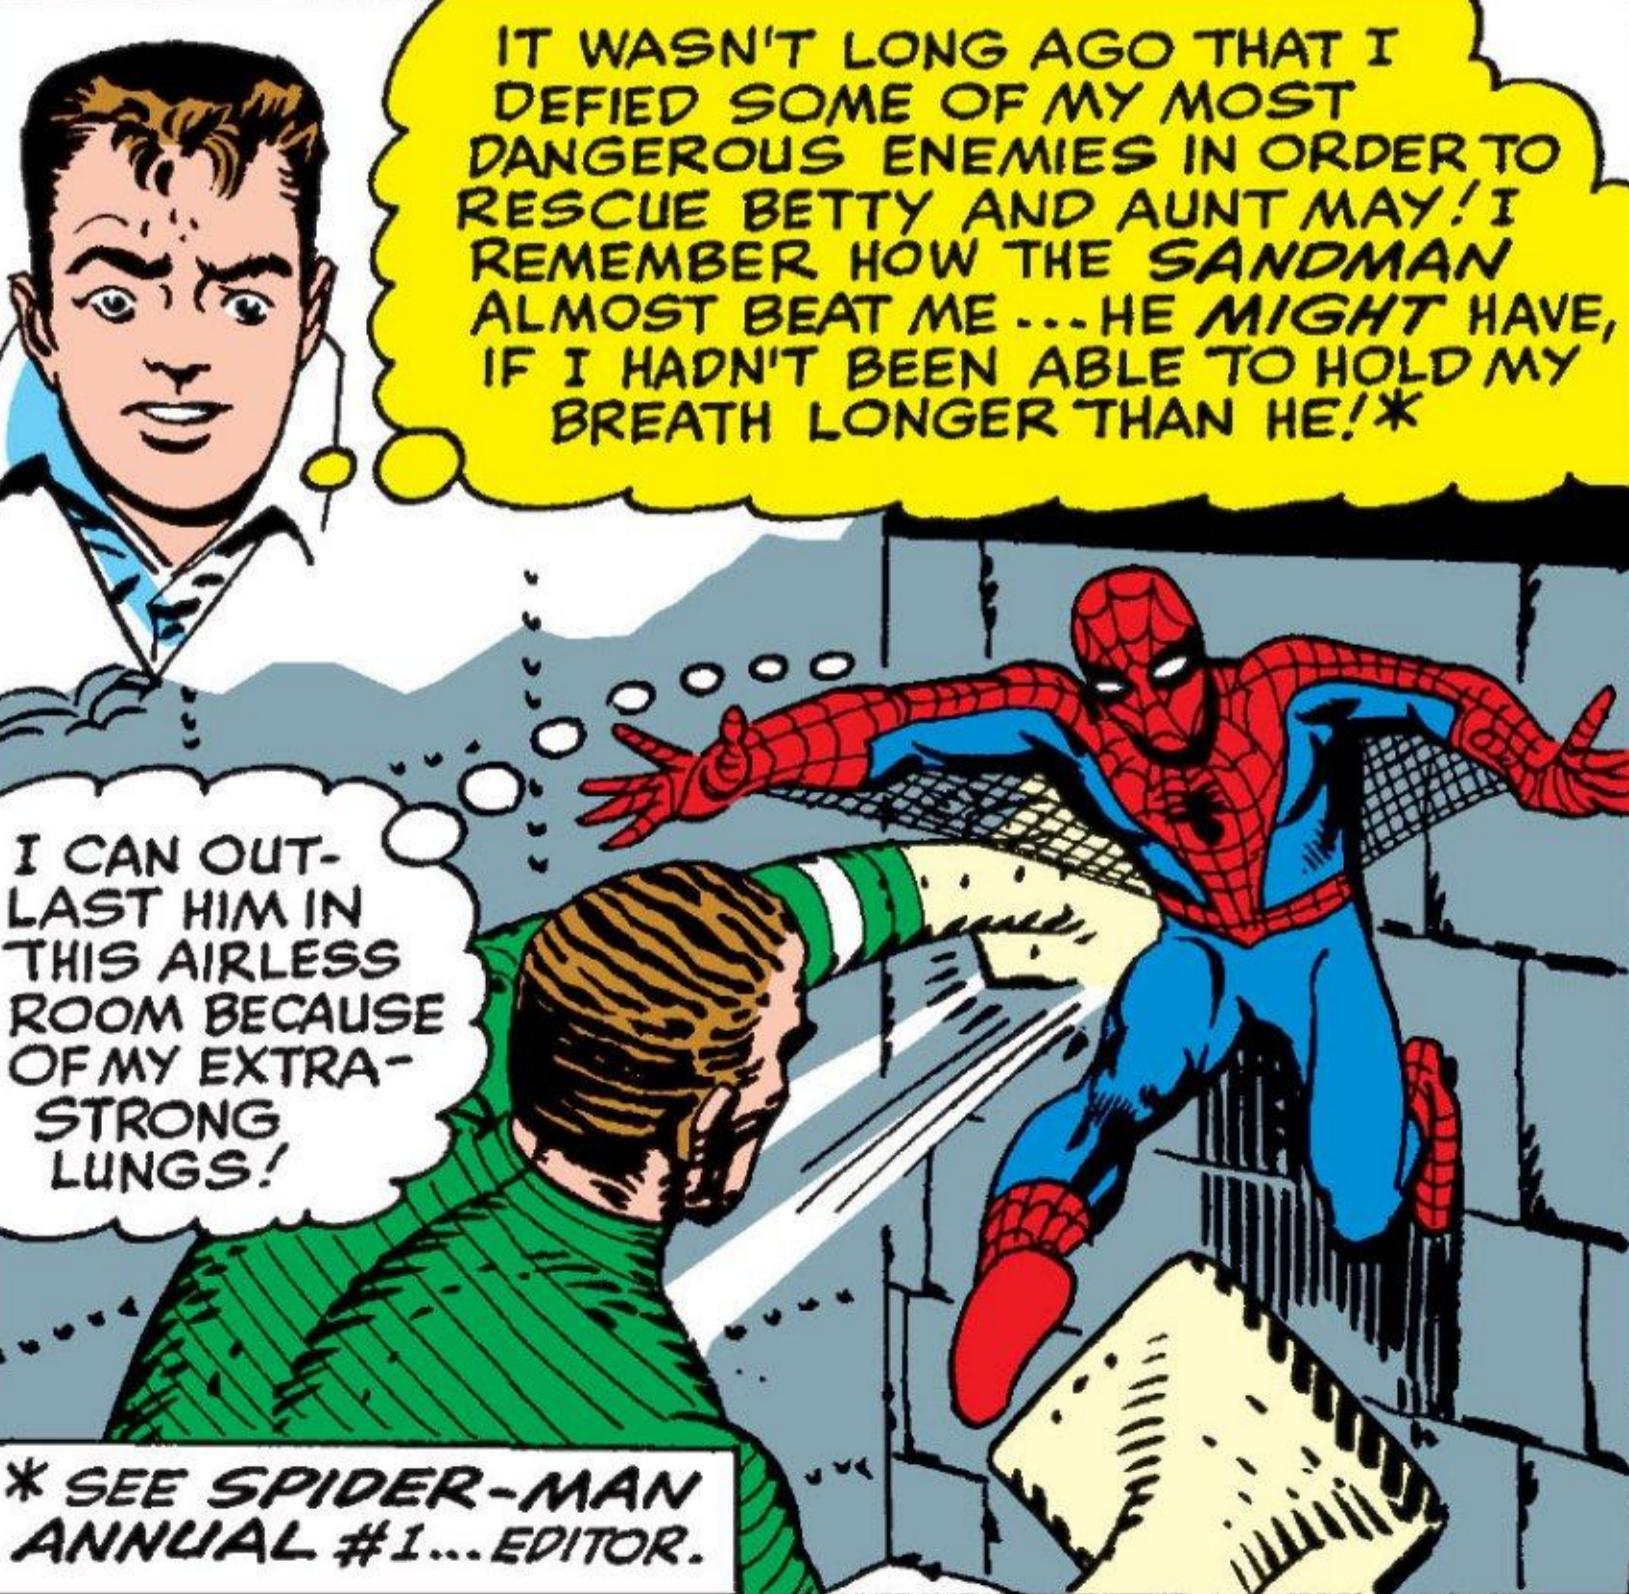

I MIGHT LISTEN TO MY HEART... AND MAKE UP WITH HIM, AS I'M LONGING TO! BUT I MUSTN'T! I SIMPLY COULDN'T BEAR TO BE HURT AGAIN!

THEN, AS THE DEJECTED TEEN-AGER SITS MOROSELY IN HIS LONELY ROOM, HIS THOUGHTS BEGIN TO WANDER ... BACK TO THE RECENT PAST ...

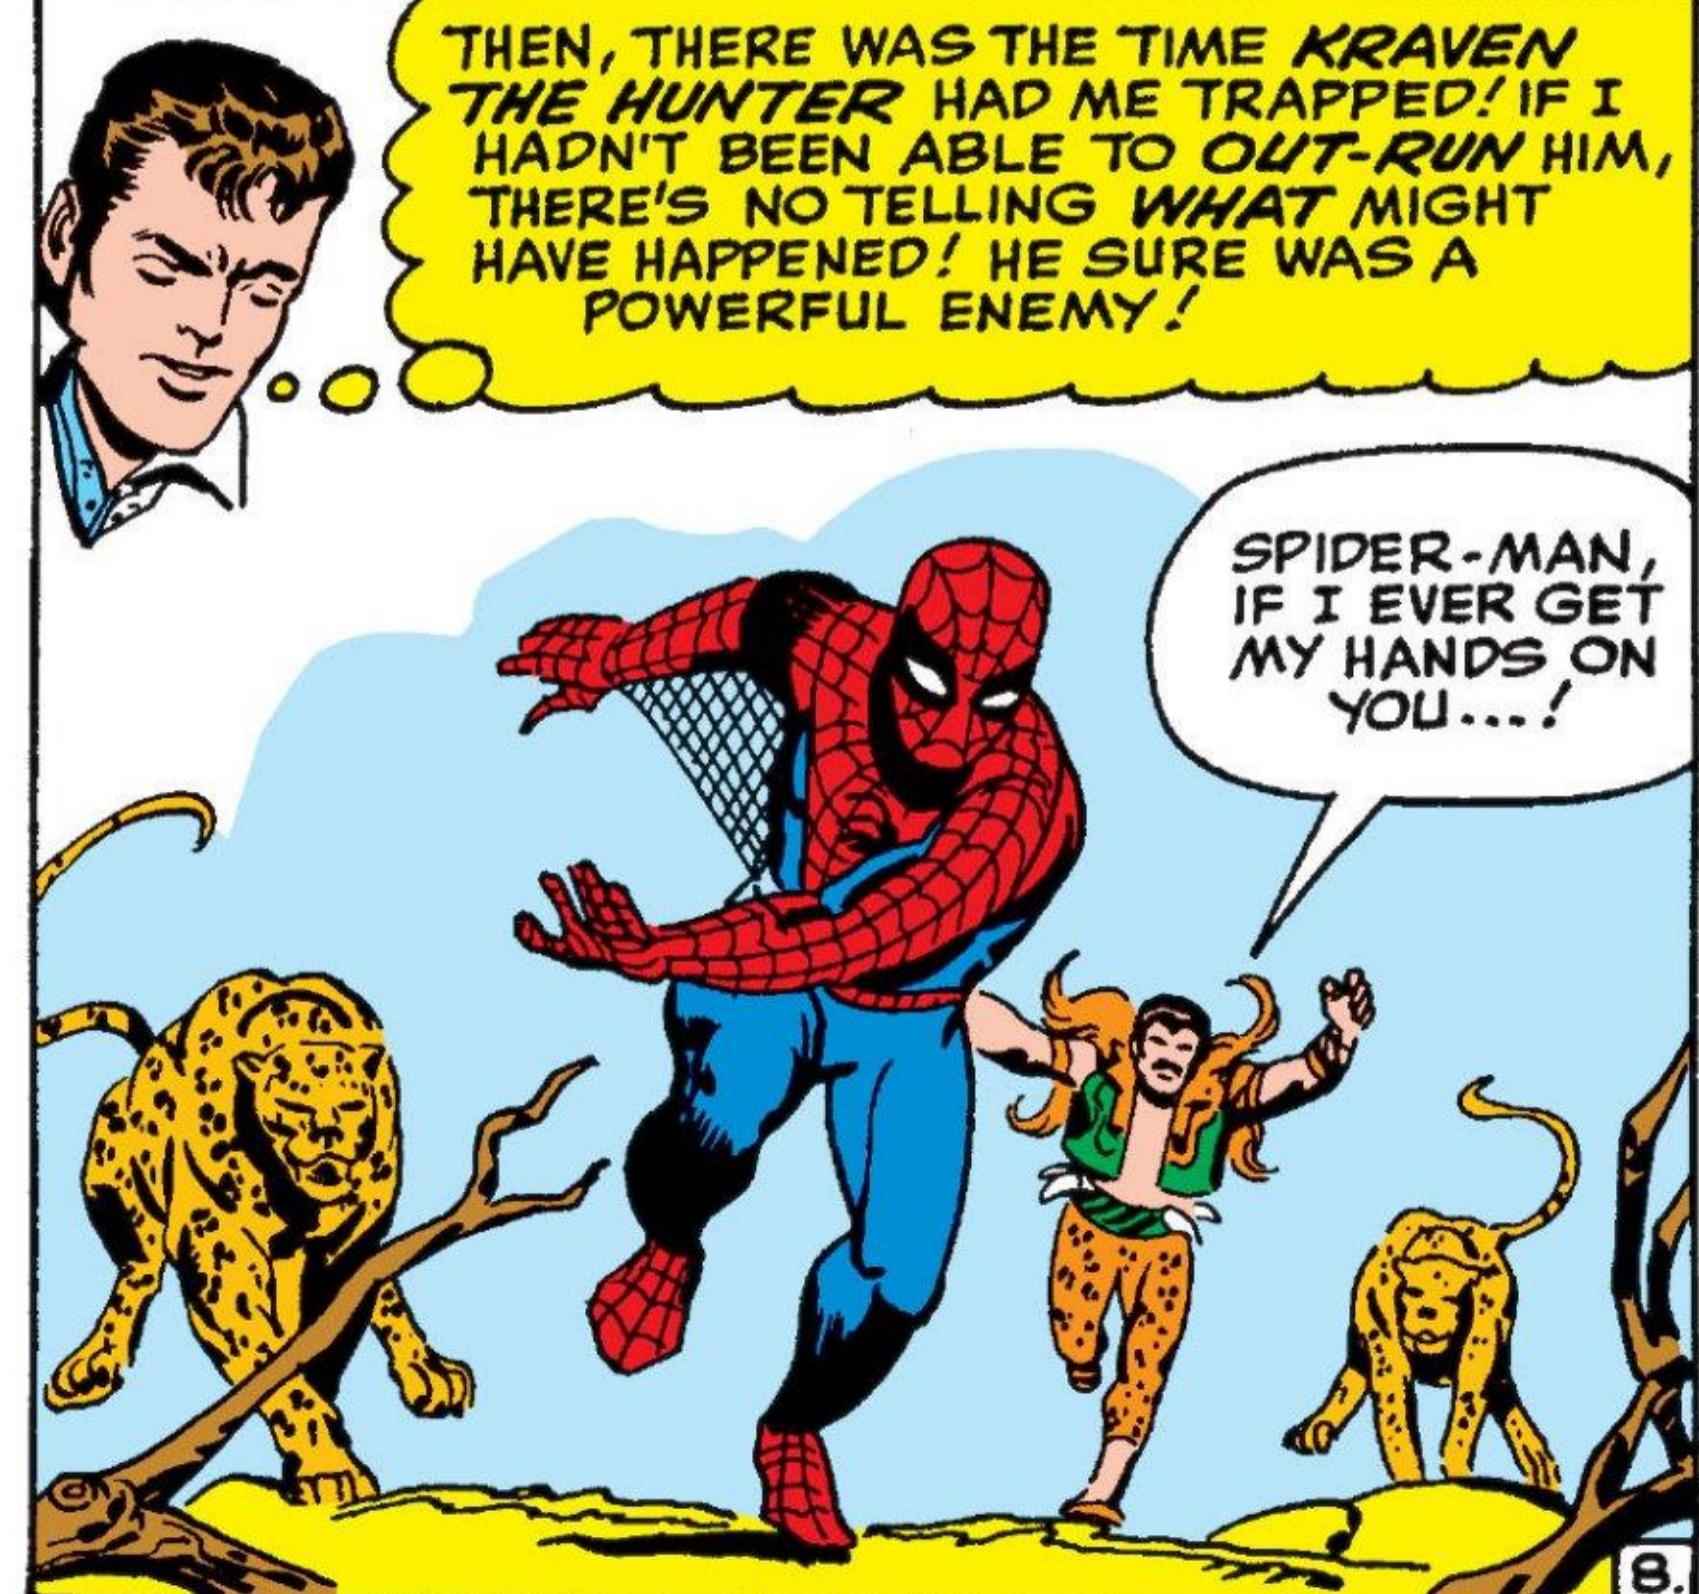

IT WASN'T LONG AGO THAT I DEFIED SOME OF MY MOST DANGEROUS ENEMIES IN ORDER TO RESCUE BETTY AND AUNT MAY! I REMEMBER HOW THE SANDMAN ALMOST BEAT ME ... HE MIGHT HAVE, IF I HADN'T BEEN ABLE TO HOLD MY BREATH LONGER THAN HE!*

SPIDER-MAN, IF I EVER GET MY HANDS ON YOU...!

AND SO IT GOES! WITH EACH PASSING MINUTE, THINGS LOOK GLOOMIER AND GLOOMIER FOR THE WORRIED TEEN-AGER! AND THE NOW-JOVIAL J. JONAH JAMESON DOESN'T MISS A TRICK IN REMINDING THE PUBLIC OF HOW RIGHT HE WAS ABOUT SPIDER-MAN ...

AND NOW WE PRESENT A VIDEO-TAPE RE-RUN OF THIS AFTERNOON'S TOP NEWS STORY...THE FRIGHTENED FLIGHT OF SPIDER-MAN WHILE THE CITY WATCHED IN SHOCK

NOW THE WHOLE CITY...PROBABLY THE WHOLE WORLD, THINKS I'M NOTHING BUT A DISCREDITED COWARD! AND, AS LONG AS AUNT MAY REMAINS SERIOUSLY ILL, THERE'S NOTHING I CAN DO ABOUT IT!

AS A SPECIAL ATTRACTION, LET'S WATCH THAT SAME SCENE IN SLOW MOTION, SPONSORED BY THE DAILY BUGLE... THE PAPER THAT TELLS THE TRUTH!

THAT'S IT! I CAN'T TAKE ANY MORE OF THAT GRINNING APE! I'D RATHER WATCH DR. DOOM READING NURSERY RHYMES TO THE KIDDIES!

I TELL YOU, BENJAMIN, THERE'S MORE TO ALL THIS THAN MEETS THE EYE! I JUST KNOW SPIDEY ISN'T A COWARD!

