WIN

this 1970 Cessna 150 private plane and flying lessons, or EMPI "Imp" dune buggy, or Starcraft 15-foot power boat.

We're giving away all three in Revell's "Pick-Your-Own-Prize" Sweepstakes!

These aren't Revell models, gang—they're the real thing. Which go-go machine looks groovy to you? Think about it, then write "Cessna 150" or "EMPI Imp dune buggy" or "Starcraft 15' power boat" on an official Revell entry blank. Or on the back of an end panel (or reasonable facsimile) from any Revell kit. Your name automatically goes into the special drawing for that particular prize. "Pick-Your-Own-Prize" Sweepstakes is actually three great sweeps in one.

1,059 other wild prizes, including Yamahas and space suits. Four lucky guys will win high-powered Yamaha 100cc motorcycles. Wild. And five of you will get real astronaut space suits worn by stars of "Marooned," the exciting new Frankovich-Sturges film production for Columbia. Wow. Five hundred of you will win six-packs of Revell kits and 300 will divvy up Apollo space kits. And 250 will get two reserved-seat tickets to "Marooned."

Really easy to enter. Just send us your name, address and first-prize selection (plane, boat or dune buggy) on the back of an end panel from any Revell kit; or make a copy of the panel on a 3-by-5-inch piece of paper, printing the word "Revell" in block letters. Or go to your Revell dealer—he has a free, official entry blank for you. New Revell kits have them, too. You can even send us your name and address on a stamped, self-addressed envelope, and we'll send you an entry blank. If your blank has a secret message on it, you become an Instant Winner of a special mystery prize—and you're still eligible to win any of the other prizes, including one of the top three.

Enter our "Pick-Your-Own-Prize" Sweepstakes now and enter often. Your chances of winning get better each time.

Contest closes May 30, 1970. Winners will be selected after August 1, 1970. All entries become the property of Revell, Inc., and none can be acknowledged or returned. No purchase necessary to participate. Judges' decision final. Sweepstakes subject to local, state and federal laws and void wherever prohibited. Tax liability is responsibility of winners. No substitute prizes will be given nor will cash equivalents be paid. In accepting awards, winners grant Revell the right to publicize and promote their winning of awards. Revell employees, employees of Revell distributors, dealers or their immediate families are ineligible.

* Alfa Romeo 33.

This stylish speedster took on the world at Sebring. And led the pack through the first laps with only a two-litre V-8. Its different rear-deck air scoop and super-sleek lines make it easy to spot. In blood red, it's an exciting addition to every Model Motoring collection.

THE NEW WONDERFUL WORLD OF WONDER WOMAN

M-146

Dear Editor:

What did you do to Wonder Woman? I just read No. 184. It stunk. Bring back the old Wonder Woman.

Ricky Charny
Abington, Pa.

Ricky—if I'm not mistaken—that should be it stank!

And from Albert Ketlinger of the Bronx, N.Y.

Dear Editor:

Why did you do it? You turned one of your best super-heroines into a hippyish imitation of Batgirl!

The recent stories in THE NEW WONDER WOMAN are, as Simon and Garfunkel sang in "The Sounds of Silence", "words of mediocrity".

Why must you kick a winner?

Dear Albert:

We are not kicking a winner, as you put it—the Old Wonder Woman was a loser—she was a loser for so long the book was going to be dropped as a matter of fact. The sales figures on the new Wonder Woman now make her a winner—so it's you who's kicking a winner. Besides, kicking a girl is ungentlemanly, boorish and not at all nice!

To Comic Kid, Clinton, Mass.... You are wrong. Top Hat is not Tony's sister. Sorry, baby, your powers have failed.

