WHAT TO SINK YOUR TEETH INTO WHEN YOU'RE HUNGRY AND YOU'RE NOT A WEREWOLF.

Every now and then, do you get this uncontrollable urge to bite into something that's really got some meat in it?

Are you tired of sugar-sweet snacks that dissolve in your mouth, and crunchy snacks that you can hardly tell you ate, and all the other boring stuff you have to put up with, every day?

Well, take heart. And, while you're at it, take Slim Jim along in your pocket.

Slim Jim is a chewy, all-meat snack that comes in five very un-boring flavors. Mild, spicy, salami, bacon, and pizza. And you can find it at the grocery store. Or at a lot of the places where you've been getting those sissy snacks.

You might want to carry a few extra ones, too. Then, if you meet a werewolf, you can give him something to sink his teeth into instead of you.

A LITTLE LESS THAN A MEAL. A LITTLE MORE THAN A SNACK.

If you've ever said...

"There must be a better way to earn a living..."

one of our free Career Booklets may provide the opportunity you've been looking for.

It happens to all of us, sooner or later. No matter what kind of job we have.

One day, it suddenly strikes home that we're going to have to work for a living the rest of our lives. And most of us are horrified at the thought of forever being locked into the jobs we now hold.

"Surely," we tell ourselves, "there must be a way to get more satisfaction out of working. Surely, there must be a way to find a job that's more rewarding."

"Surely," in other words, "there must be a better way to earn a living!"

If you have been thinking these same thoughts, you'll find one of our free Career Booklets very helpful at this time. We invite you to send for one.

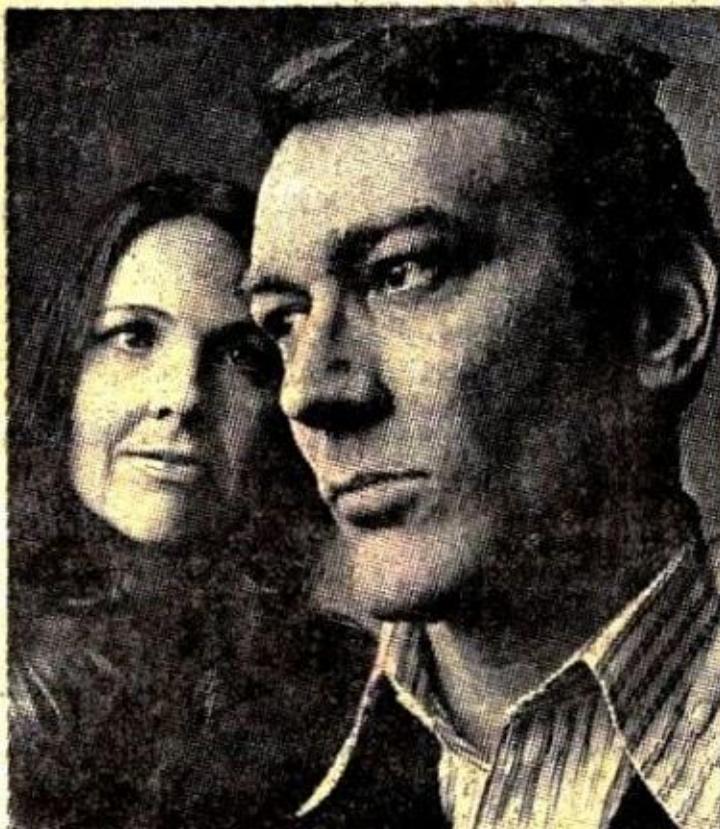

Your free booklet will describe the opportunities you might expect in the career field of your choice. It will also explain how ICS can train you for this new career field...right in your own home...in your spare time.

Please bear in mind, as you check off your career choice on the coupon, that ICS has a long and distinguished record. Since 1890 millions of men and women have turned to ICS for career training.

Of course, no school—not even ICS—can guarantee you a better job. But ICS can give you the first-rate training you need—especially if you're interested in one of the growing careers where ICS concentrates its training.

Earn a Degree at Home

You could even earn a degree at home from the ICS Center for Degree Studies, which is authorized by the Pennsylvania Department of Education to award the Associate in Specialized Business degree in Accounting and Business Management, and the Associate in Specialized Technology degree in Civil, Mechanical, Chemical, and Electrical Engineering Technologies.

you reach your objectives without further academic training.