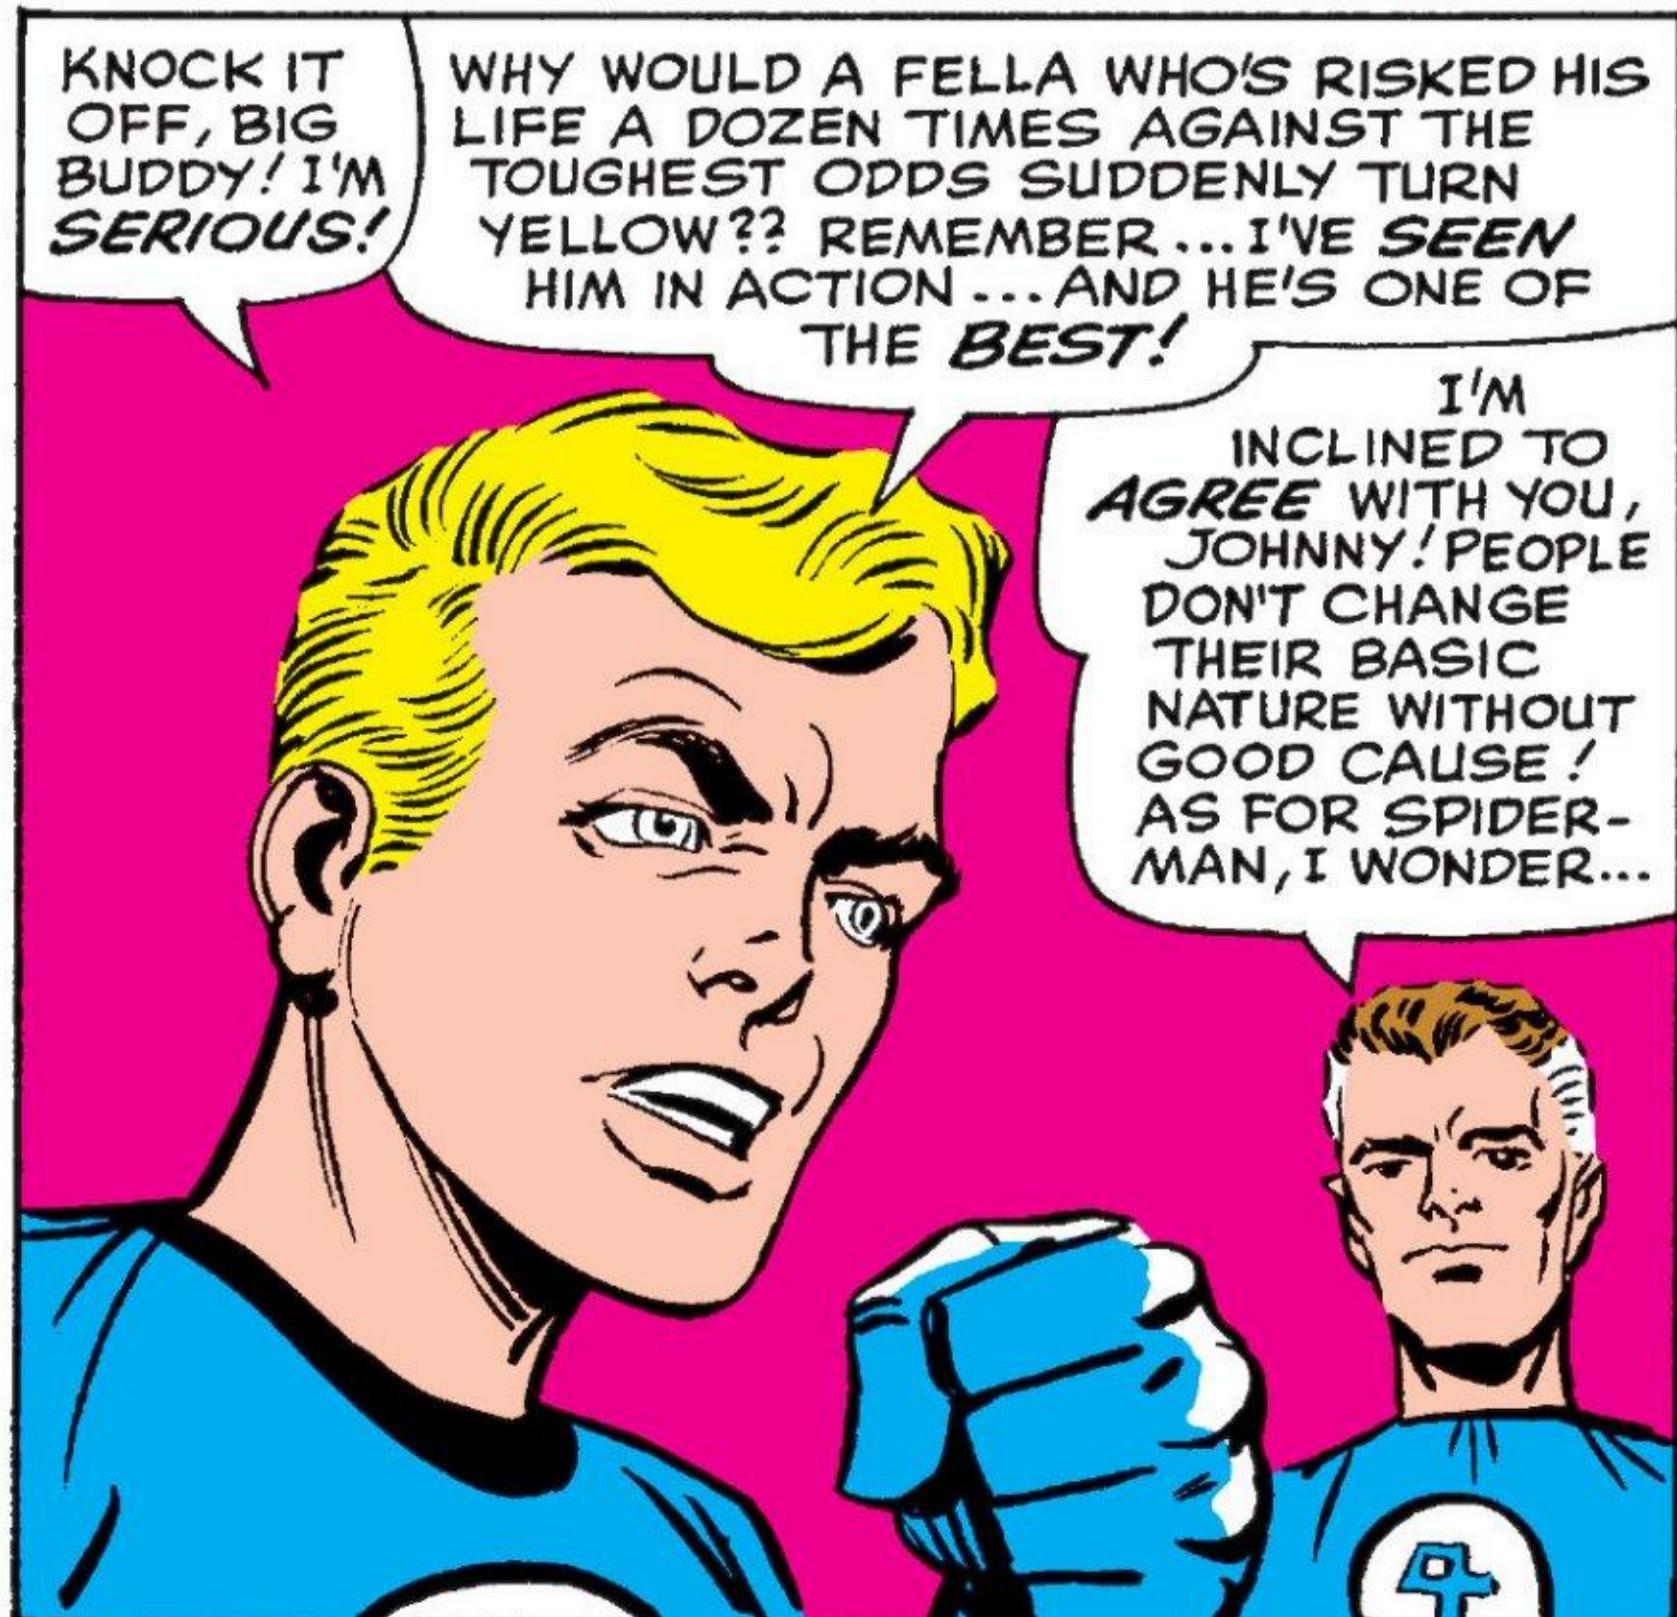

SURE! SURE! AND YOU STILL HANG UP YOUR WOOLY LITTLE STOCK-IN' FOR SANTA CLAUS, TOO!

KNOCK IT OFF, BIG BUDDY! I'M SERIOUS!

WHY WOULD A FELLA WHO'S RISKED HIS LIFE A DOZEN TIMES AGAINST THE TOUGHEST ODDS SUDDENLY TURN YELLOW?? REMEMBER... I'VE SEEN HIM IN ACTION... AND HE'S ONE OF THE BEST!

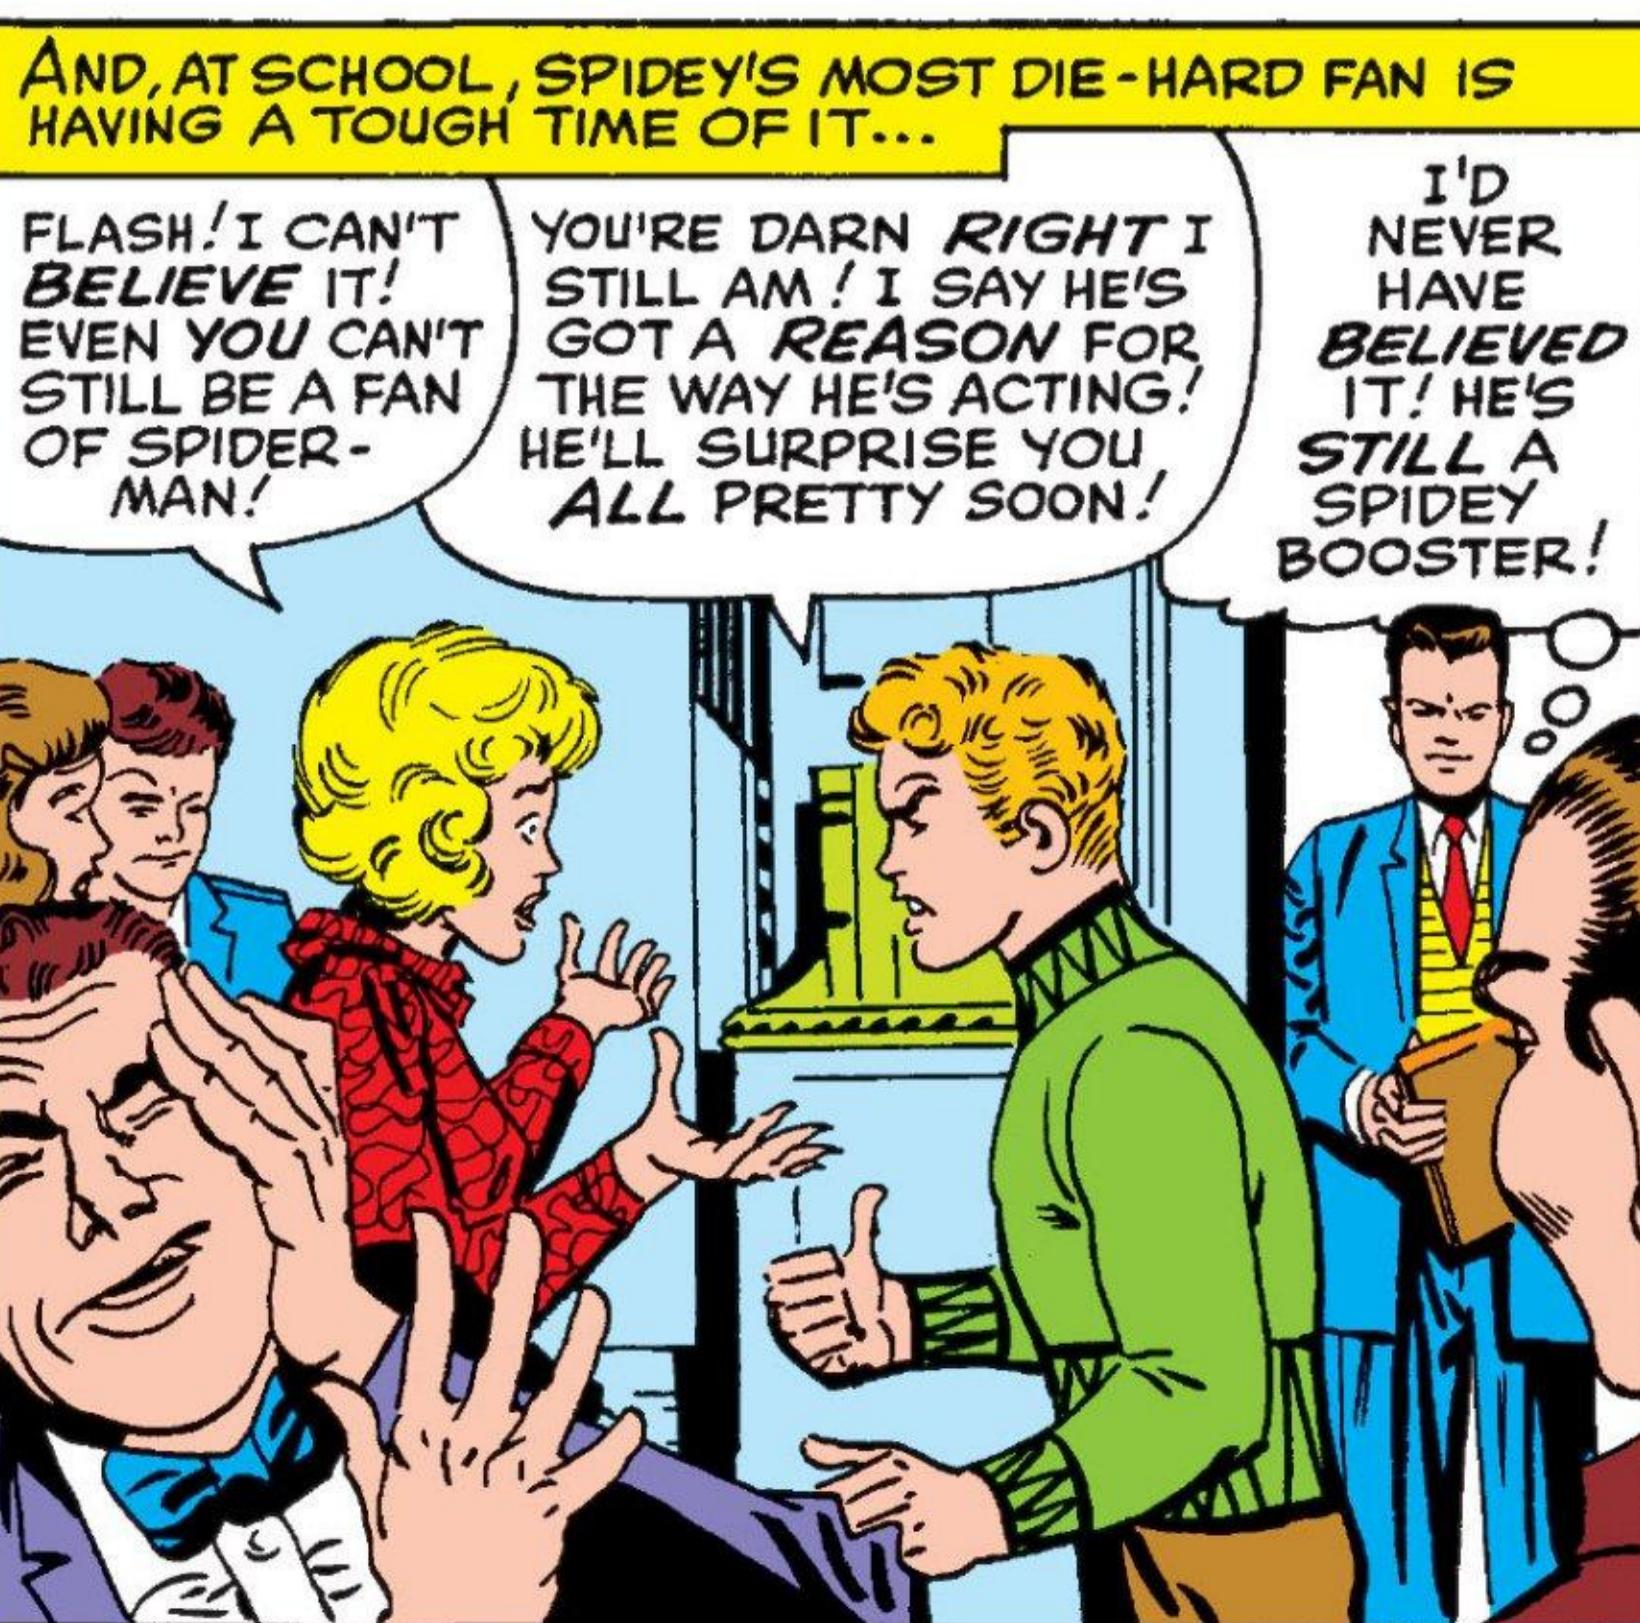

I'M INCLINED TO AGREE WITH YOU, JOHNNY! PEOPLE DON'T CHANGE THEIR BASIC NATURE WITHOUT GOOD CAUSE! AS FOR SPIDER-MAN, I WONDER...

