Beethoven, The Bomb

The JU88 was the Luftwaffe's most versatile weapon. It was a fighter or a bomber... and under the code name, "Beethoven", it became the world's first guided missile. The JU88 was loaded with a 5-ton charge and guided to target by another airplane with radio control. The explosion could penetrate 60 feet of concrete... or demolish an Allied ship. Revell now has an authentic model of this German killer.

It looks as realistic and devastating as the original version. Less than $1.30.

Dear Editor:

Wonder Woman 172 was the first Wonder Woman I bought. It was fab. Wonder Woman is the best comic I have. It's great. So is the title and the story. I will start buying Wonder Woman monthly. The Amazing Amazon Crime was fabulous. The Life Of An Amazon was stupendous. Absolutely fab. By the way, do all Amazons have super powers? Why not have Amazon adventures on Earth 2—it would be great. A Wonder Woman in the Justice League of America and the Justice Society would be great! Goodby.

Jerry Applegate, Mobile, Ala.

Dear Mr. Applegate:

I'm glad that WONDER WOMAN makes life so great for you. But much as I'd like you to buy her monthly, I regret to inform you that she is published every other month. So you'll have to be patient. Your suggestion that Wonder Woman have adventures on Earth 2 has been duly noted. The Mighty Amazon is already in the Justice League. Hope I've answered your questions.

Dear Sir:

I'll come right to the point and ask you my #1 question, or rather give you my suggestion. Why don't you give Steve Trevor his own comic? Steve has a very exciting job as a test pilot, and as a military intelligence officer. I'm sure he does lots of dangerous spy work, (as in I, The Bomb, #157-#158). I like Wonder Woman the way she is now, except I liked her better in the Roman sandals she wore.

Sincerely,

Joanna Raisman, New York, N.Y. 10024.

Dear Miss Raisman:

That's quite an idea of yours, giving Steve Trevor his own magazine. I wonder how many other readers feel the same way you do. I would be interested to know. As for the sandals, The Roman sandals came later; the Mighty Amazon originally was drawn with high heels.

Dear Editor:

A statement was made in the 1967 World Year Book, that Wonder Woman may be seen on television. Can you give me some more information on that statement.

Your biggest fan,
Ronald Mattox, Orlando, Fla.

Dear Mr. Mattox:

Plans for the Amazon Maid to appear on TV are on the fire. But at the present moment she is in the planning stage.

Dear Sir:

In Wonder Woman, you have one of the most interesting and dramatic books on the market. Keep her as fabulous as you have all this time, and you will have a reader for life, like me.

Jack Dansiz, Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario, Canada.

Dear Mr. Dansiz:

You're just the kind of reader that has already made Wonder Woman last a printed lifetime. Thanks for your support.

Dear Wonder Woman:

I'm glad to say you've been in our family ever since Mom was a little girl, which has been a long time. You're my favorite all the way. (Don't tell the

WONDER WOMAN'S Readers Write!

Justice League, they may get mad). Mom has read all your books for years, and is reading them still.

You're the best looking girl of them all, both as Diana Prince and as Wonder Woman. I also think you dress real fine and I wouldn't want you to change to the mods. Frankly, I don't like them. I feel sorry for Steve for not knowing that you and Diana Prince are one and the same girl. Is Wonder Girl your little sister? If not, what? Mom and I have a dispute about it. Do you have a father living, if so, who and where is he? Was your mother ever a Wonder Woman, or did you inherit the title? Your mother's a doll too. A great fan, friend, and admirer.

Bridget Green, Dubois, Wyoming.

Dear Miss Green:

I'm glad that you and your mother are such great fans of Wonder Woman. And I'll do my best to answer your questions:

1—Wonder Girl is not Wonder Woman's sister. She is Wonder Woman as a teenager. Just as Wonder Tot is Wonder Woman as a baby. By creating these characters we have been able to give you more variety about the Amazon at different periods of her life.

2—Wonder Woman does not have a father living.

3—Wonder Woman's mother, Queen Hippolyta, head of all the Amazons, is somewhat of a wonder woman in her own right, having all the powers of an Amazon.

4—Wonder Woman won the title in a contest against sister Amazons. This enabled her to go to Man's World and battle crime and injustice.

Dear Editor:

I've been reading Wonder Woman since her first appearance in Sensation Comics No. 1. I like her as a character and have always liked the stories. However, ever since her inception, I've never been able to stand the art.

The golden age style was terrible and the present Andru-Esposito style is even worse. Please understand that I'm not belittling the present artists' abilities. I think their type of art is fine for Metal Men and Metamorpho, but for Wonder Woman, it lacks the finesse that WW should have.