If you already have some college education, you may be able to receive advanced standing toward your degree. With a degree from ICS, you'll be able to apply with pride for jobs that call for career training.

An Ideal Way to Learn

As an ICS student, you study at home, on your own schedule. But you're never alone. If you ever need help with your studies, you can call ICS from anywhere in the continental United States or Canada, using our special toll-free Dial-a-Question® service.

LETTERS TO THE BATMAN

Dear Julie and Friends,

I was not surprised to learn that David V. Reed has done a lot of television scripting. He has a cinematic way of spinning a tale, so much so that I almost expect commercials instead of a letter column. "The Corpse Came C.O.D." in BATMAN #271 extended his streak of literary triumphs—even though it was a change from his usual style, with less mystery and more action. No complaints, though, because my favorite aspect of The Batman is the concept of his character. Taking the photographs away, calling Carol Ames by her last name, showing contemptuous disgust with the thugs who attacked him ... somehow Dave manages to instill these bits into the Batman mythos without making them seem cliché. Bravo!

I have a history of disliking Irv Novick's artwork, but he really hit the mark in #271. His graphics complemented Dave's words to perfection, which is why the issue was so good!

KEVIN L. CALLAHAN, Brea, Cal.

(Our next correspondent echoes your sentiments about Irv's art, but has the opposite opinion of Dave's scripting!—BR)

Dear Editor: • • • •

So the mystery of David V. Reed deepens! Along with the tantalizing clues offered to us in BATMAN #271's letter column, we also got another slant on the mysterious Reed ... mainly, whoever he is, he can write a straight succession of the best Batman tales ever published and then come up with a total failure like "The Corpse Came C.O.D.!" It seemed as if Reed was trying to cram every Batman story ever written into 18 pages, with dead bodies in Bruce Wayne's apartment, nosy female reporters, secret cults and the most ridiculous gimmicks in years.

To make things worse, all these plot devices ran into each other. We are immediately presented with two mysteries: What was a dead man doing in the rug delivered to Wayne and why did the rug disintegrate? But before we can even get into the problems, Carol Ames pops in. Batman says, "Listen, Ames—who needs you?" and I echo his sentiments. If you want to use a Lois Lane type in Batman, use Lois Lane!

As for the maniac cult in the tale, I'm so sick of idols, priests and the whole scene that I could croak. And that bit about the dancers wearing gold discs that vibrate like cymbals that form deadly frequencies to burst the victim's heart—did Reed whip this out of a rejected PLOP script?

On a better note, however, I must compliment Irv Novick on one of his best art jobs ever. Irv must have been happy to get back to drawing BATMAN, his home ... and yet, after reading the script, I'll bet he thought he was in the wrong house!

BOB RODI, Columbia, Mo.

(Irv Novick fans can find him at home in THE FLASH or in the Ha-Hacienda in THE JOKERI. But now back to the majority opinion on Dave Reed's script!—BR) • • • •

Dear Mr. Schwartz & Mr. Rozakis,

The three high points of "The Corpse Came C.O.D." were the girl, the weapon, and the art! Carol Ames was terrific, mostly because her character was so similar to that of Lois Lane. But if you plan to keep her around (and I hope you do), I hope it's as Batman's competitor and not as a girlfriend.

The high-powered vibration weapon was good, but more important, The Batman's ingenious defense against it saved his life and others and enhanced his "indestructible, unbeatable" image.

The art was fantastic. It showed the darknight detective as he should be—in the shadows and menacingly deadly to all evil-doers.

MICHAEL D. DARGAY, Royal Oak, Mich.

Dear Julie and Bob,

I've been playing with the names David V. Reed and Coram Nobis. Pseudonyms, you say? Hmm. An anagram, perhaps? Let's see ... Dave Driver? Sam Robinco? Marco Bison? "Figure Out the Real Name" just might become the fan game of the year!

WILLIAM M. NEVILLE, Cut Off, La.

(We won't interfere with your fun, except to give you the hint that Dave's real name can be spelled with the letters in his pair of pen names—but you don't need ALL the letters to do it! One thing's for certain, it won't spell out—Bob Rozakis.)