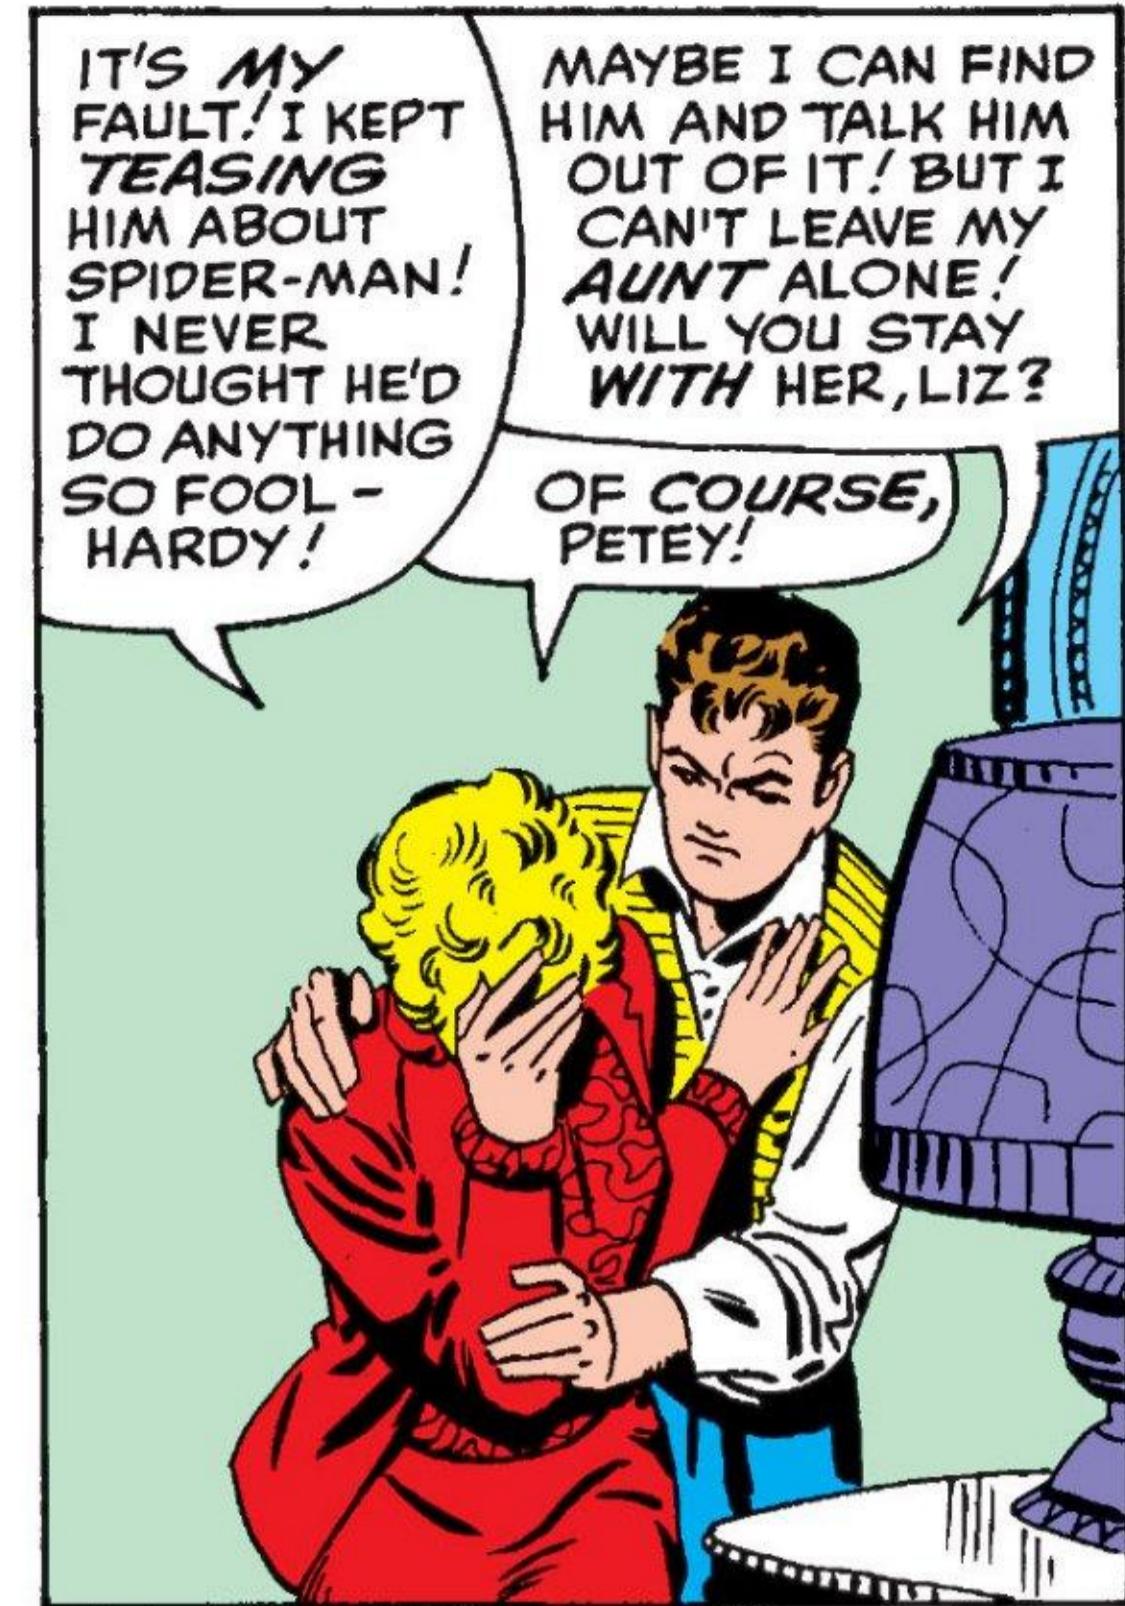

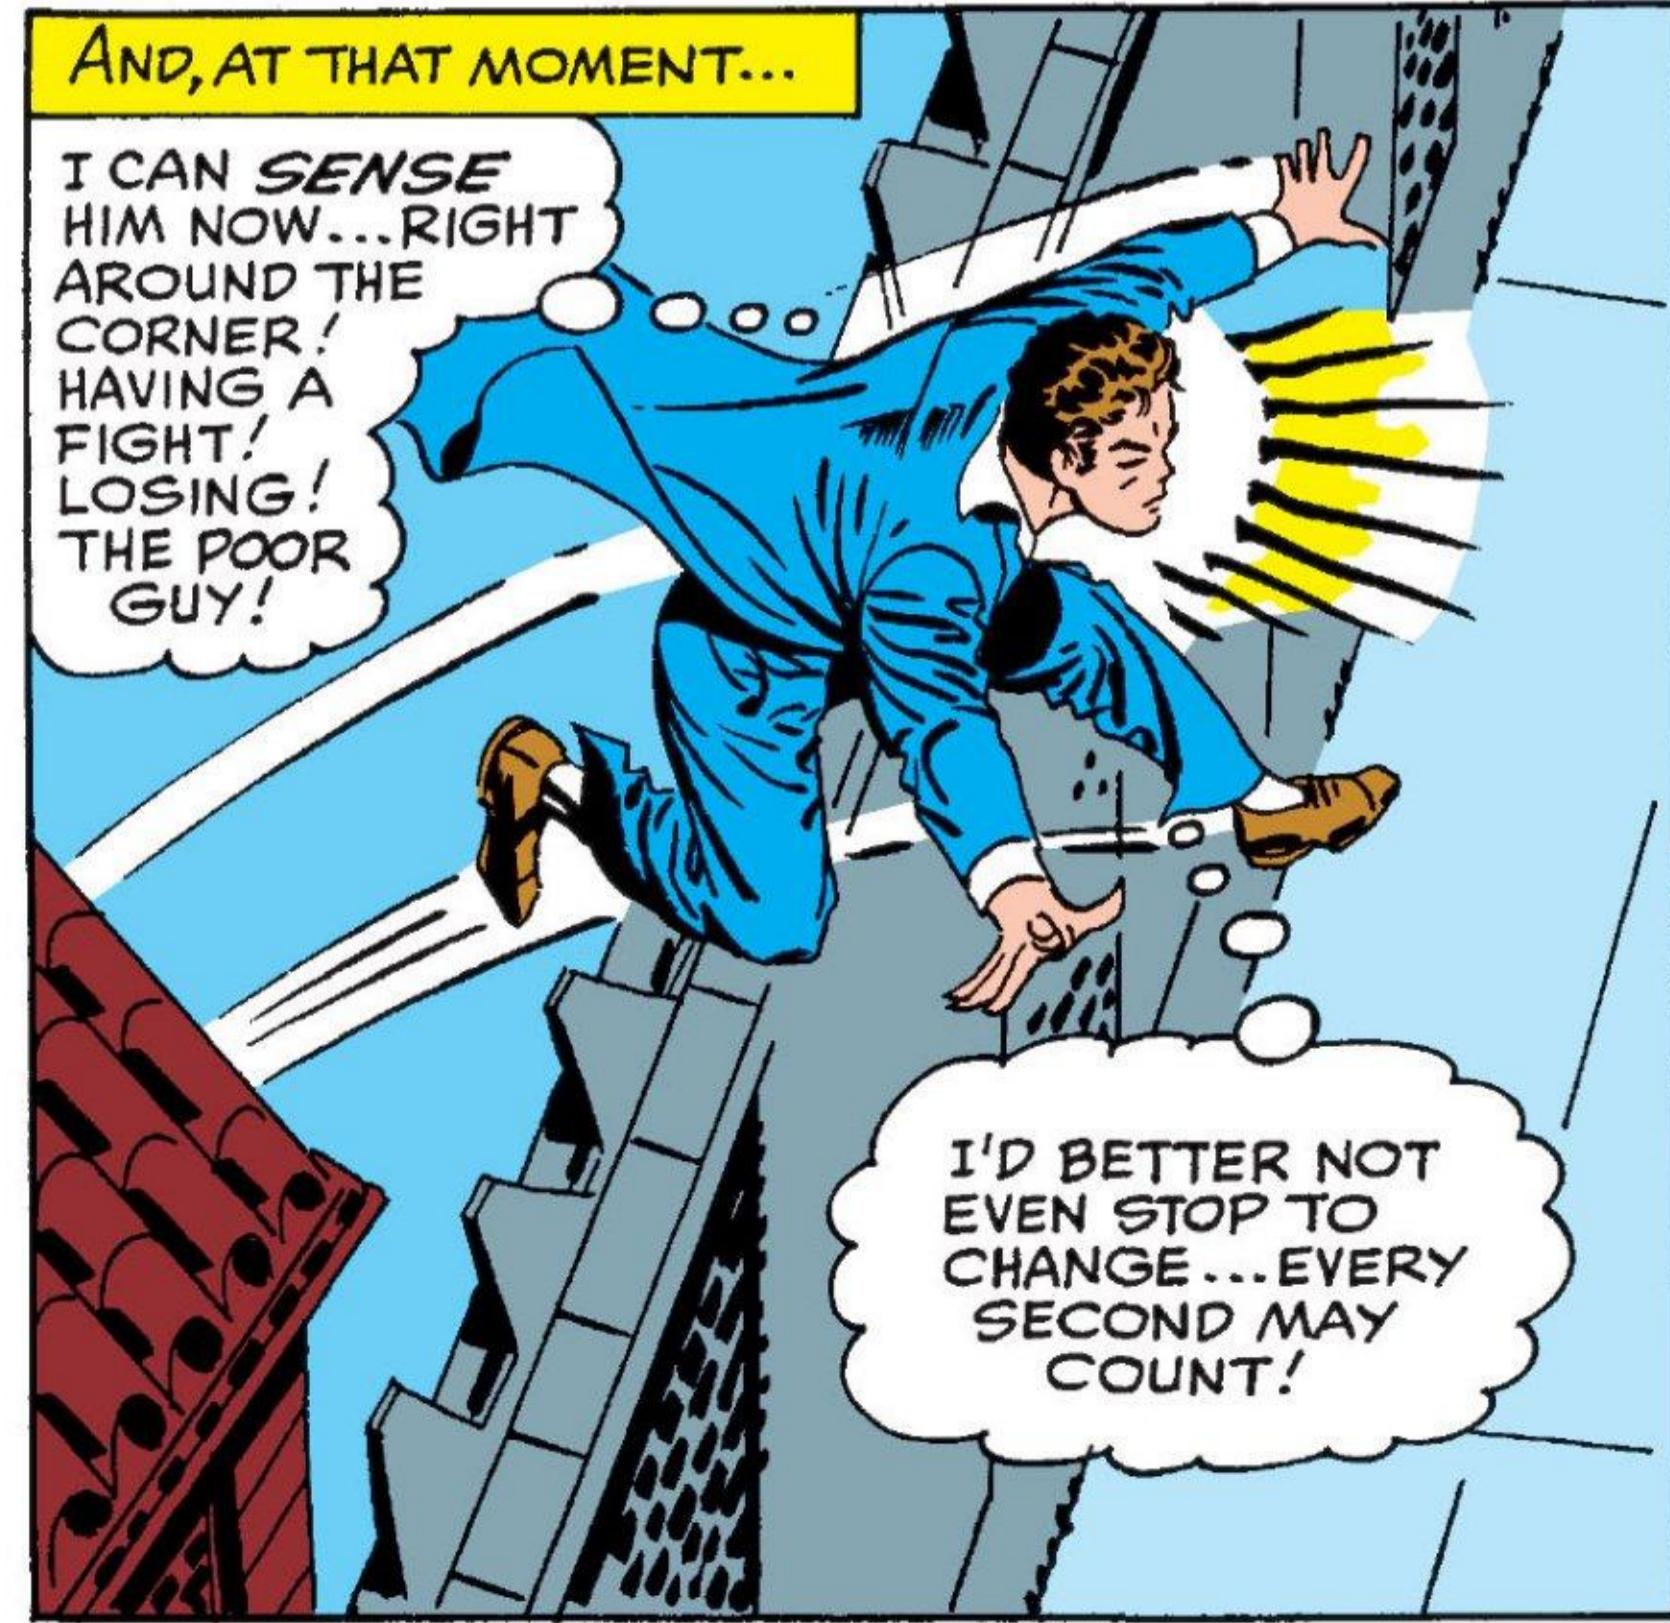

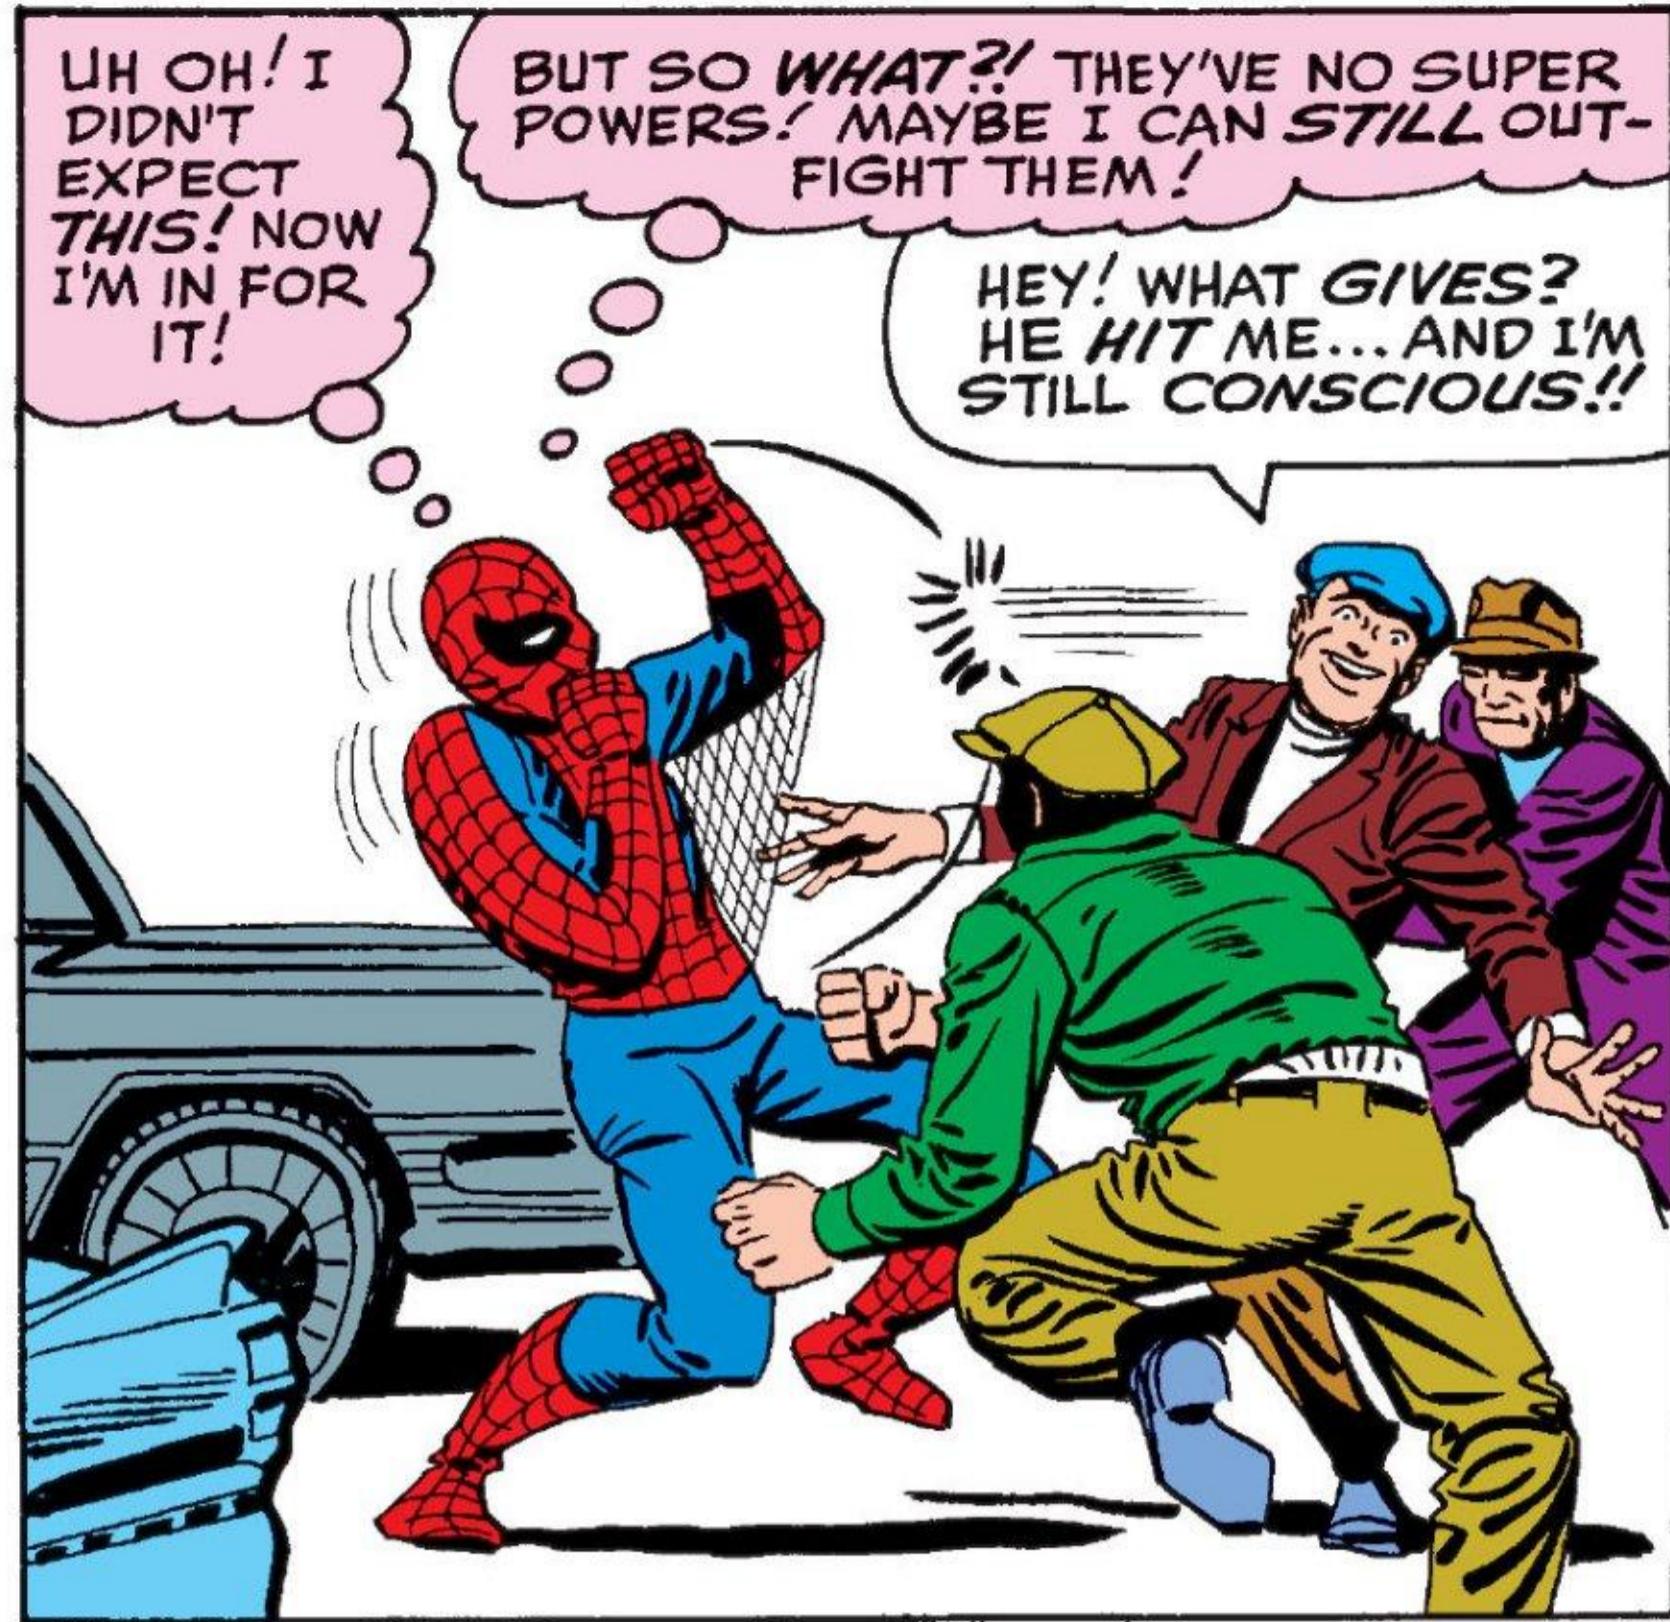

AND THEN, ACTING ON A SUDDEN IMPULSE, THE YOUNGEST MEMBER OF THE FABULOUS FANTASTIC FOUR UTTERS A DRAMATIC CRY AND BLAZES THROUGH THE WINDOW LIKE A CRIMSON METEOR...!

