GREETINGS
FROM WONDER
GIRL--

AND
WOMAN!

Hola! This is Wonder Woman, speaking to you from Paradise Island, secret home of the Amazons!

The mail bag today is brimming. I'd like to get to as many letters as possible!

Dear Wonder Woman: Recently I bought a new comic book called "Metal Men" and read about a wonderful new heroine called Tina. Actually she is platinum. I fell in love with her at once and decided then and there to read every one of her adventures. But I want you to know that you are still my real favorite—and that you come first. You'll be surprised when you see what my first name is.

Tina Woodsley, Chicago, Ill.

Dear Tina: I don't blame you for falling in love with Tina. The fact is, I'm very fond of her myself.

Wonder Woman

* * *

Dear Wonder Woman: By actual count, this is the tenth letter I have written to you. But I'm not angry because you never answered my letter in your column. I realize that you probably receive thousands of letters from your fans, and can't possibly print them all. Believe me, Wonder Woman, in my opinion you could never do anything wrong. I would trust you with anything.

Linda Koepper, Troy, N. Y.

Dear Linda: Thank you for your confidence and understanding.

Wonder Woman

* * *

Dear Wonder Woman: You keep saying, "Great Hera!" Who was Hera?

Leslie West, Trenton, N. J.

Dear Leslie: So many readers continue to ask this question, even though I answered it in "The Proving of Wonder Woman!" in the JULY issue of WONDER WOMAN No. 131. Hera was Zeus's wife. According to mythology, she was brought up by the Titans, Ocean and Tethys. In her most important adventure, she acted as the protector of great heroes.

Wonder Woman

* * *

Dear Wonder Woman: You refer to "Paradise Island" as the secret home of the Amazons. But in a book on mythology it says that the Amazons lived in a city called Themiscyra, which was in the Caucasus. How do you explain this?

Bunny Severn, Detroit, Mich.

Dear Bunny: Paradise Island is the fictitious island that the Amazons moved to.

Wonder Woman

* * *

Dear Wonder Woman: I have wonderful news for you. At least, I hope you think it is wonderful. You see, I was never given a middle name. So, I asked my mother if I could have one now. She said I could—and asked me what name I would choose. Guess what I chose? Yes, I picked "Diana." This means I am probably the only girl in the whole world who is named after the wonderful Wonder Woman.

Sally DIANA Crews, Miami, Fla.

Dear Sally Diana: Thanks for the thought, Sally. It was very sweet of you!

Wonder Woman

And now I must say farewell for a while, because my Amazon omni-receiver is paging me for new adventures! You can always reach me at:

MARRIAGE A LA MODE!