It would be very nice and a welcome change to have Sekowsky, Greene, or Murphy Anderson do the art. Sekowsky and Greene seem to do an excellent job on WW in Justice League, so why not try them out in a full WW mag.

Why not put this art style question to your readers?

A loyal Fan,

Sam Reznick, Pittsburgh, Pa.

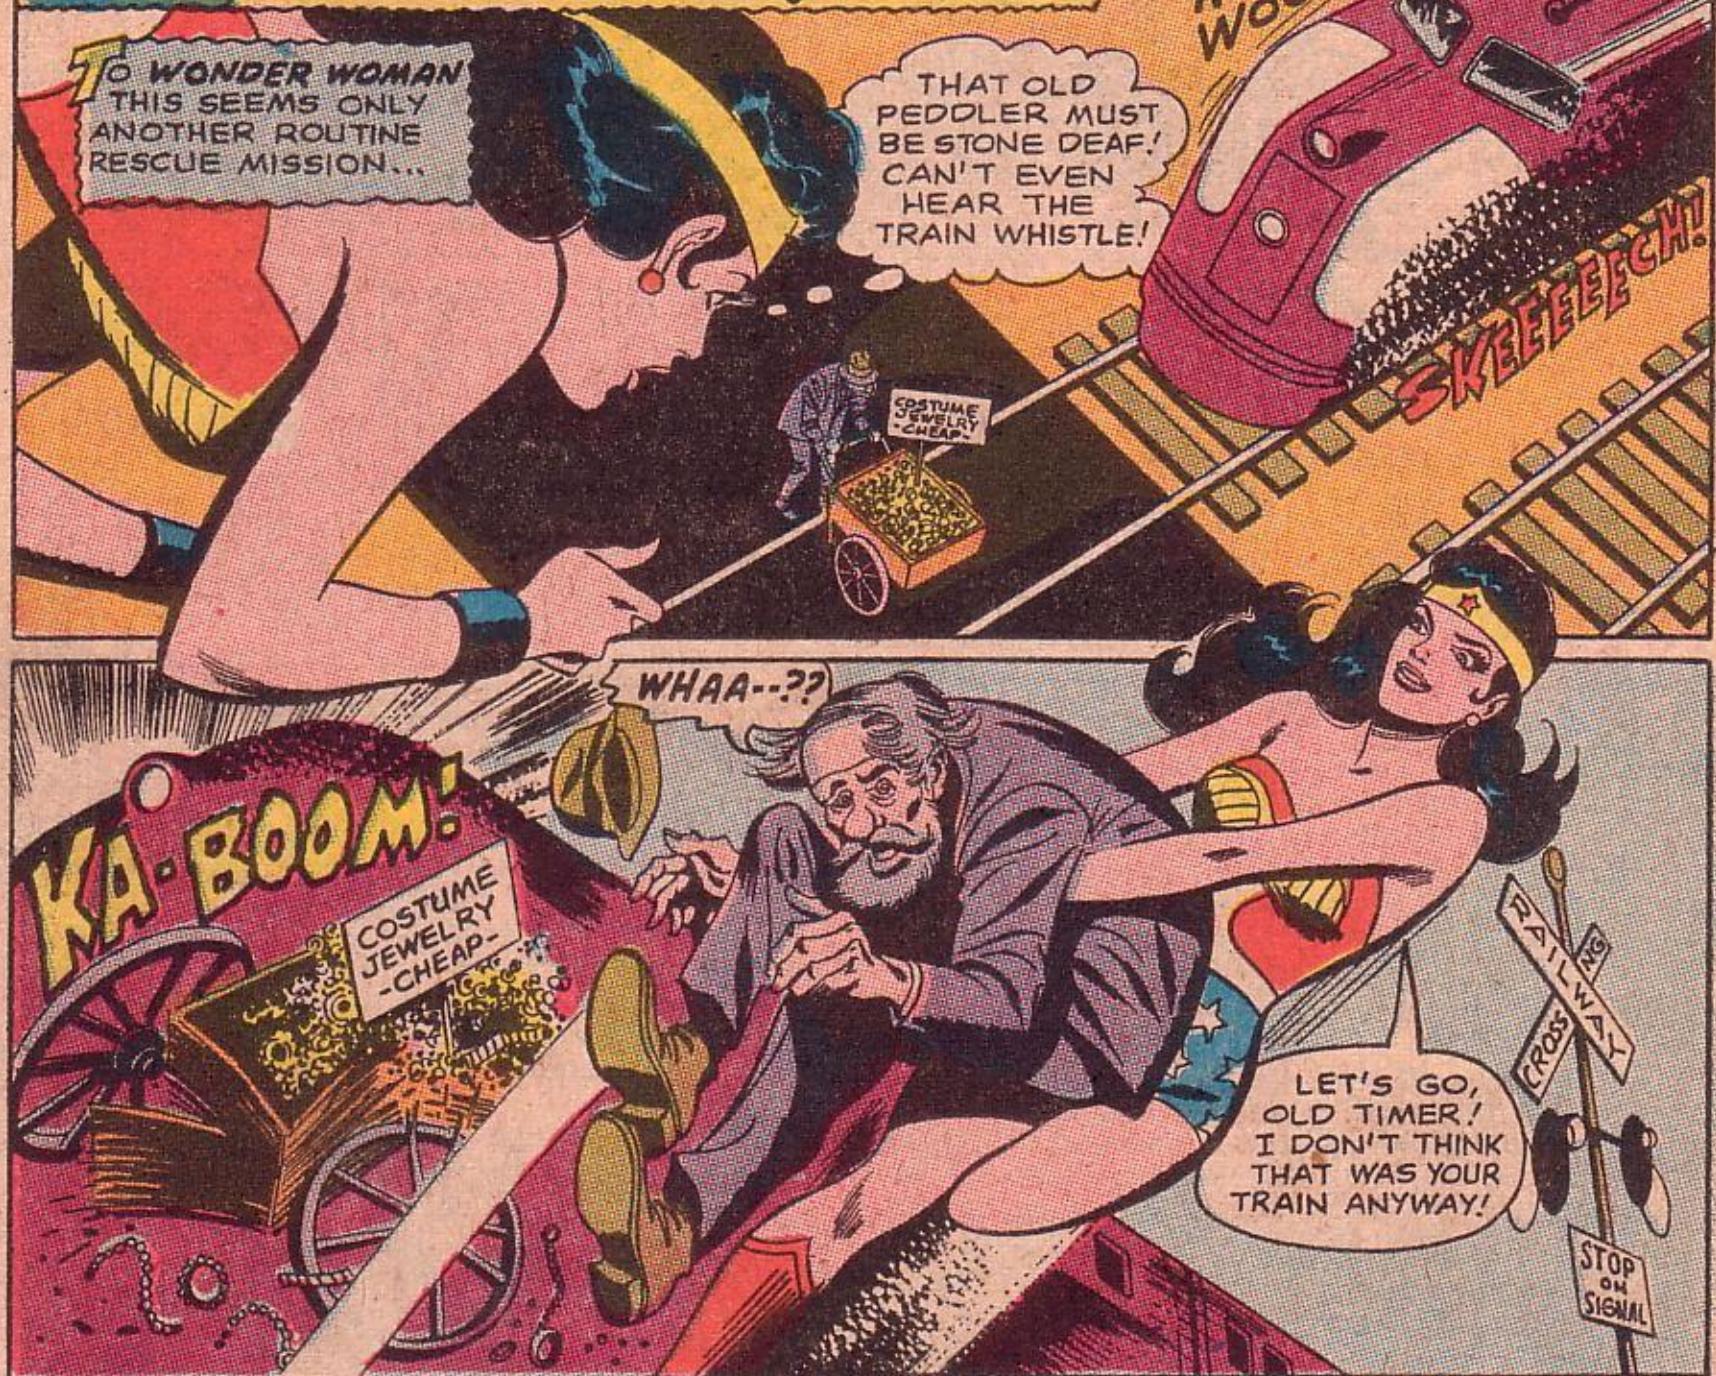

Dear Mr. Reznick:

I will put your suggestion to a vote. How about it, readers? Which artist team would you like to see drawing Wonder Woman?

- 1—Andru-Esposito.
- 2—Mike Sekowsky.
- 3—Sid Greene.
- 4—Murphy Anderson.

Send in your choice to Wonder Woman's Readers Write.

Well, here it is time for another look at what the future holds in the DC line. But first, we want to extend a big thank-you to every reader who has sent an idea to CAP'S HOBBY HINTS. The suggestions pour in by the carload . . . too many to acknowledge each one personally. If your idea wasn't used, chances are someone beat you to it, and it had already been printed earlier. But that doesn't mean you can't try again. It's you readers who supply the material that has made this feature such a smashing success.

The August HOUSE OF MYSTERY sports another cover masterpiece by that dean of the DC drawing-board, NEAL ADAMS! It illustrates a story called "HOUSE OF GARGOYLES!" And what are the GARGOYLES? An ugly addition to a sleepy midwestern town—which wakes the town up! In fact, the creepy creatures are hated by everyone—except the kids! Where did the grotesque newcomers come from? And why are they there? The kids find out, and so will you—in No. 175, on sale May 9!