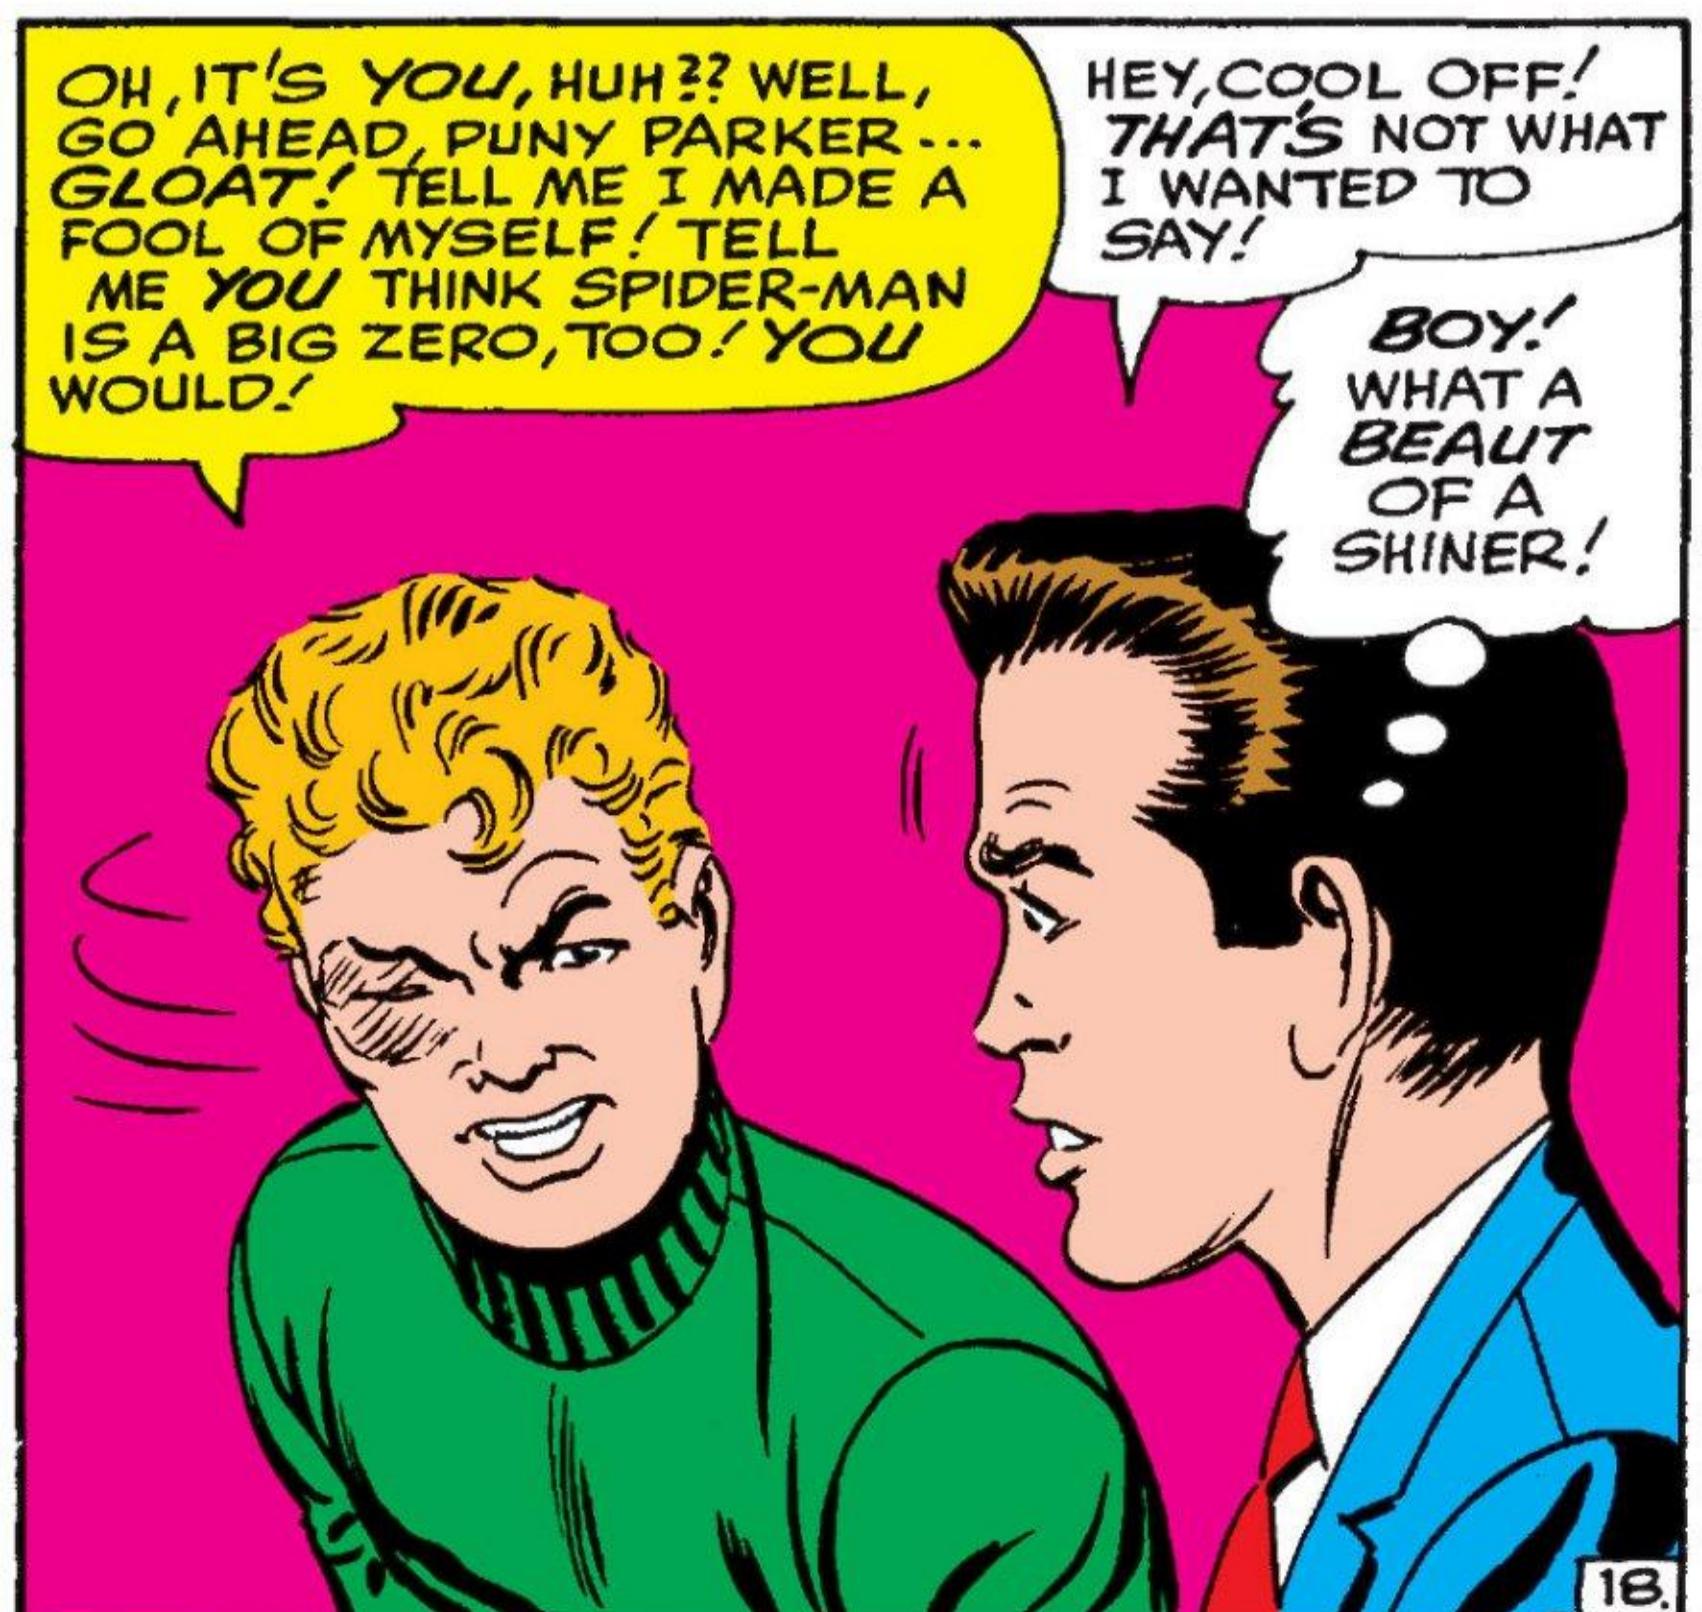

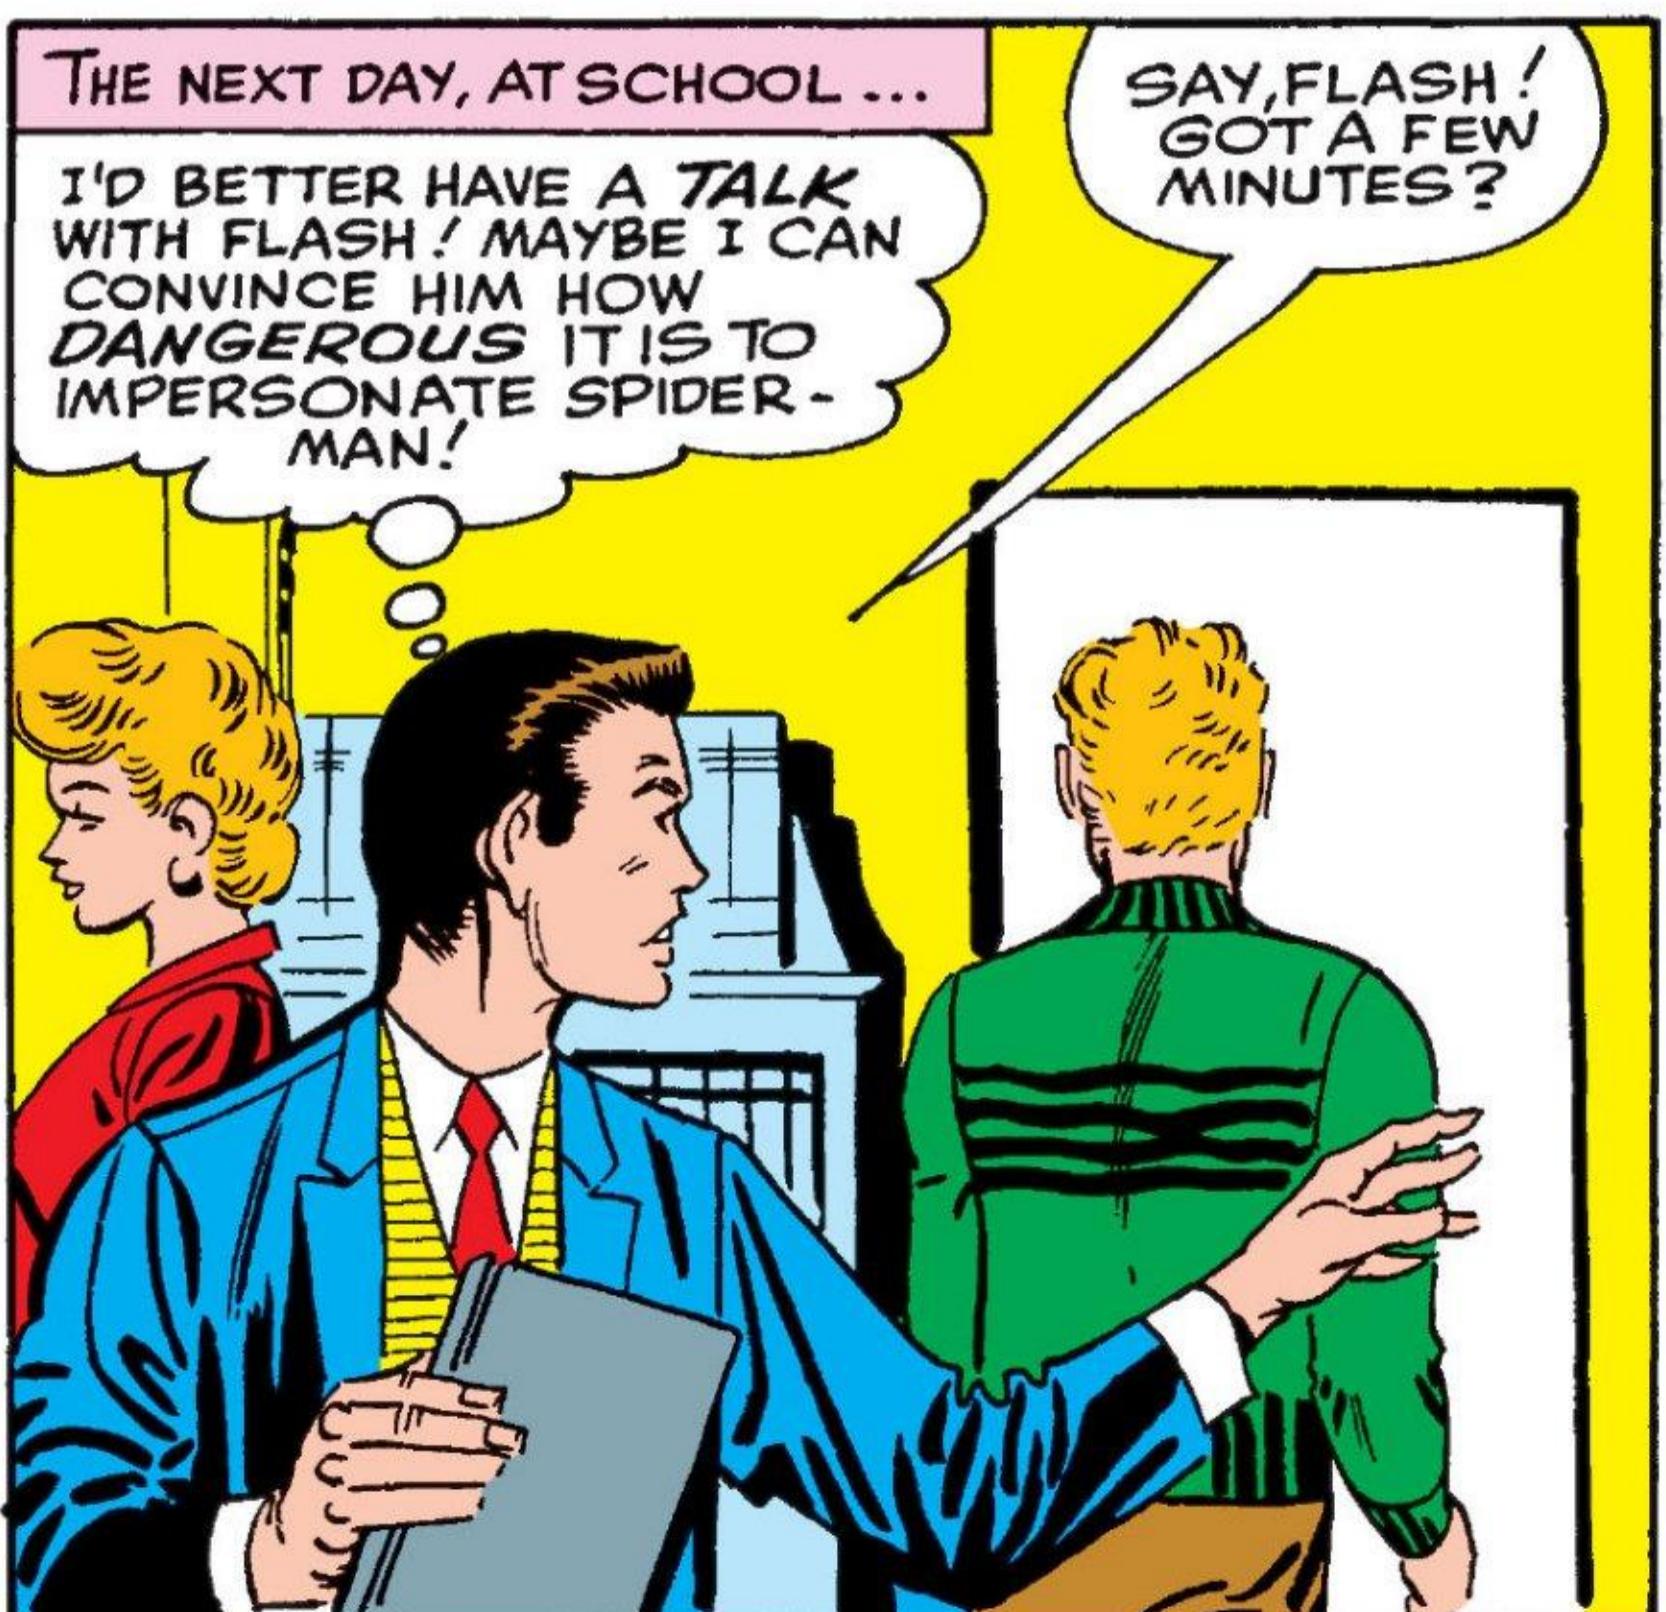

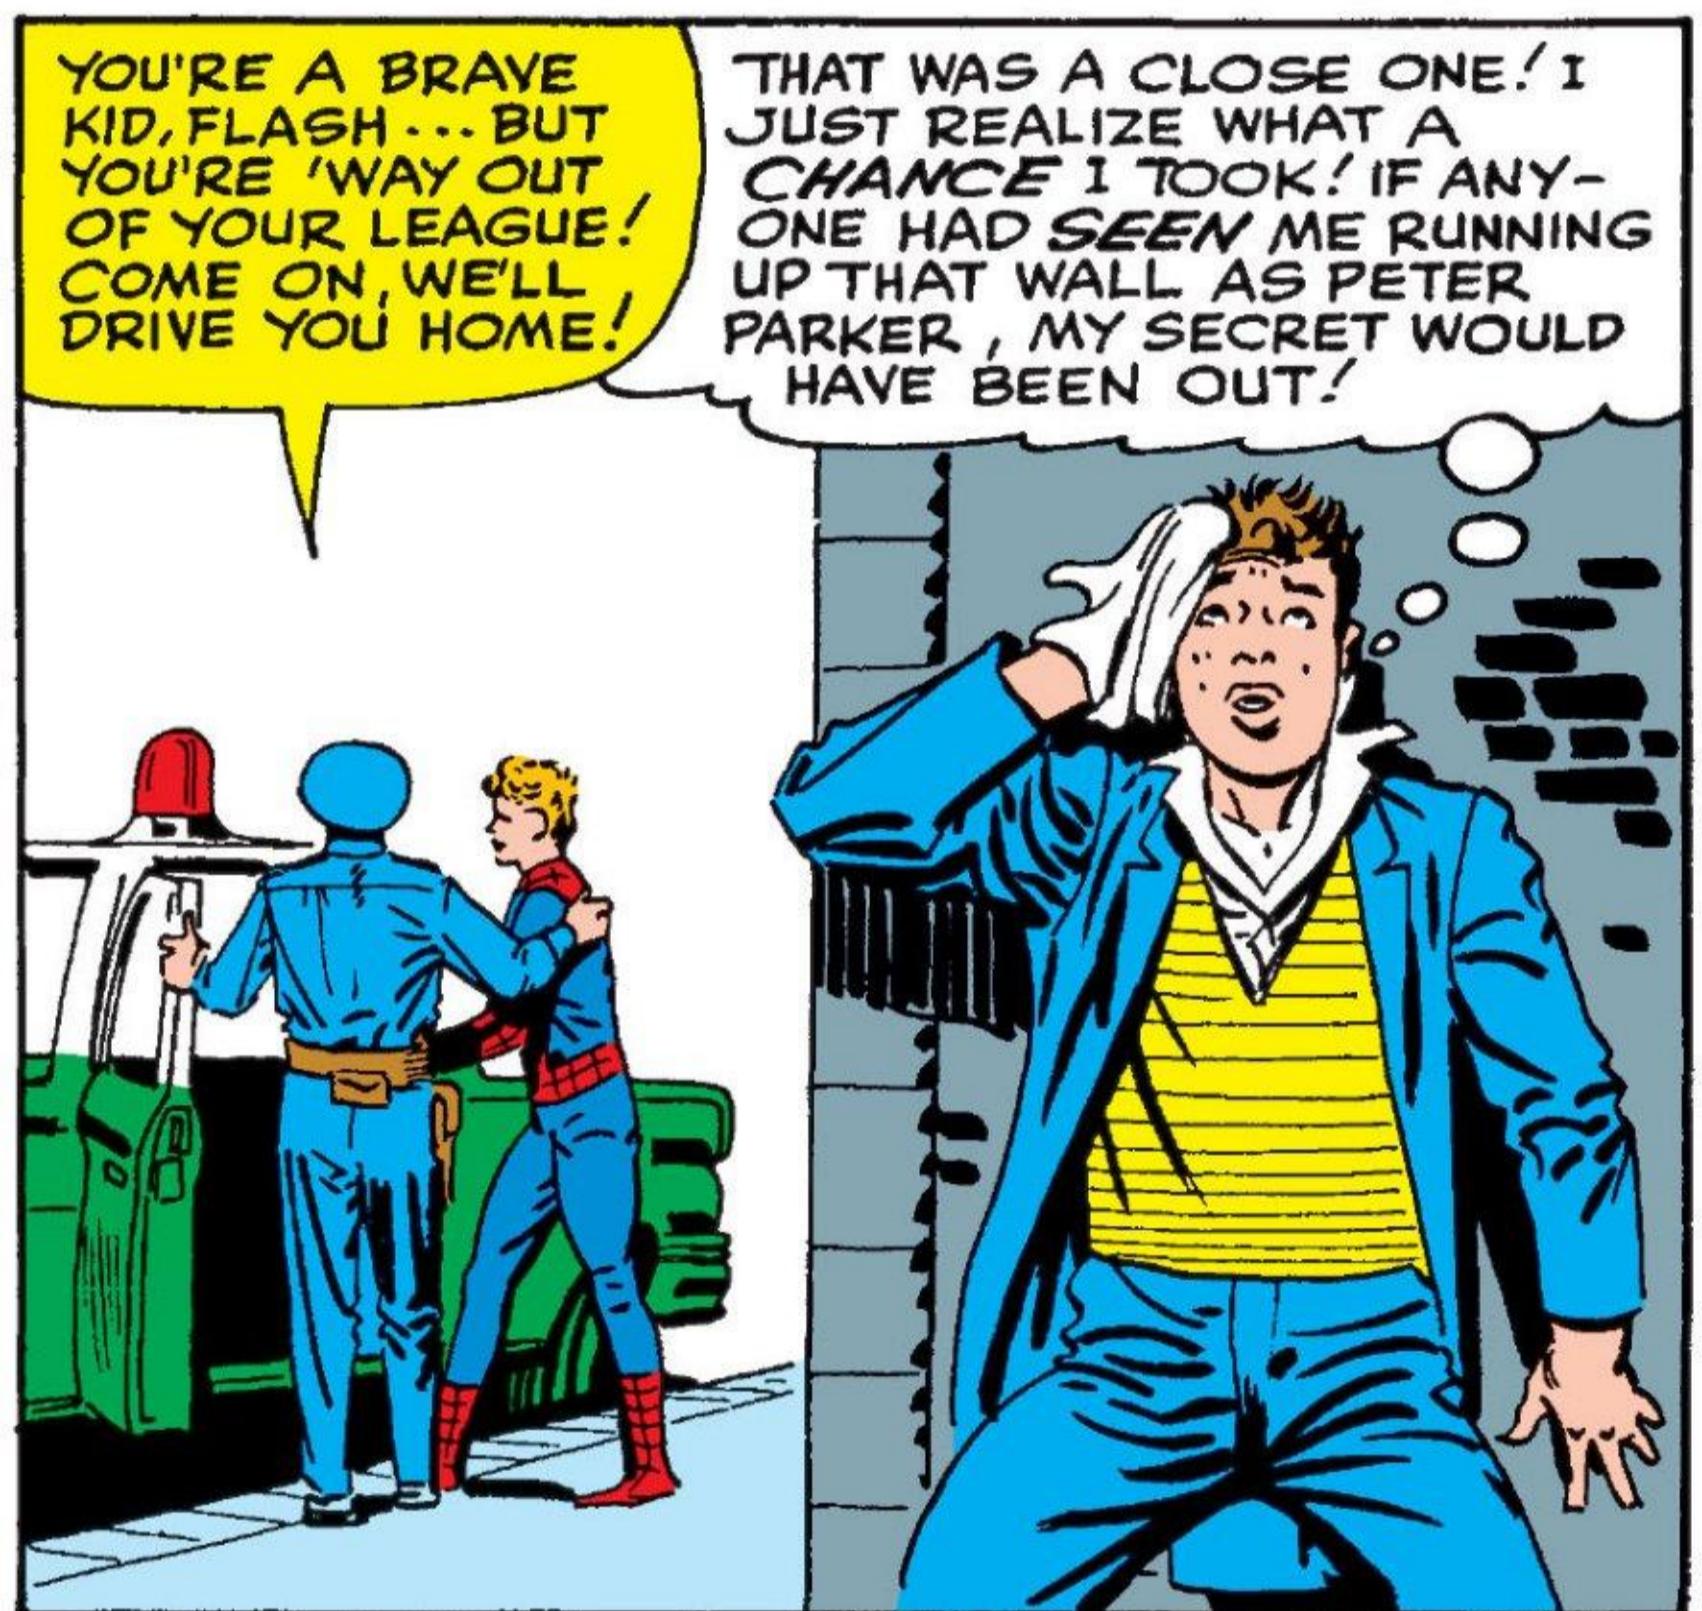

FLAME ON!

