A photograph of a woman with dark hair and bangs, wearing a black jacket over a white shirt. She is holding three yellow cards with handwritten text. The text appears to be in a mix of English and another language, possibly Korean. The first card has 'Naci' at the top, followed by several lines of cursive handwriting. The second card has 'Naci' at the top, followed by several lines of cursive handwriting. The third card has 'Naci' at the top, followed by several lines of cursive handwriting.

A black and white photograph of a person's torso and arms. They are wearing a red short-sleeved shirt with yellow polka dots and a yellow collar. The person is flexing their right arm, showing a large bicep. A blue star sticker is visible on the lower left side of the image.

The image is a composite of two scenes from the movie Pulp Fiction. On the left, Jules Winnfield (Bruce Willis) is shown from the chest up, wearing his iconic black and white striped fedora and dark sunglasses. He has a serious, focused expression. On the right, Vincent Vega (John Travolta) is shown from the chest up, wearing a bright green headband over his sunglasses and pointing a silver revolver with a red-tipped bullet at the viewer. He also has a serious expression. The background is dark and appears to be an interior setting. Overlaid text includes the words "were alive?" in a stylized font at the top and "Too Bad" in a bold, outlined font at the bottom.

A colorful illustration of a dog's head and upper body. The dog has brown fur, a black nose, and pink spots on its cheeks. It is wearing a yellow shirt with black stripes. The background is a light blue gradient.

A close-up of a person's face and upper body. The person is wearing an orange hoodie with black outlines and a red and black patterned scarf. The word "DIES" is overlaid in large, bold, black letters at the bottom of the frame.