Dear Editor:

Unless I've missed my guess, "THEM" in Wonder Woman #185 was the first comic book story to seriously and maturely present a sadist as one of its characters since the inception of the all-too restrictive Comics Code. The runaway-lost-in-the-Village theme as a device through which to present a new recurring character—Cathy Perkins—was a novel departure from the female-espionage-agent type stuff we've been getting recently in WW (not that it's bad; don't get me wrong! The Dr. Cyber story was one of the best tales I've read in any comic book!) Although the new Diana Prince is a very James Bond-like character, I'm happy to say that, unlike Bond, she is no stereo-typed "secret agent" (if you'll excuse the not-quite-so-accurate use of the euphemism), she does not speak in pseudo-hip cliches, and she is permitted to show her human side (newly-acquired though it may be), as in #185.

Martin Pasco
Clifton, New Jersey

Martin Pasko... Thanks for the nice things you've said—and as for the suggestions—we've already rearranged the title around a bit.

Dear Editor:

I'm simply wild about the New Wonder Woman. I'm a long time fan of hers, in fact it's the first comic I can remember reading. She's great! I dig her mod clothes and her groovy Boutique shop! I'm crazy about the swingin' apartment she has! Could you please tell me what happened to Steve Trevor? I'm sorry to say I missed No. 182. I'm just dying to know. Congratulations and keep up the good work. I'll be a fan forever and a day!

Linda Lochman
Fargo, Oklahoma

Linda, dear... Steve died saving Diana from a trap.

Dear Editor:

Yesterday, while shopping, I picked up the latest copy of Wonder Woman and bought it. I expected to see the battle between Dr. Cyber and Diana continue, after witnessing the battle of Paradise Island for the last two issues. Instead, I find Diana defending a girl from a demented dropout from D.C.'s villainy school called Top Hat. Really, DC!!! You have proven to me many, many times before that you can do better than you did in issue #185. The story just didn't excite me the way the ones in the past seven issues have!

Sincerely,
Paula Nass, Age 15

P.S. DC heroes are okay if they're way out supernatural, but please not too kooky villains.

P.P.S. Please publish this con letter for a change instead of a pro letter. I don't mean to sound mean... I'm sorry if I do.

Paula Nass—we're going to let Shirley A. Gorman answer your con letter.

Dear Editor:

I really can't get over this new Wonder Woman. Even though I've said it before I must say it again. This new Wonder Woman is just great. Every issue is better than the first. Issue #185 was no exception. "Them" were a very original and different idea. It was a refreshing change to see Diana pit herself against three bullies instead of the usual "super" villain who wants to conquer the world. I also liked Cathy Perkins and hope to see more of her. This story was a sign of the times so to speak. "Them" represents an element of our society that is fastly making itself known. Yet the story was unusual enough to be different from the average "sign of the times" story. It was offbeat, but very very good.

I do have one question though. Who does the art and scripts for the Wonder Woman magazine? Both are so superb that I would like to know to whom to give the credit. In future issues could the artist and scriptor be named?

In closing I must say that Diana Prince is doing just beautifully in her new role as an "ordinary" human. Keep up the excellent work. I remain always—

A fan forever,
Shirley A. Gorman

And Shirley, we will answer your question right now... the scripts and the pencils are done by Mike Seckowsky and the inking is done by Dick Giordano.

To Jessica Myers of Marshfield, Wisc.... Thank you, too—I'm thinking of having your letter framed—It's the nicest I've ever read! And to the fans and you non-fans, too... keep writing—I do get a lot of ideas and suggestions from your letters both pro and con. Send your letters to:

MAKE MONEY GET PRIZES

with Fast Selling American Seeds

Take your choice of 100 wonderful prizes. You can earn as many as you want. Most prizes shown here and many more in our Big Prize Book are given WITHOUT COST for selling just one 48-pack order of American Vegetable and Flower Seeds at 25¢ a pack. Some of the larger prizes require more sales or extra money as explained in the Big Prize Book.

Send NO MONEY, We Trust You

Everybody wants American Seeds. They're fresh and ready to grow. You'll sell them quickly to family, friends and neighbors. Many boys and girls sell their packs in one day. You can too—and get your prize at once. Or, if you want money instead of a prize, keep $4.00 for every 48-pack order you sell.