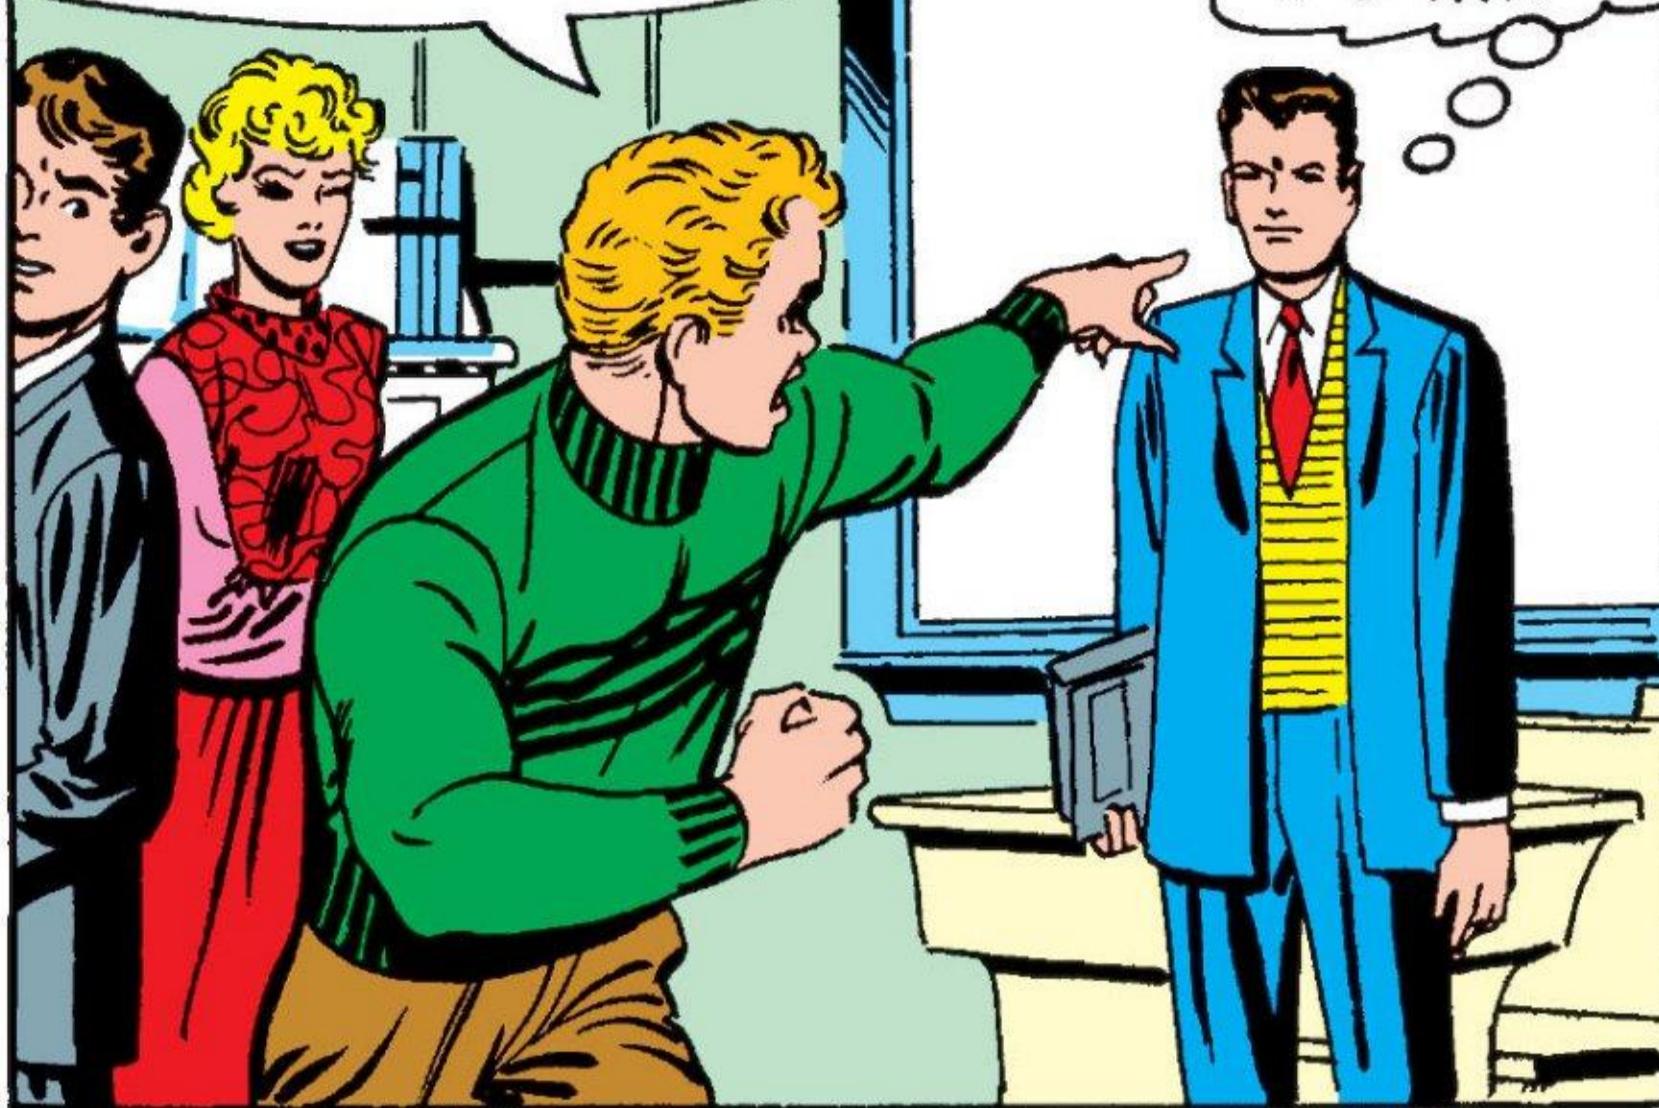

STAY OUTTA MY WAY, PARKER! I DON'T NEED ANY SYMPATHY FROM A NOBODY LIKE YOU! I ALMOST BEAT THOSE THREE CROOKS SINGLE-HANDED! ...AND MAYBE I WOULD HAVE IF THE POLICE HADN'T SHOWN UP!

THAT'S NOT THE WAY I HEARD IT, CHUM!

WHAT A GUY! HE WON'T LET ME BE NICE TO HIM EVEN IF I TRY!

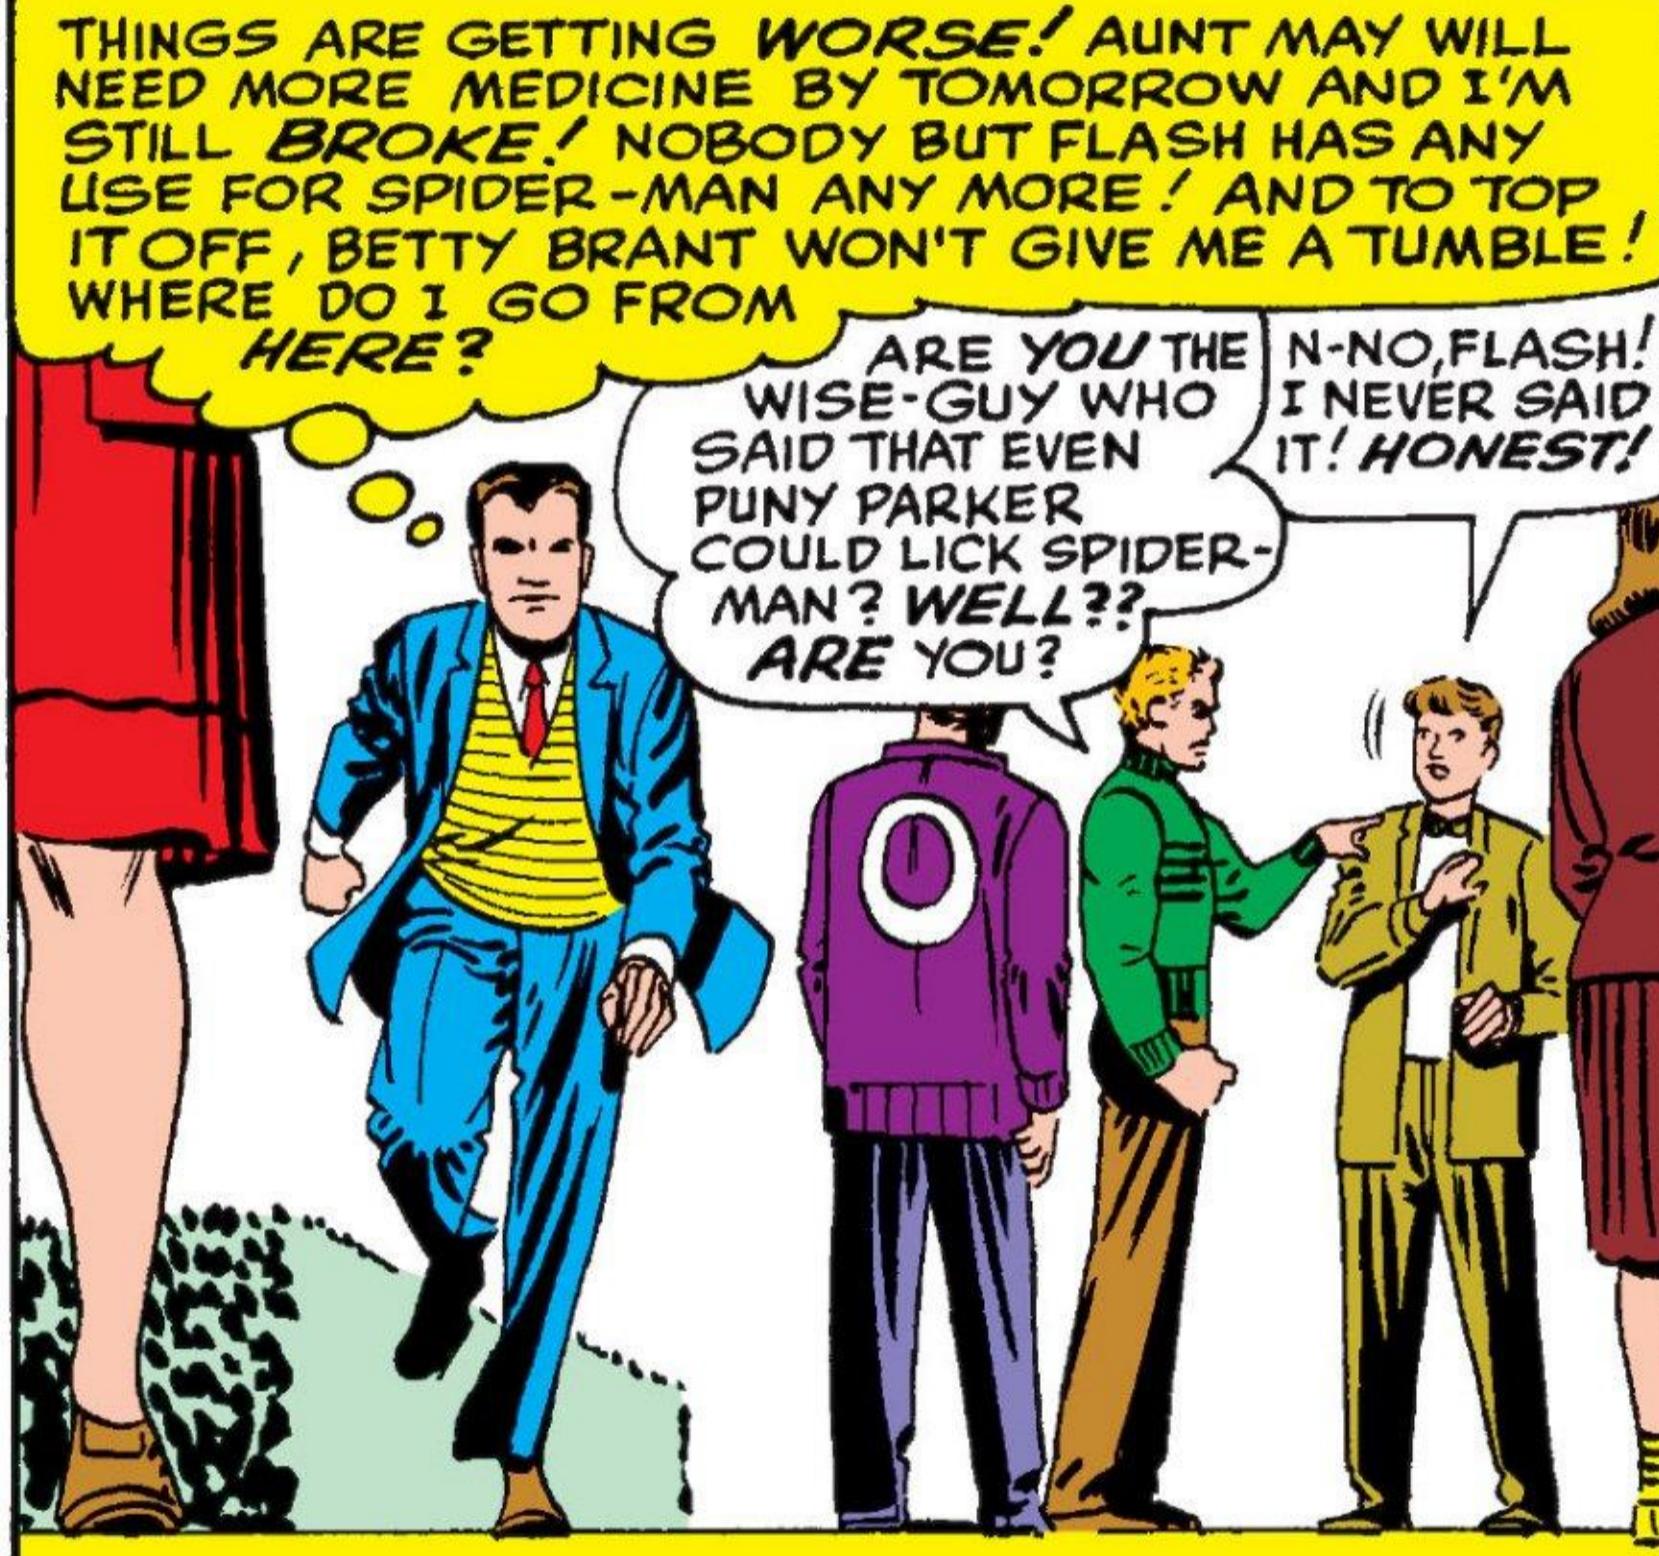

BETTER STAY AWAY FROM FLASH FOR A WHILE, PETEY! HE'S SENSITIVE ABOUT WHAT HAPPENED! HE'S EVEN MAD AT ME, BECAUSE I TOLD YOU ABOUT IT!

DON'T WORRY ABOUT ME, LIZ! STAYING AWAY FROM FLASH IS THE EASIEST THING I CAN DO! I'VE HAD A LOT OF PRACTICE!

THINGS ARE GETTING WORSE! AUNT MAY WILL NEED MORE MEDICINE BY TOMORROW AND I'M STILL BROKE! NOBODY BUT FLASH HAS ANY USE FOR SPIDER-MAN ANY MORE! AND TO TOP IT OFF, BETTY BRANT WON'T GIVE ME A TUMBLE! WHERE DO I GO FROM HERE?

ARE YOU THE N-NO, FLASH! WISE-GUY WHO SAID THAT EVEN I NEVER SAID IT! HONEST! PUNY PARKER COULD LICK SPIDER-MAN? WELL?? ARE YOU?

POOR FLASH! HE HASN'T BEEN RIGHT ABOUT ANYTHING IN YEARS!! HOW I'D LIKE TO TELL HIM THAT...HEY!

THERE'S BETTY... WITH ANOTHER BOY!! LOOK HOW SHE'S HOLDING HIS ARM! AND HOW HAPPY THEY SEEM!!

DID YOU LIKE THE MOVIE, BETTY?

OH, YES! I JUST COULDN'T STOP LAUGHING!

