WONDER WOMAN'S CLUBHOUSE

GREETINGS
FROM WONDER
GIRL--

AND
WOMAN!

Hola! Greetings! Welcome to Wonder Woman's Clubhouse on Paradise Island! Here, I rest between spectacular adventures and read the wonderful fan letters you send me!

Dear Wonder Woman: Hola! I know you will receive a surprise when I tell you that my name is Diana, who is the goddess of Hunting or the Moon. I wish you to know that I belong to a Wonder Woman Club, where we engage in physical and mental betterment programs. We all feel that you have set a wonderful example for us to follow. Keep up the good work. —Diana Lawton, Onward, Miss.

Dear Diana: With your club setting such a wonderful example for me—I will do my best! —Wonder Woman.

* * *

Dear Wonder Woman: I am really amazed how your readers naively believe that you are a real person—and that there actually is a place called Paradise Island! Doesn't your conscience bother you a little bit about this? —Johnny Steele, Chicago, Ill.

Dear Johnny: Thank you for the compliment! It is not often that a fictional character is realistic enough to be written to—by a person who doesn't believe in her! —Wonder Woman.

* * *

Dear Wonder Woman: You have always been my favorite story-book heroine, and I am so anxious to start a Wonder Woman Fan Club, here in the Philippines. Just think—mine would be the first one in the Philippines. The trouble is, there are very few other girls of my age I can ask. Can you tell me if there is any special number of members necessary to start a Wonder Woman Fan Club? —Sue Ann Murphy, Clark Air Force Base, P.I.

Dear Sue Ann: You may be a one girl - Wonder Woman Fan Club—if you wish! The important thing is to plan worthwhile activities for your Club! Good luck! —Wonder Woman.

* * *

Dear Wonder Woman: I have a terrific idea for an adventure: Why not give Wonder Woman an assistant? I don't mean like Wonder Girl or Wonder Tot in the "Impossible" stories, but someone equally famous—like Batman, or Flash, or Aquaman, or Green Arrow? —Peter Lestell, Iron Mountain, Mich.

Dear Peter: I've been in spectacular adventures with the "Justice League of America!" Great heroes, all! —Wonder Woman.

* * *

Dear Wonder Woman: There is one thing that doesn't make sense to me. You are supposed to be human, yet you possess super-human powers, such as stopping zooming subs, and all the rest. Just the same, I must say I enjoy all of your adventures, and never miss a single issue! —Carol Winters, Staten Island, N.Y.

Dear Carol: Don't forget—I am also a uniquely-trained Amazon! And in one's imagination—all things are possible! I'm happy you share my adventures with me! —Wonder Woman.

Well, friends, my omni-receiver is summoning me to new, startling adventures! So—until the next time we meet here on Paradise Island —hola!—farewell!