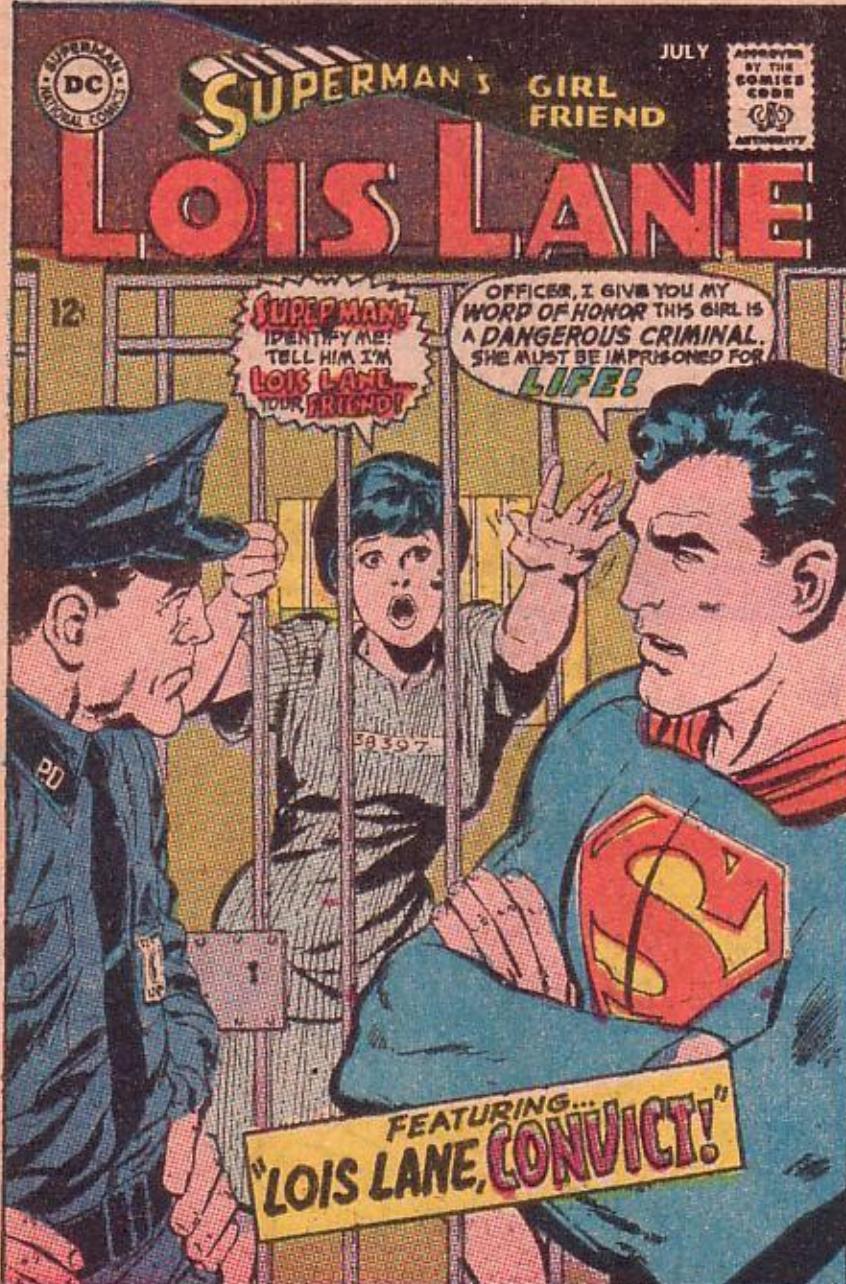

DO YOU DARE ENTER THE HOUSE OF MYSTERY?

Can you imagine LOIS LANE being arrested . . . booked . . . fingerprinted . . . handcuffed . . . mugged . . . slapped into a jail cell? You won't have to imagine it . . . you'll SEE it in the July issue, No. 84, when it goes on sale, May 14! It's the most hopeless predicament of LOIS' life! She can't contact SUPERMAN or the DAILY PLANET . . . and the evidence is all dead against her! Can she possibly beat the rap . . . or will the next issue take place behind prison walls?

The sight of THE SPECTRE has always thrown fear into the hearts of evil-doers! But suddenly, without warning, the GHOSTLY GUARDIAN has precisely the same effect on decent, law-abiding people! How could it possibly be that the very sight of "THE SPECTRE MEANS DEATH"? The eerie explanation of this incredible enigma will be revealed in the pages of the August issue of the ASTRAL AVENGER'S magazine, No. 5, which goes on sale May 14!

The DOOM PATROL has fought every kind of formidable foe on land, on the sea, and in the air! But now comes a sinister enemy based in the stratosphere, whose prime purpose is to destroy orbiting satellites! And when he's confronted by our fearsome foursome, "THE RAGE OF THE WRECKER" has no bounds! If you want to see a fight to rock the globe—and maybe everything within a few million miles—latch onto the August issue, No. 120, on sale May 16!