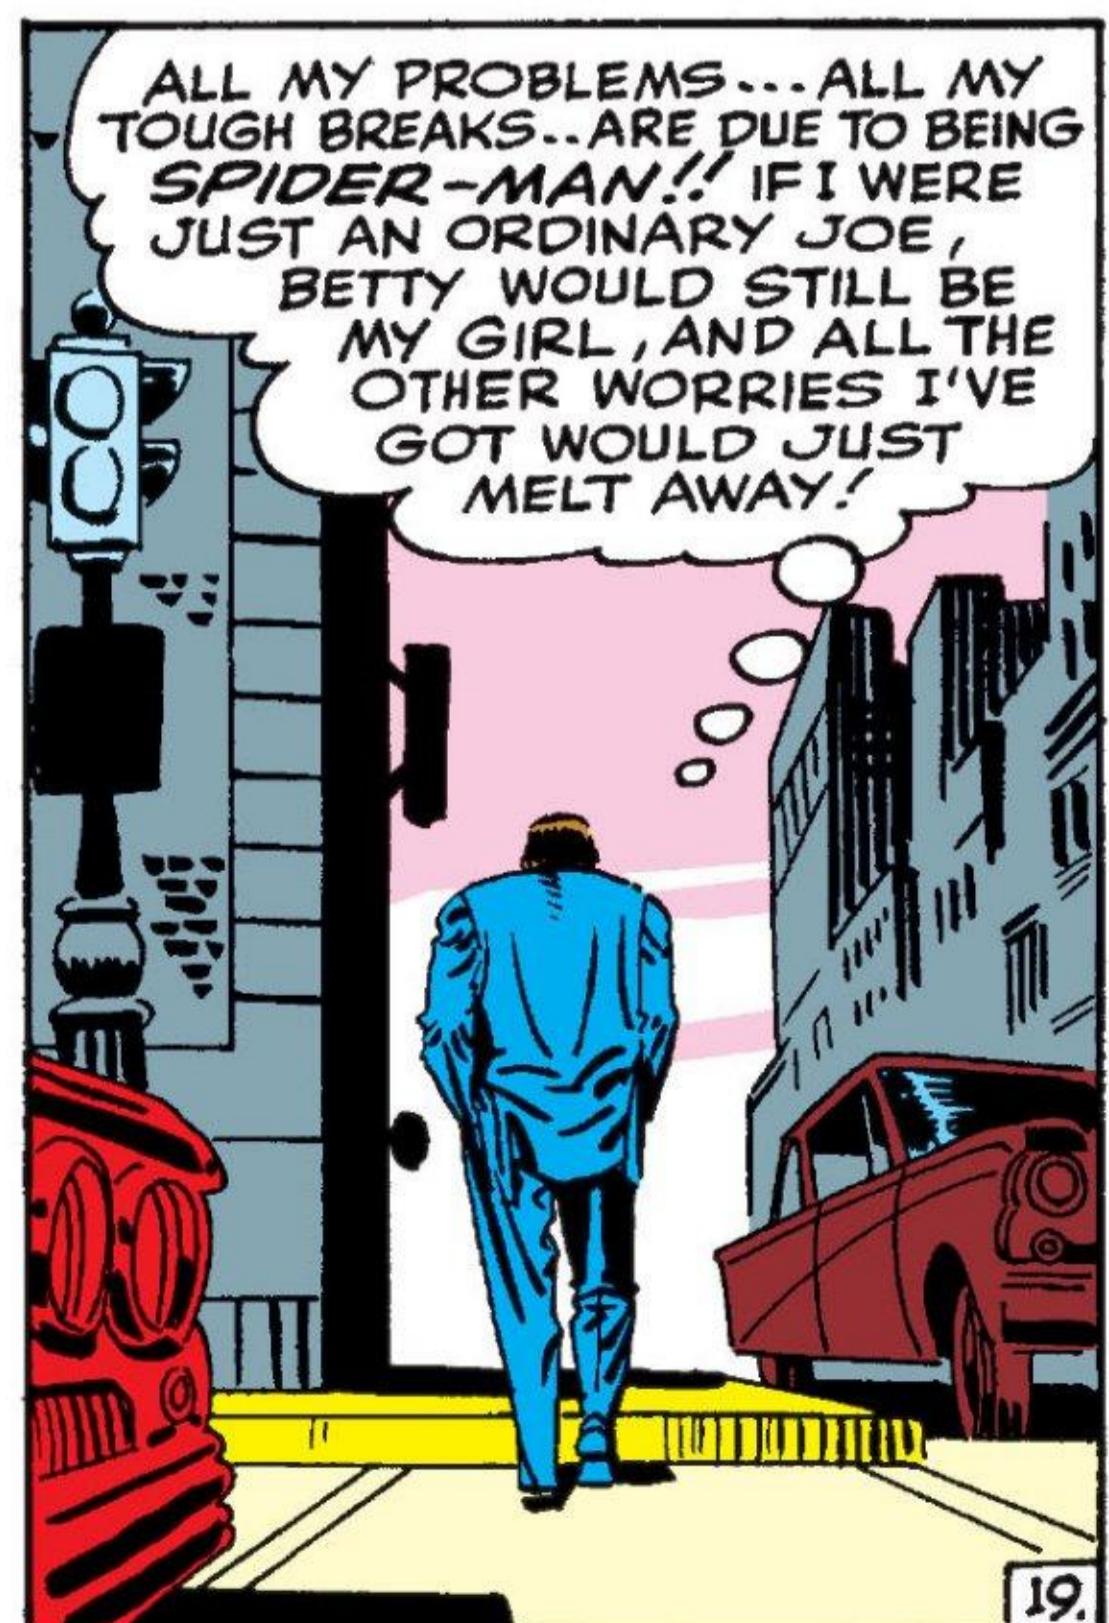

IT'S STILL EARLY! HOW ABOUT A SODA BEFORE I TAKE YOU HOME?

THAT'S THE BEST OFFER I'VE HAD IN WEEKS, KIND SIR!

