END-OF-PROJECT RANT

Well, here we are again, at the end of another project.
It's been a great ride, and it's not that we don't love Fairy Tail anymore...
cause we do!!

But the truth is also that we were never planning to do this until the end of days.
Our main goal has always been: "Allow it to rise out of anonymity and provide people with medium-quality scans until others pick up on it."

So let's sum up:

- It got licensed (and I'm sure Del Rey'll do a much better job than us)
- People at Mangahelpers have translated and scanlated recent chapters
- It's one of the top-read series at Manga-Updates

We'd like to think our mission is successful.

Sad to say these weren't the only reasons that accounted to us dropping it;
cause we had no issues with going on after Del Rey's acquisition of FT.
As much as we still love it as readers, our love for it as scanlators providing for people in the shonen manga community has reached an all-time low.

Too many ill-spoken words, too many grievances.
Especially considering we were the only group doing it (a rarity nowadays) and we were never more than a couple of chapters behind.

Dear leechers:

Have patience, scanlators have lives too and no obligations towards you whatsoever.

Dear aspiring scanlators:

Before trying to make your own scanlations, look into joining an existing one first.

There's no such thing as an "overstaffed" group.

And just a general note to everyone:

There's more to the world of manga than what you've already been exposed to.

And it is with those words, we bid thee farewell! Much love to everyone that supported us, everyone that said something nice now and again, and please;
try reading something out of the ordinary once in a while.
