Now where were we? Oh yeah, we were talking about what new series and big events we have to look forward to for the remainder of this year, before we can start talking about what super secret projects we have planned for next year. Next year, next time... maybe. Right now, let's talk TEEN TITANS, in particular TEEN TITANS EAST.

Come this November, the Teen Titans you know and love come face to face with their east coast counterparts. But this will be far from a social gathering, as this group of super-powered teens was organized by none other than the Titans' greatest nemesis, Deathstroke. I can guarantee that their first meeting will be a deadly one. Pulled together by shared evil intentions are former heroes Batgirl, Risk, the Joker's Daughter, returning villains Inertia and Match, and all-new threats Choir Boy and Sun Girl. The action begins in TEEN TITANS #42. With a gathering like this, you know you're in for trouble!

And with all those new characters appearing in the TITANS series, the book seemed a bit crowded, so a couple of former Titans decided to spin out into miniseries of their own. Titans Master Marv Wolfman scripts new adventures for one of his most complex characters in a brand new RAVEN miniseries. With the talents of artist Damion Scott, the series will follow Raven's dangerous exploits away from the team. Not to be forgotten, the infamous TERRA returns in her very own miniseries too, this one brought to you by the ever-busy writing team of Palomotti and Gray and art by everyone's favorite power girl, Amanda Conner. But wait! Isn't Terra dead? Alive? Dead again? Alive again? Not to worry. It will all make sense (or at least that's what Jimmy and Justin keep telling me).

Also in December, Will Eisner's beloved THE SPIRIT returns with all-new monthly adventures brought to you by NEW FRONTIER's writer and artist Darwyn Cooke. (You should see his amazing re-creations of classic Spirit splash pages done when he was just a kid!) But before the new series begins, Darwyn teams with the gone but not forgotten Jeph Loeb in a special story featuring the first ever teaming of The Spirit and Batman. This will be a story for all generations. It will be a very good holiday season!