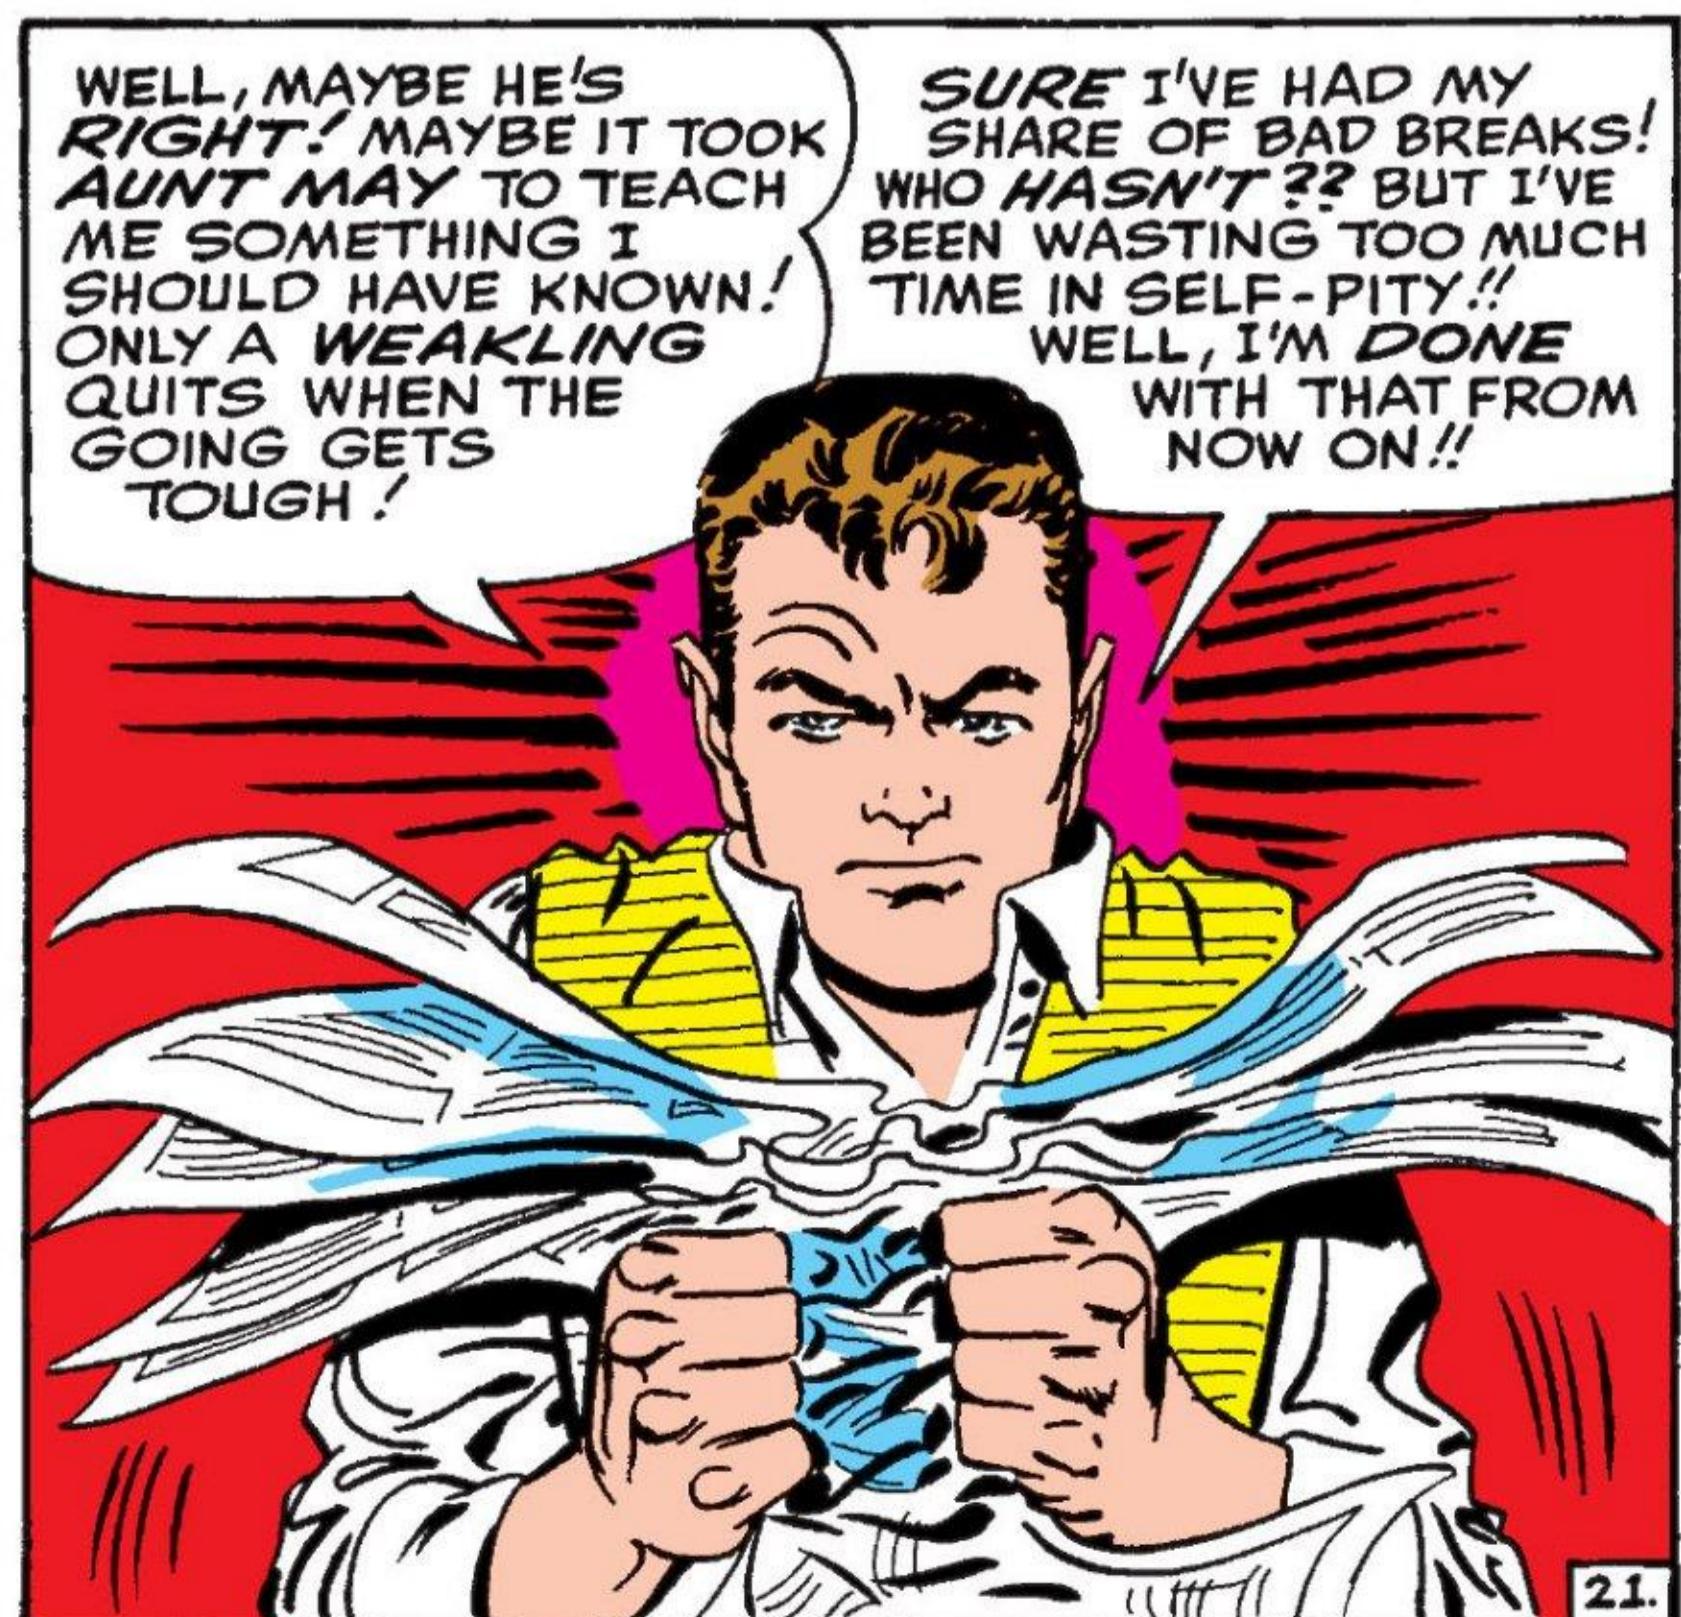

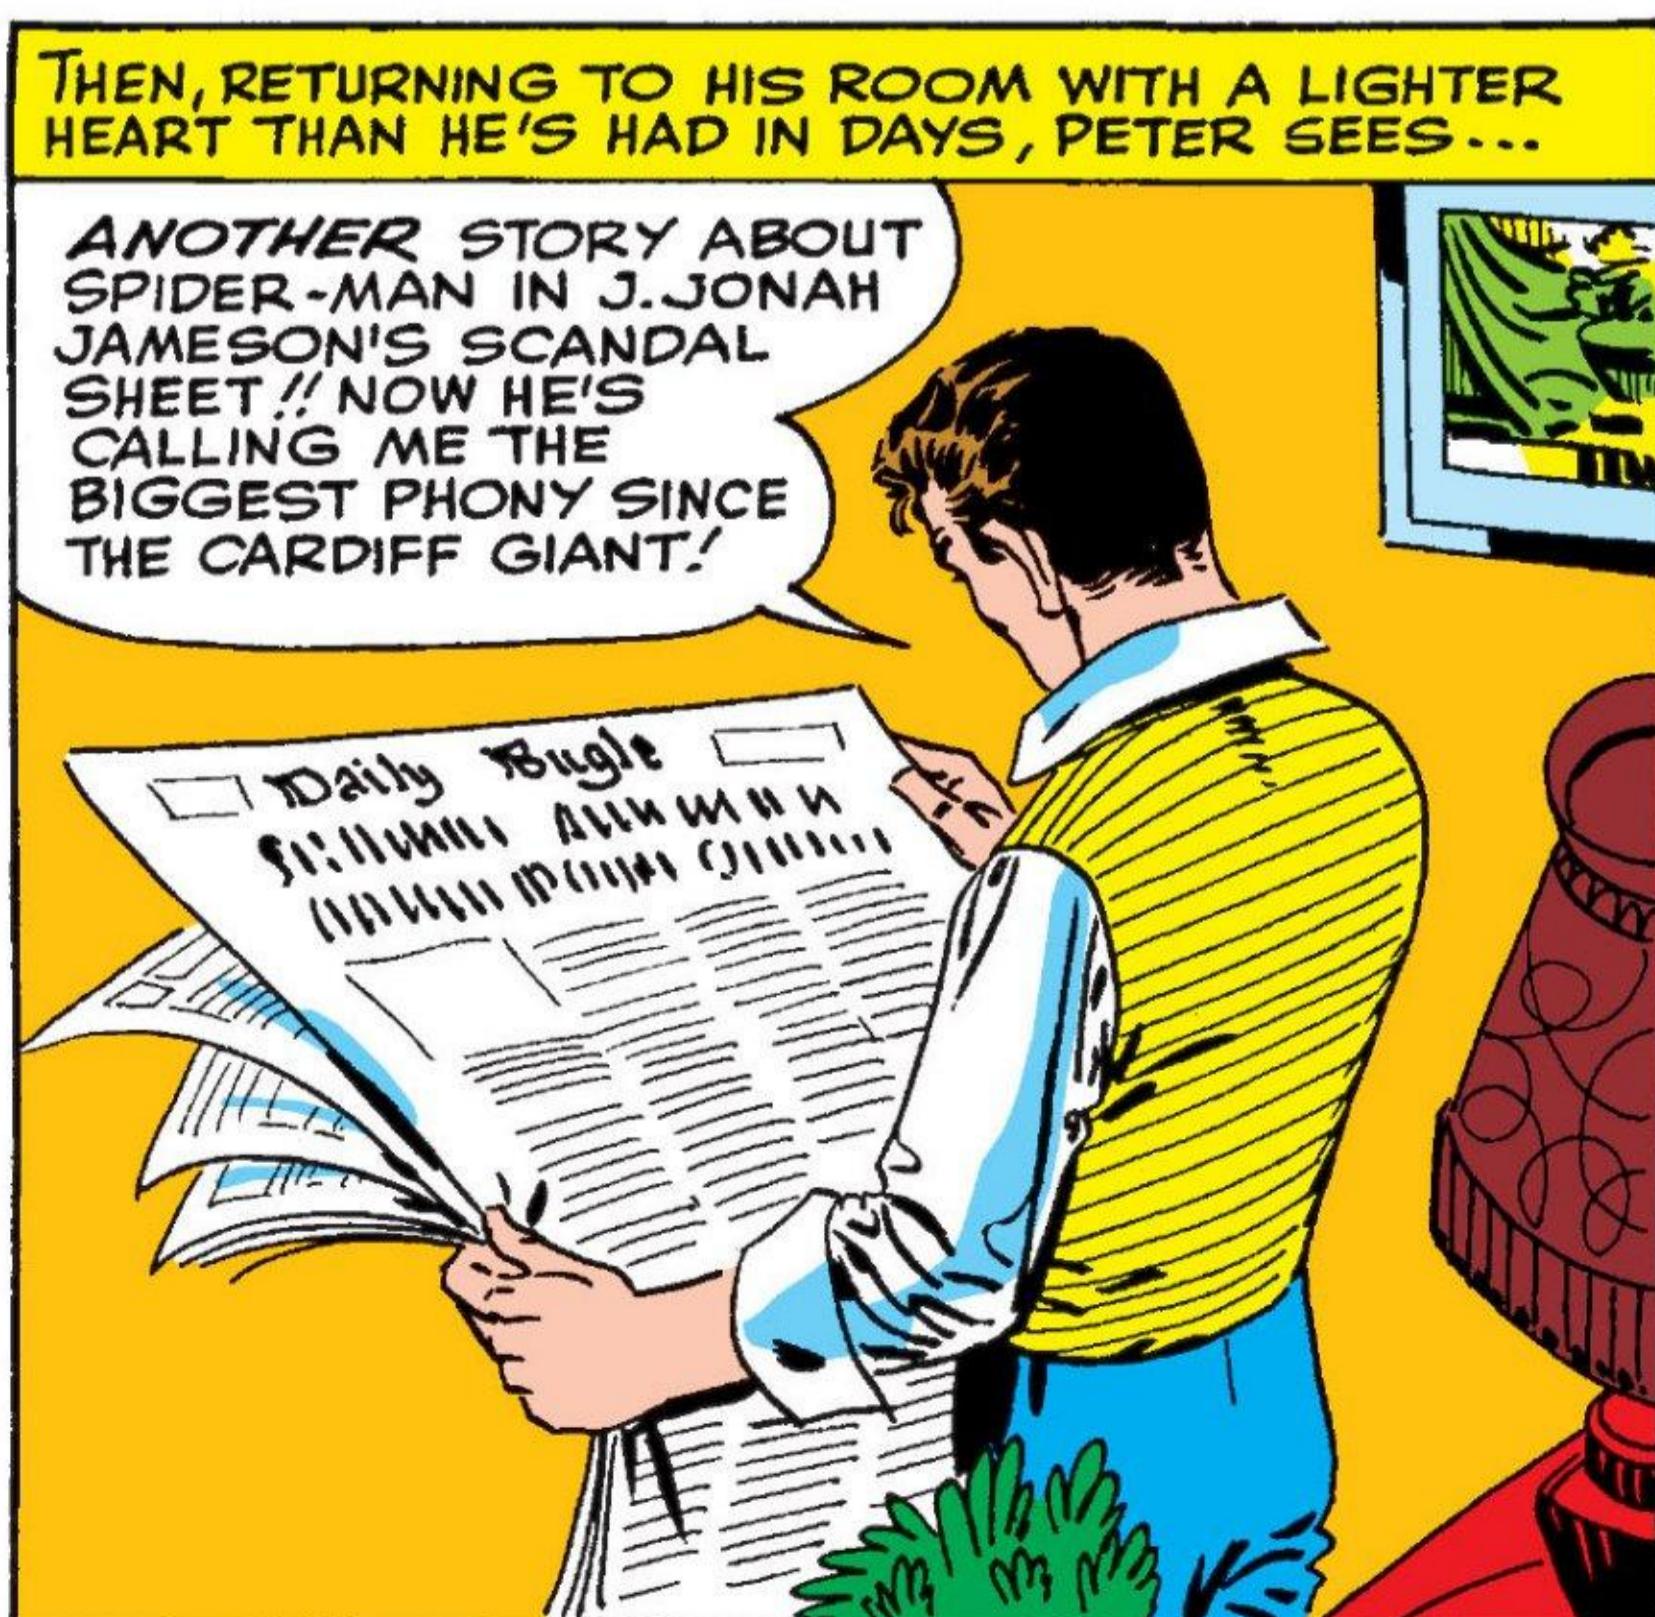

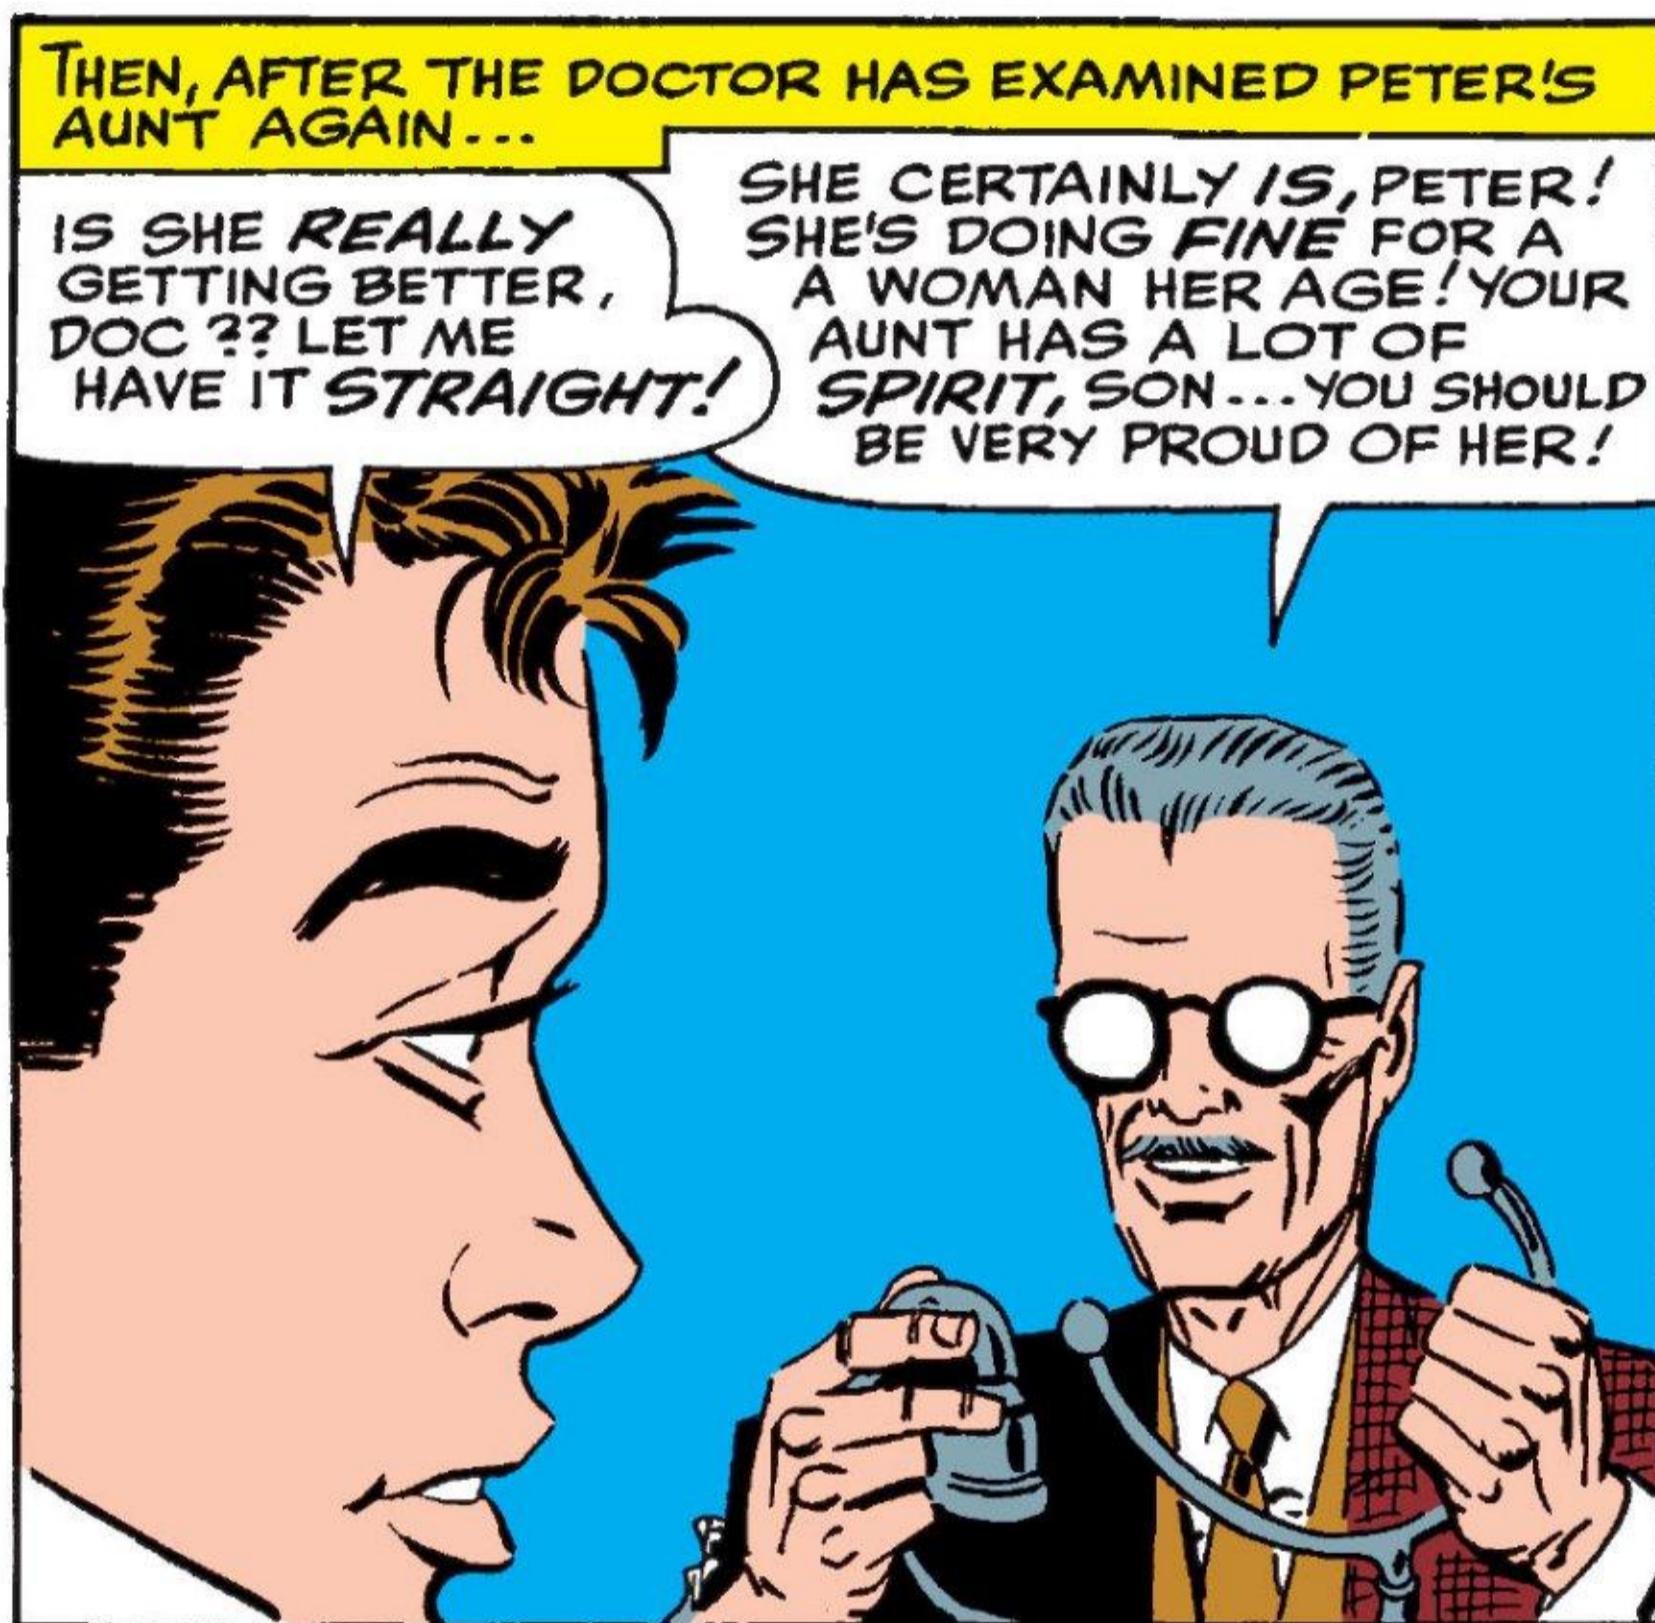

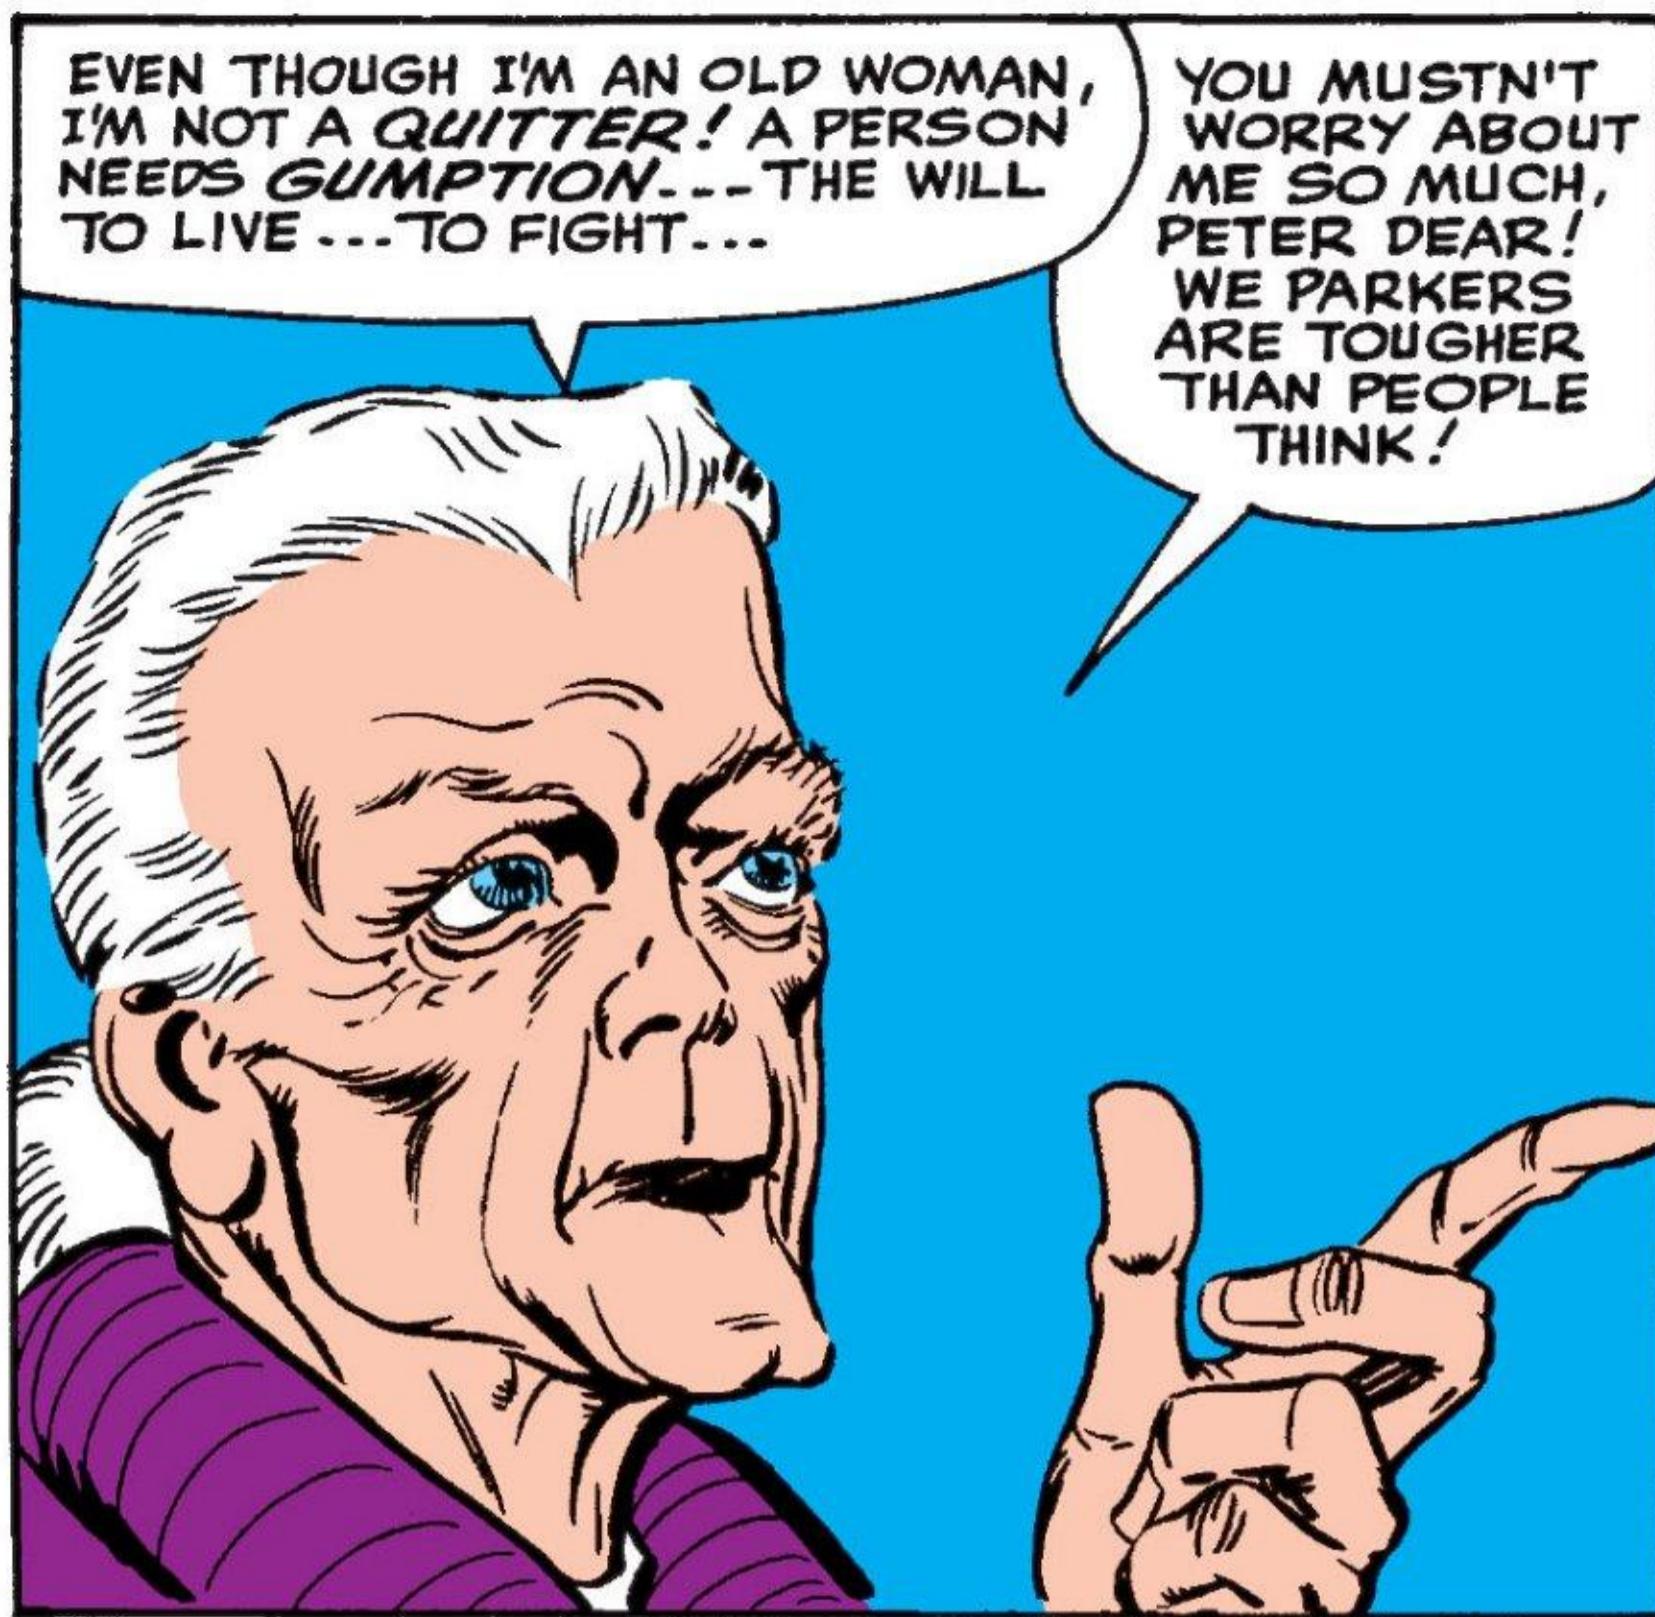

FACE IT, BOY! YOU'VE LOST HER! HOW DID THIS ALL HAPPEN? EVERYTHING SEEMS TO BE TUMBLING DOWN AROUND MY EARS!

