INTRODUCING ONE PIECE WEB!!

by Ponio, Aichi

R: Hello, Oda. This is the first letter I've written. I always have fun reading. Really. So, when you wrote in a SBS in volume 53 that you were going to slowly bring One Piece to a close, I ran to get a pen. Please don't say anything like that again. Don't say you're sorry for making us spend money, please. I know this is a SBS, but I don't have any questions.

-Taba

O: What do you mean no question!! 3 But after I said that in volume 53, I got a mountain of postcards like this, so I was surprised. There's no deep meaning behind it! UM, First, when I was talking about an ideal length of publication, I was thinking about the readers who have to buy all of the books. As an author, I always want new readers, but people who started reading in the middle, for example, might not know that Luffy was the first member of the Strawhat Pirates. I want them to know what kind of adventures they had and the friends they made along the way, but I can't just tell them to buy more than 50 books, right!? Even I know that kids don't have that kind of money! To deal with this and let people know the past story, we've made several summary books. But this time, my desire to make it as cheap as possible has been granted by two companies, "Kyarameru Mama" and "Hearty Way!" It's too cheap!! Because it's free!! Nice fight, guys!! They've made a site called One Piece Web! It has a perfect story guide. It explains the entire past story!! Kids who can't afford all of the books can just go to this site! Access it! (Adults, you go buy the books, please.) So when I said that before, it was because I was worried about this, so I apologize. It's not like I'm losing my passion. I've only wanted to do one thing from the beginning, and that's to tell lots of stories and make an interesting manga until the end. In the big picture, One Piece is roughly in its middle third. If you have time, please stay with us. I'll always fight to make a story unlike any you've read before. And check out the site too!!