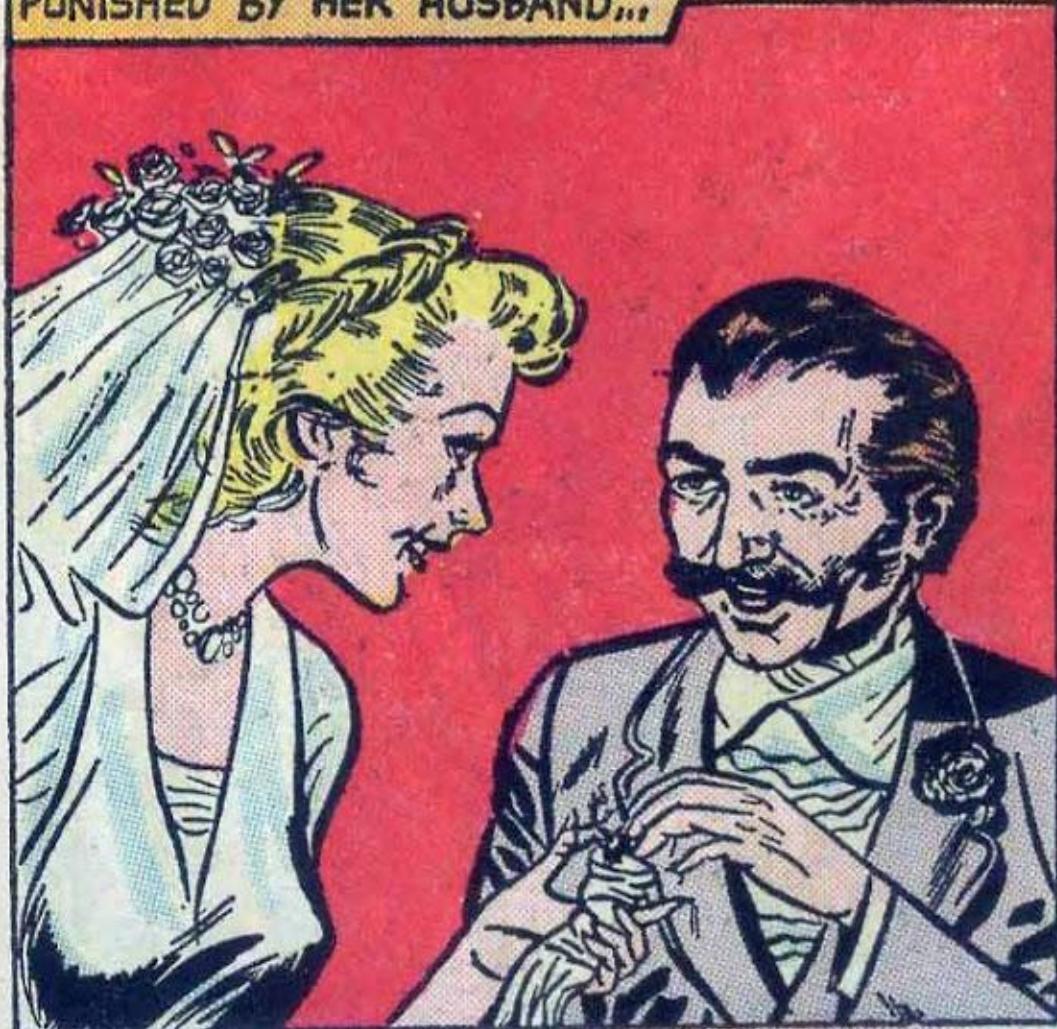

TOWARD THE END OF A GYPSY WEDDING CEREMONY, A GLASS JAR IS THROWN TOWARD THE SUN--AND WHEN IT FALLS EACH OF THE GUESTS RUSHES FORWARD TO PICK UP A BROKEN PIECE, IN THE BELIEF IT WILL BRING HIM GOOD LUCK IN THE DAYS TO COME...

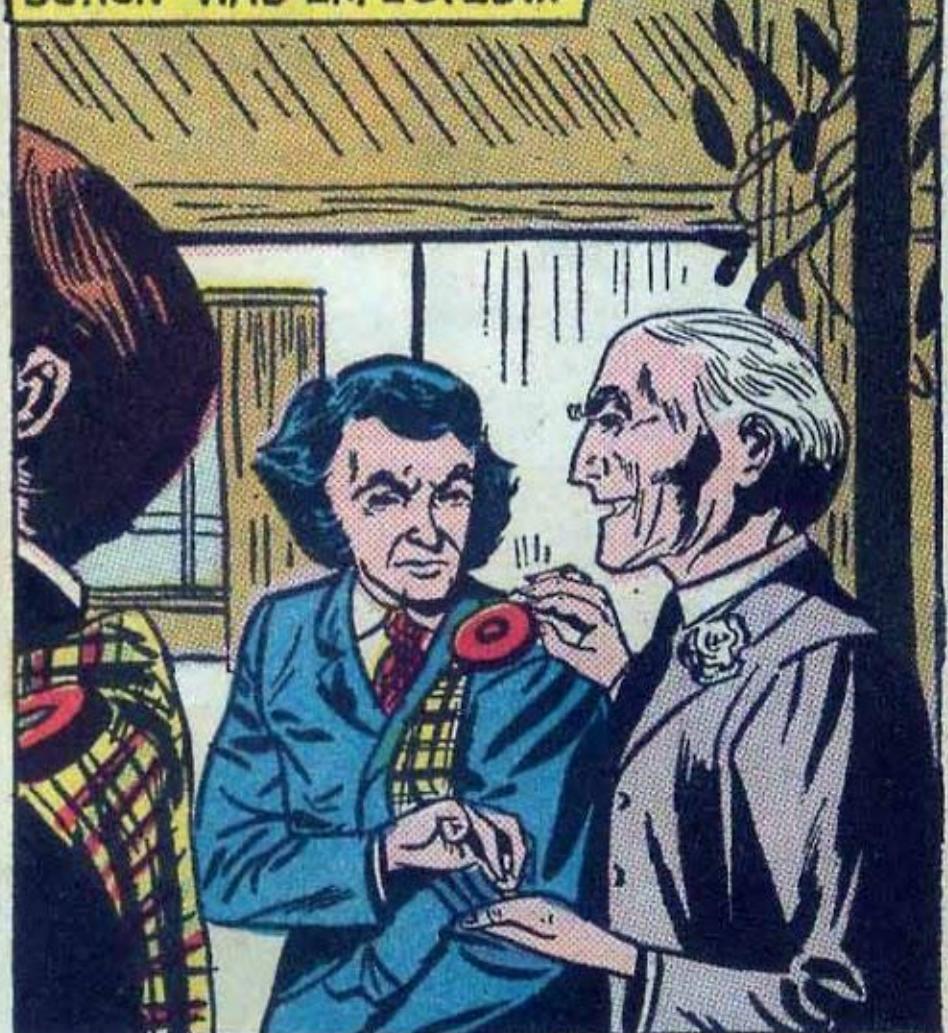

IN FRANCE, YEARS AGO, WHEN THE MOMENT ARRIVED FOR THE GROOM TO PRESENT HIS BRIDE WITH THE WEDDING RING, SHE "CLUMSILY" LET IT FALL TO THE GROUND, TRUSTING BY THIS MANEUVER SHE WOULD BREAK ANY EVIL SPELL THAT MIGHT TEND TO BRING UNHAPPINESS TO HER MARRIED LIFE...

BEFORE A BRIDE DEPARTED FOR HER WEDDING IN THE THURINGIA PROVINCE OF GERMANY, IT WAS CUSTOMARY FOR HER FATHER TO PLACE A PIECE OF RICE BREAD IN ONE OF HER GLOVES AND A TINY THORN TWIG IN THE OTHER. IT WAS THOUGHT THAT THE BREAD WOULD INSURE HER AGAINST POVERTY AND THE TWIG PREVENT HER FROM BEING UNFAIRLY PUNISHED BY HER HUSBAND...

GUESTS WHO ATTENDED A SCOTTISH WEDDING AND NEGLECTED TO BRING A GIFT, WERE TAPPED ON THE SHOULDER BY THE BRIDE'S FATHER AS A REMINDER THAT AN IMMEDIATE CONTRIBUTION WAS EXPECTED...