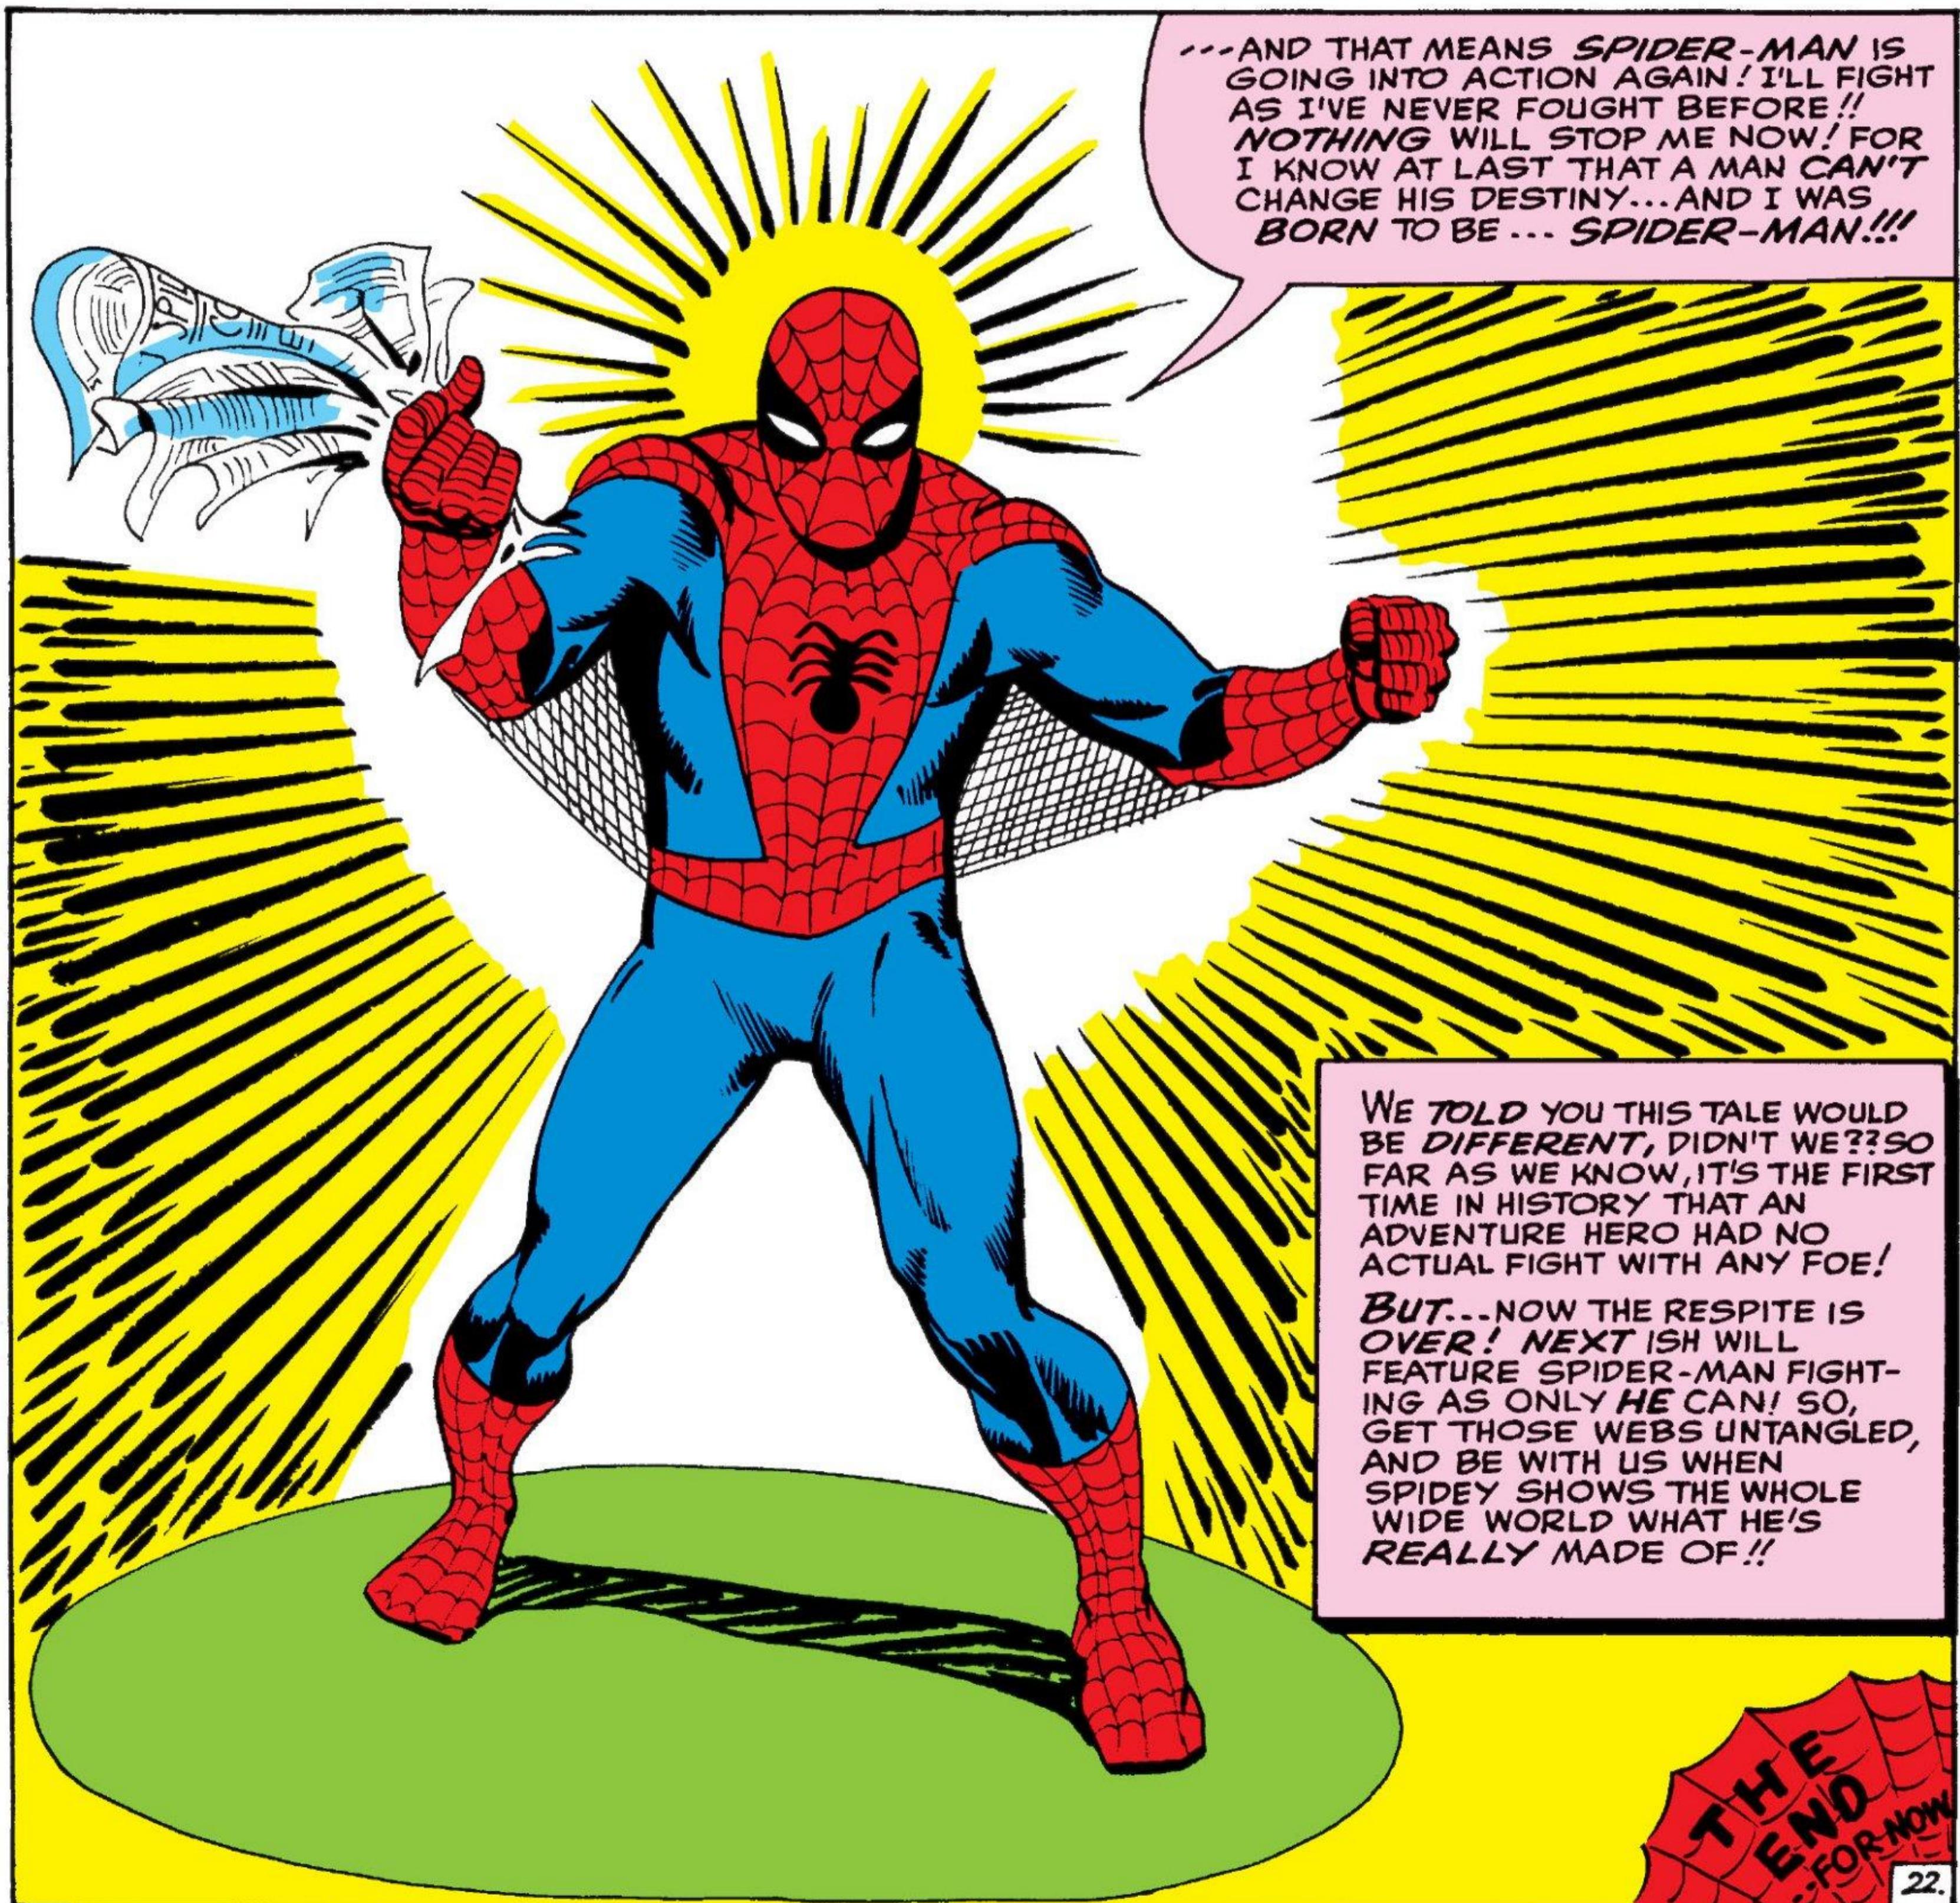

ALL MY PROBLEMS... ALL MY TOUGH BREAKS... ARE DUE TO BEING SPIDER-MAN!! IF I WERE JUST AN ORDINARY JOE, BETTY WOULD STILL BE MY GIRL, AND ALL THE OTHER WORRIES I'VE GOT WOULD JUST MELT AWAY!

Dear Stan and Steve,

SPIDER-MAN #15 was the all around best Spider-Man story I have yet read. It was crammed with terrific ideas. Some of the reasons I liked it were: 1) a terrific new villain who is even greater than Dr. Octopus, 2) Spidey's dizzy spells after the first battle, 3) Spidey's troubles with J.J.J. and the girls, 4) the way the battle progressed from page 16 on. At the end of the story Kraven said, "... we shall return and continue our hunt for Spider-Man." I intend to hold him to his word, so when he returns makes sure the Chameleon tags along!

Chuck Robinson II, Rt. #1, Box 103
Charleston, W. Va.

We'll do our best, Chuck! You know us—we go all out for our readers—as long as they want the same things we want anyway!

Dear Stan and Steve,

I've just finished SPIDER-MAN #15 with that fugitive from a Tarzan movie, Kraven, and for a villain with no complex super-powers it turned out to be a darn good story! You even threw in the Chameleon for kicks which reminds me, I've a kick about how you had him appear for only a few seconds at a time and what a pushover he was! His admitting he was no match for Spider-Man was very unvillainlike—I thought all villains were conceited. Also, why did the Chameleon have to come back to Spidey's turf? He could have set up a crime wave somewhere else and eluded Spidey. Your letters pages are great—I get a kick out of the funny ones and highly original offerings!

Frank Brunner, 1395 Greene Ave.
Brooklyn 37, N.Y.

The only thing that bothers us, Frankie, is the fact that our fans usually think the funniest letters are the ones that we're dead serious about!

Dear Stan and Steve,

After seeing the Academy Awards on T.V. I decided to make my own Oscar awards and believe me it wasn't easy! Best Comic Cover—FF #25, Best Writer—Stan Lee for "The Search for Sub-Mariner," Best Artist—Joe Orlando for "The Evil Menace of Electro," Best Inking—Vince Colletta for "The Evil Menace of Electro," Best Lettering—Sam Rosen for "The Hulk Vs. the Thing" and Art Simek for "The Avengers Take Over!," Best Background—"The Infant Terrible," Best Short Story—"The Unreal," Best Story—"The Search for Sub-Mariner," Best Supporting Actress—Betty Brant for "Turning Point," Best Supporting Actor—The Sub-Mariner for "The Search for Sub-Mariner," Best Actress—Susan Storm for "The Search for Sub-Mariner," Best Actor—Thor for "The Return of Zarrko." There they are—how do you like them??

Greg Marlar, 481 Cedar Ventura, Calif.

We'd have liked 'em better if Spidey had been mentioned! But maybe we're just prejudiced, Greg!

Dear Stan and Steve,

I have wracked my brains for hours trying to find the answer to the Spider-Man question of the year—why are certain Spider-Man foes rated higher than others by the magazine readers? Eureka! At long last I believe I have solved the problem and I offer documented evidence to support my theory. The solution lies in the number of times a villain is presented in SPIDER-MAN. The villain does not necessarily have to have diabolical master plans, an arsenal of scientific gadgets, or a fiendish personality, although these are contributing factors and hold some weight. It is my hypothesis that the more you are exposed to a particular criminal the more you begin to admire him and this is especially true in the case of the newer (and more impressionable) readers. This public opinion which changes constantly decides the fate of many a good Spider-Man foe. I have listed seven Spider-Man villains giving the number of times they have appeared. I leave it to you and my fellow readers to deliberate the wisdom of my statements and perhaps enter into a bit of friendly argument. (Dr. Octopus-3, the Enforcers-2, Sandman-1, Electro-1, Mysterio-1; Green Goblin-1.)

Benny Daily, 1010 Moro
Manhattan, Kansas

Benny boy, we're re-read your letter twice, and still can't figure out exactly what the point is—but our readers are probably sharper than we! Anyway, t'was nice hearing from ya!

Dear Stan and Steve,

Oh brother—you guys are really stuck on yourselves aren't you? Why don't you just come off of your high horse for a minute and wake up. You seem to like to compare the Spider-Man to the Torch. Well, in my book the Torch could fry that Spider-Man and his webs to a frazzle before that crazy insect could say "Duh"! The best thing you can do to improve your magazine is to stop this conceited bit and you'll make a lot more friends.

Terry Larsen, Box 365
Calmar, Alberta, Canada

But what'll we do with 'em, Terry? We don't even have enough time for our enemies!

Dear Stan and Steve,

In SPIDER-MAN #13 a fan wrote and said that the Human Torch could "spatter Spider-Man all over New York." Well, in my opinion, if Spider-Man and the Human Torch ever met again (without interruptions which usually happen), the ending would be just the opposite! Spider-Man would rub Torch all over New York! Maybe if Spider-Man would use some of the frozen webbing that he used in STRANGE TALES ANNUAL #2, then the odds would be greatly in his favor. Why not have them battle again, this time to a decisive victory for one or the other? Don't have the FF help Torch as usual!

Mark Taggart, 427 Quan Ave.
Kirkwood 22, Mo.

But as far as we know, Mark, they're not even mad at each other! Maybe we'll go you one better—we might get jolly Jack to tangle with smilin' Steve, with sneaky Stan acting as referee!

Dear Stan and Steve,

I thought you magnificent Marvel marvels had come up with just about everything that there was to come up with. You proved me wrong by a long shot! Aside from those completely original mighty monarchs of justice you use as your starring super-heroes you come up with a whole array of really fabulous supporting stars! First you hit us with the awesome majesty of Namor, ruler of the underwater depths, then come the new members of the Evil Mutants of X-Men fame, of which the new brother and sister team, Scarlet Witch and the streaking Quicksilver makes some of your all time best minor characters. After that you again top yourself with the intriguing Zemo and his murderous Masters of Evil, in The Avengers! Then, as though what you've already done isn't enough, you top everything you've ever done by creating Kraven the Hunter. His costume is the most colorful and refreshingly original of any I've yet seen and the concept behind him is superb. Kraven, the triumphant, savage, vicious, two-fisted fighter from Africa is one character I'm looking forward to seeing again and again. That battle with him and Spider-Man, my favorite of all the titanic customized heroes, was another magnificent Marvel triumph. I'm sure Spider-Man is one super-hero who is going to last through the ages and will be known by the generations yet to come as THE super-hero of the past!

Ken Dixon, 674 Buttonwood Dr.
Springfield, Pa.

You're sure—and we're sure—and Spidey's sure—but, don't bother asking J. Jonah!

Dear Stan and Steve,

Wow! You've outdone yourselves in SPIDER-MAN #15. I was worried about Kraven the Hunter as he was so sure of himself, so sly, clever, strong and handsome. Wait a minute—on second thought he wasn't so handsome, but he was so fast-moving! When he threw those magnetized locks on Spider-Man I thought he was done for sure, then to put more trouble in his way, up pops the Chameleon, and if that isn't enough, Betty Brant is acting up again! Boy, that story was one good enough to keep anyone awake! I want to say the plot was great, Stan! Keep up the good work in this Marvel Age of Comics!

Todd Freeman, 12601 Speedway Overlook
East Cleveland, Ohio

Thanks, Todd—but do you hear sensitive Stevey muttering in the background? Something like: "So what was the artwork—chicken liver???"

Dear Stan and Steve,

The different thing about Spider-Man is that he's not tremendous—he's simply great. Now that Marvel is becoming bigger and bigger every day, it produces few "just great" magazines. Sometimes when a comic mag is made too sensational it falls flat on its face and when it doesn't, it leaves a reader speechless. A magazine like SPIDER-MAN eases the tension when a reader gets to thinking, "They just can't keep on coming out with these spectacular issues. What if they goof up the next one?" This is just my opinion and it probably doesn't apply to anyone except me but I just thought I'd let you know. Oh! The Special Announcements section always cracks me up. You don't brag one bit. You just get enthused and you can't wait for us readers to see the next issues. And one more thing—the Hulk should visit his jolly green huge cousin in the valley sometime. That'll be something when they have the Hulk on T.V. advertising frozen peas!

Clarke Owens, 785 Parklin Ave.
Sacramento, Calif.

They can have him, Clarke—if they can catch him!

Dear Stan and Steve,

I am a faithful follower of FF, SPIDER-MAN, AVENGERS, X-MEN, THOR and the other Marvel greats. So I won't waste time on useless comments such as "I think Marvel is the greatest, etc.!" Spider-Man has dropped to an all time low. Issue #12 was great with Dr. Octopus, #13 was good, #14 would have been crummy without the Hulk, and #15 was the flop! Crummy art, fair story—the only thing any good was the lettering and that could have been better. With the possible exception of issue #15 Steve Ditko's artwork is the best. Please don't switch him back to IRON MAN or any other mag.

Edward Willard, 345 Lansing Ave.
Troy, N.Y.

Hey, write to us again some time, Eddie—when you wake up on the right side of the bed! Cheee!

Dear Stan and Steve,

I'm writing to acknowledge an expression of gratitude to you and the MARVEL COMICS GROUP editors for your return to the super-hero era of comics. These same heroes are the men who not only revive such pleasant childhood memories, but also continue to afford me, thanks to you, many hours of reading enjoyment today.

William Rose, "Rose Record Room",
Radio Station KTAR, P.O. Box 711
Phoenix, Arizona

Glad you're pleased with our efforts, Bill. And if we ever get out to Arizona, KTAR will be the first station we tune in to!

Dear Stan and Steve,

In previous issues of your magazines you have asked for honest criticisms, so if you don't mind a reader's point of view, here goes. First, your glamorous covers are the best on the market except that you put too many rave notices on them. Next, your color schemes are good except that your backgrounds are a bit dreary. My biggest complaint on inking is that the individual colors run outside their appointed spaces by as much as one-eighth of an inch in places. In this respect your competitors have you outclassed. Your lettering is superb. I don't know how you think up so many plots for so many of your mags! Next, and most important, is your success factor. What is your success factor? Well, I believe your success factor is the way you humanize your heroes and supporting characters. I'm through with my critiques and I hope you'll keep in mind that they are my opinions which I sent to you for the express purpose of improving your magazines. (Yes, it's possible, you know!) After all, we Marvel readers would rather save our 12¢ than switch!!

Lance Reidy, 77 Whitney St.
Auburn, Maine

We appreciate your comments, Lance! And we never object to readers finding fault with us—at least it means that someone's out there reading!

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS SECTION:

—Okay, gang—FACE FRONT! We've got a lot to tell you, and we want your undivided attention! (How's THAT for an opener?)

—First of all, we guarantee that our next SPIDER-MAN (#19—entitled "Spidey Strikes Back!") will have more two-fisted action packed between its covers than you ever would have thought possible! Even Steve's pencil has skinned knuckles from drawing it!

—Next, we want to announce that beginning this month, every Marvel super-hero title will have a letters page in every issue! We realize that you fans want it—so now you've GOT it! As for us, we're getting writers' cramp just thinking about it!

—Now, let's see what's doing in our other Marvel mags, on sale now—

—The most exciting news, as usual, comes from the fabulous FANTASTIC FOUR, which features an unforgettable thriller entitled "Death of a Hero." And, as you know, we don't kid around in these stories. When we say "Death of a Hero" you know that someone's gonna die!

—Another big item is the birth of a new Marvel-type hero-villain. AVENGERS #9 is where you'll find him, and we have a hunch there'll be a lot of talk about him for months to come. His name is "Wonder Man," and take it from us, he lives up to that monicker!

—Our newest star, DAREDEVIL, has another solid hit with the appearance of "Killgrave, the Purple Man"! It's amazing how D.D. seems to have taken the comic reading world by storm! After only four appearances, his popularity is threatening to rival our ol' web-spinner himself!

—THOR #109 has a doozy, too! It stars our male Goldilocks battling the X-MEN'S most powerful enemy, Magneto! This one is sure to please everybody!

—And at long last, in answer to your avalanche of requests, two additional Marvel favorites have been given their own regular feature slots! CAPTAIN AMERICA will share top billing with IRON MAN in TALES OF SUSPENSE from now on, while THE INCREDIBLE HULK is the second co-feature (along with GIANT-MAN) in TALES TO ASTONISH! And there's even been a change in STRANGE TALES. You'll find THE THING teaming up with THE HUMAN TORCH in each ish—as well as the usual DR. STRANGE black magic thriller!

—And for you war fans, SGT. FURY is better than ever in a real earthy, gutsy, action-packed spectacular entitled: "The Crackdown of Capt. Flint!"

—So there you have it—the marvelous Marvel line-up for this month! (We didn't forget to mention our wild and wooly Westerns, or frankly frivolous female titles—it's just that we're running out of space!)

—Now, till we meet next ish, see if you can figure out what M.M.M.S. stands for? We'll tell you more about it later—and it'll be one of the biggest new developments to hit the merry Marvel bullpen in years!

—So remember, Spidey strikes back next issue, and if you're not here to enjoy the fireworks, you'll spoil our fun! It's never the same without you!
